EDUCATION.

FOUNDED 1844..........INCORPORATED 185[illegible]

NEW ORLEANS

Female Collegiate Institute,

BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES,

Under the Supervision of Madame ED. LOCQUET, No. 209 Camp Street, between Julia and St. Joseph streets.

THIS Institution, founded by Dr. and Mrs. Mc[illegible], whose high reputation has never been questioned, will commence its seventeenth session on MONDAY, the 16th of September.

Mme. ED. LOCQUET, assisted by her sister, Miss FRANCOIS LOCQUET, will use her best endeavors to continue to merit the confidence reposed, for so many years, in her institution.

Professors of the highest talent are employed in all the branches, both useful and ornamental. Piano, Music and the study of the Solfege, will be taught exclusively by Mme. LOCQUET, whose reputation as professor of music has been so well appreciated by the numerous families who have favored them with their confidence.

The French language, the native tongue of those ladies, and the acquirement of which is now indispensable to a good education, is taught with the utmost care, and is spoken in the Institution. Young ladies will therefore find in their constant intercourse with these teachers every facility possible for perfecting themselves in this language.

This establishment, always as commodious and well arranged, has recently been entirely renovated, with due regard to the comfort and health of the pupils. Mme. LOCQUET respectfully invites parents and families to call and visit her school, where prospectuses, with all other information which may be desired, can be obtained.

Letters of inquiry will be promptly attended to by the Principal. sep1 ly

ACADEMY

Conti street, No. 159, between Dauphin and Burgundy Streets.

THIS Academy, founded by Mr. G. Boyer, is about to resume, with the assistance of Mr. C. Legendre, a graduate of the University of France, its 20th session. The establishment, which has always deserved its reputation, will be conducted on a much more extensive plan in all the branches with the assistance of the Professors. Classical and commercial education will be imparted to the pupils, including the study of the ancient languages, to such pupils to whom private arrangements will be extended into either by Mr. Legendre or Mr. Boyer. The pupils will be taught to use the instruments relating to the study of Geodesy and Surveying.

Book-keeping being now an indispensable qualification, Mr. Legendre will attend to a regular course, from 5 to 6 o'clock, P. M. A month began must be paid in full. The classes open on the 1st of October. sep6

Jefferson Academy,

[illegible]....BOURBON STREET, N. O.....[illegible]

Conducted by G. J. LORD.

THIS establishment, founded in 1852, has long held a high position in public opinion as one of the leading Institutions in the South of the United States.

The plan comprises a general and extensive system of education. Pupils are admitted at six or seven years of age, and continue till they are prepared for their future pursuits in life. They are distributed into classes, according to their capacities and acquirements.

The premises are, perhaps, the best to be found in the city, with ample space for exercise and recreation, and every convenience for an institution of learning.

The Professors are gentlemen of talent, chosen with care. Good order reigns in the establishment, and strict attention is paid to the moral conduct and improvement of the pupils.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Preservation of the Sight.

MR. S. DUHAMEL, optician, [illegible] No. 45 Chartres street, begs leave to inform all those whose sight is defective that he has just received a fresh invoice of patent Cylindrical Glasses, approved by the most renowned oculists in Paris, and Drs. Beard, Pennisson, Crawcour, Nee and others in New Orleans. The curb is such that these glasses can be used without the least danger to the [illegible].

The most skillful opticians have made a report declaring that the above articles are unquestionably the best for the preservation and improvement of the sight. Their superiority over all others consists in the focus being divided over the whole surface, instead of being in the center only, as is the case with spectacle glasses generally. The interposition of the two cylindrical curbs makes them besides achromatic, and, consequently, much clearer than the others.

Near-sighted persons will find a great improvement in these glasses.

A pattern showing the advantages of these new glasses will be exhibited and explained, on application to Mr. Duhamel, to all those who may be desirous of being further informed on the subject. feb11
