LIFE INSURANCE.

OCEAN INSURANCE COMPANY.—The absence of any institution in this city for insuring live, and the extravagant rates of premium demanded by the northern and European companies for granting life policies to persons residing in this city, induced a number of citizens of New Orleans of this Company to put into operation that clause in their charter which authorizes insurance upon lives, on a scale of premium based upon the actuarial table of mortality, at a moderate annual income to secure for those who are dependent on them a comfortable provision in case of their decease.

This being the second year of the action, and two lots will be definitely adjudicated to the highest and best bidder for what they will bring at 12 months credit, promissory notes being given with good and sufficient security, bearing five per cent interest per annum, and specially mortgaged until final payment.
