IRON PIANOS

OF A NEW KIND, BY ERARD & PLEYEL.

PIANOS with an elongation, large model, with seven octaves and a double escapement, manufactured by Erard. Pianos with an elongation, large dimensions, and seven octaves, by Pleyel. Also, straight Pianos, large dimensions, oblique cord, by Erard.
These Instruments have received improvements which give them great power and energy of sound, without diminishing their melody and sweetness, and which many prefer to sounds that are merely sharp.
Artists and Amateurs are particularly invited to call upon the subscriber, and judge for themselves.
A. PERIER, 298 Royal st., between St. Philip and Ursuline streets.
Note.—(Price reduced.)—For sale, an Iron Piano, with elongation, at cost; also, a number of Picolos, of all kinds, much below common prices. n30

Messrs. J. FAIVRE & D. ALLOVON,
Already known by the invention of their IMPROVED SYSTEM.
Incontestibly superior to any ever exhibited before to-day, which their rivals themselves cannot deny,
INFORM the public that they now have a fine assortment of Pianos of all kinds, which they will sell at lower prices than all the establishments of this city.
Mr. Allovon having lately gone to France to increase their stock of Pianos, already very considerable, but which the great expense rendered insufficient, now offer to their numerous customers a magnificent assortment of Pianos with elongation of seven octaves, hollow and straight, of seven octaves, of iron of their make, with which no other Piano can struggle as to solidity, tone and melody.
Some manufacturers in France wished, by the counsels and long experience of merchants of this city, to try and come as near as possible to this excellent iron system, so well appreciated by the people of Louisiana, and which those gentlemen hope will make the enormous difference between their Pianos and the imported ones.
Besides the varied assortment of Pianos made by those gentlemen, we have excellent Pianos of Erard and Pleyel, like those of the self called iron system of other merchants.
To Let, A large assortment of Pianos of all prices.

Institution for young Ladies.
Founded by Madame Arvis, directed by Madame DERON, late Miss HUET.
Nos. 107 & 109 Burgundy st. between Conti and St. Louis streets.

MADAME DERON, late Miss HUET, in assuming the direction of the Institution, conducted for the last seven years by Madame Arvis, solicits a continuance of the kind support which has been justly extended to the instructress whom she succeeds.
A distinguished pupil of the "Maison Royale de St. Denis," possessing the diploma of superior Instructress, and formerly first Mistress in two of the most celebrated Boarding-Schools of Paris, Madame DERON, who has already passed several years in this City, is equally well known for the mild firmness of her character, and the excellence of her method of instruction.
She will be ably seconded by her husband, Mr. DERON, who has similar guarantees to offer to Families. Recently arrived from Paris at New Orleans, he is already known under the most favorable auspices. A Bachelor of Arts, a Licentiate of the Faculty of Paris, formerly a pupil of the "Ecole des Chartes," at the King's Library, and professor of Literature, History and Philosophy at Paris. Mr. DERON is also the author of several works. He will devote his whole time to the French classes in the different branches of instruction.
The English language will be the object of particular attention governesses of acknowledged capacity, and a distinguished Professor, Mr. Orton will be especially entrusted with the direction of the English classes.
Ladies of the most remarkable talent and eminent science, will give instruction in Music at the Establishment.
Madame Boyer will continue to give lessons on the Piano, and Madame Lavillebeuvre on the Piano and Harpe.
The other accomplishments will also be taught by the best Professors.
Such is a resumed form of the order of the Establishment, and such are the titles and means by which Mr and Madame DERON are enabled to assure parents that the studies of their children will be conducted in a superior manner.
As those considerations which constitute the order of education should prevail over all others, Madame DERON will principally exert herself to justify the confidence of Families by the physical, moral and religious care that she will bestow on her pupils.
To form in young Ladies, first the heart and the character and the mind, to inspire them with true and pure principles, to prepare them to enter the world with ease, but also with a profound sentiment of duty; to render them not only mild and gentle, but firm and decided; to endow them with an intelligence equally brilliant and solid, and above all, to produce them to become hereafter good mothers of Families, are the ends which Madame DERON proposes to maintain steadily in view.
The practice of such a system of education and instruction, Madame DERON ventures to hope, will secure to her all the esteem and confidence which it has already procured for Madame Arvis.
The terms of payment will remain as at present established by Madame Arvis.

WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL
For Young Ladies,
Under the direction of Mrs. de la Gracerie,
Esplanade st., bet. Burgundy and Dauphine sts.

THE method followed in the establishment is to figure neither the attentions nor the memory of the pupils. Books are not multiplied and learning is rendered easy and attractive to the efforts of the Professor, and disengaged of the thousand futilities of routine.
Two Professors of the English Language and Literature are attached to the Establishment, which recommended by the name of the Father of the Country, the Immortal Washington, will answer the views of the parents.
The course of the studies will comprise the French, English and Italian Languages, Mathematics, History, Geography, Natural History and Rhetoric.
The younger children will be taught the rudiments of elementary education.
Mr. de la Gracerie shall have the special charge of the higher classes, and will, moreover, attend to the second preparatory class.
Music having become a necessary part of the education of a young lady, Mr. Curto, a Professor honorably placed in the esteem of the public, gives all enlightened care to the teaching of the art.—Each scholar will practice, every day, under the direction of an under Professor.
In order that parents and the public may follow the progress of the pupils, two examinations a year will take place, one in February—one in July.
Mrs. de la Gracerie, wishing to give to the children confided to her all the affectionate care of a mother, will receive but a very limited number of boarders.
Religious instruction is the object of a peculiar solicitude. The Catholic pupils are prepared for their first communion.
The Washington High School is situated in the most healthy part of the city. The rooms devoted to the classes are large and well aired and ventilated. The Directress invites the parents to visit her Establishment.
