Art. [illegible] Be it further ordained, That it shall be the duty of the [illegible] whenever he may receive any information of the arrival of any vessel having any infectious or contagious disease on board, to order such vessel to anchor in the middle of the river, below Slaughter House Point; and in case of the master or commander of such vessel refusing or neglecting so to do, the Mayor is hereby authorized to cause such vessel to be immediately removed and anchored at the place above designated, and the owner, master or commander of such vessel shall pay a fine of one hundred dollars for neglecting or refusing to remove such vessel as aforesaid, and shall also pay the expenses of such removal.

Art. 3d. Be it further ordained, That any owner, master or commander of a vessel who shall land or permit to land, within the limits of the city of New Orleans, any person or persons affected with any infectious or contagious disease, shall pay a fine of one hundred dollars for each and every person so affected they may land or permit to land.

Art. 4th. Be it further ordained, That it shall be the duty of all owners, masters or commanders of vessels arriving from sea, and having any infectious or contagious disease on board, to come to an anchor as required by the first article of this ordinance and immediately notify the Mayor of this city thereof; and the Mayor shall immediately notify the Board of Health of the arrival of such vessel, whose duty it shall be to proceed on board of such vessel and examine the persons affected, and report the result of their examination to the Mayor; and any owner, master or commander of a vessel refusing or neglecting to comply with the provisions of this article shall pay a fine of one hundred dollars.

Art. 5th. Be it further ordained, that whenever any vessel having any infectious or contagious disease on board, shall have been anchored as directed by this ordinance, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to remove such vessel from her anchorage until the owner, master or commander of such vessel shall have first procured to that effect a written permit, from the Mayor of this city; and it shall be the duty of the Mayor, prior to granting such permit, to cause an examination of such vessel to be made by the Board of Health, and upon the Board of Health certifying in writing that all infectious or contagious disease has disappeared from such vessel, he shall grant permission to such vessel to remove from the anchorage aforesaid at any of the wharves; and each and every person or persons removing or attempting to remove any vessel or vessels from the anchorage as aforesaid, shall pay a fine of one hundred dollars.

Art. 6th. Be it further ordained, That the fines and penalties imposed by this ordinance shall be recoverable before any competent tribunal, for the benefit of the Board of Health of the city of New Orleans.

Art. 7th. Be it further ordained, That the printer of this Council shall print one thousand copies of this ordinance and deliver the same to the Mayor, and the Mayor is requested to forward two hundred copies of the same to the branch pilots at the Balize and the Passes, with the request that they distribute the same to the captains and masters of vessels coming from sea.

Art. 8th. Be it further ordained, That all ordinances contrary to the provisions of this ordinance be and the same are hereby repealed.

DENTISTRY.

DR. DUPERRON has the honor to inform the citizens of New Orleans that, having given up his office to DR. COMMUNY, he trusts that those persons who have heretofore honored him with their confidence, will continue to extend it to his successor, who fully merits it by his talent and capacity.

DR. E. COMMUNY informs the public that the office will be open from 8 o'clock A. M. to 4 P. M. at No. 209 Bourbon street, between Main and St. Philip.

E. MAMANNE, French Surgeon Dentist, from Paris, respectfully informs the Planters along the coast, that he intends visiting the plantations from the Balize to Bayou Sara, on both sides of the river, and offer them his services.

E. R. directs the dentition of children, corrects any deviation, and fills up the teeth with cement; places in it a simple tooth to a complete set, and undertakes curing all vices and defects of the mouth. ja27

MESSRS. P. BLANCHARD & ACHILLE LION, Surgeon Dentists of the Faculty of Paris and New Orleans, [illegible] to inform their clients, that since the 1st of June, they have united their offices at No. 44 Royal street, between Bienville and Customhouse (residence of Dr. Lion.)

The engagements they are under towards various institutions and the Convent of this city, to which they are attached, compel them to absent themselves many days in the course of the month. They have, therefore, deemed it expedient to form a Co-partnership, as well on their own accounts as on account of their numerous Clients, in order that one of the two may be always in town, ready to receive all persons who may honor them with their confidence. The superiority of their work, and the care and [illegible] exhibited by them, induce them to hope for a continuance of the patronage of the public.

D[illegible] invites his friends and all interested [illegible] to call and examine the improvements in the manufacture of Artificial Teeth, particularly [illegible] Teeth, for which he received the first premium at the State Fair.

Persons wishing artificial Teeth inserted, can have it done at my establishment with less delay and upon more reasonable terms than any other in the south.

It has ever been my object to alleviate the poverty of the poor as well as the rich to obtain relief and receive the benefits of dental operations. The great [illegible] of my practice for the [illegible] years has compelled me to employ several skilful operatives, among whom is an experienced French Dentist, whose services I have procured for a term of years at considerable expense [illegible] may rely upon finding me always [illegible] upon them; [illegible] operation will always be submitted to my examination and approval.

Blocks manufactured for Dentists to suit every variety of case, by furnishing [illegible] models. A supply of every article used by Dentists kept constantly on hand.
