A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the grandest ornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely the loss of it changes the countenance and prematurely brings on the appearance of old age, which causes many to recoil at being unmasked, and sometimes even to shun society to avoid the jests and sneers of their acquaintance; the remainder of their lives are consequently spent in retirement. In short, not even the loss of property fills the generous thinking youth with that heavy sinking gloom as does the loss of his hair. To avert all these unpleasant circumstances, OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off on the first application, and a few bottles restores it again. It likewise produces eyebrows and whiskers; prevents the hair from turning grey, makes it curl beautifully, and frees it from scurf. Numerous certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtues of Oldridge's Balm, are shown by the proprietor.

Read the following:

ROBERT WHARTON, Esq. late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as may be seen below, to the high character of the following gentlemen.

The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by J. Oldridge, and have found it highly serviceable not only as a preventive against the falling off of hair, but also a certain restorative.

WM. THATCHER, senior,
Methodist Minister in St. George charge,
No. 86 North Fifth st.
John P. Inglis, 331 Arch street.
John D. Thomas, M. D. 163 Race st.
John S. Furey, 101 Spruce st.
Hugh McCurdy, 243 South 2d st.
John Gard, Jr. 123 Arch st.

The aged, and those who persist in wearing wigs, may not always experience its restorative qualities, yet it will certainly raise its virtues in the estimation of the public, when it is known that three of the above signers are more than 50 years of age, and the others not less than 30.

From the Mayor.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, City of Philadelphia.

I, ROBERT WHARTON, mayor of said city of Philadelphia, do hereby certify that I am well acquainted with Messrs. J. P. Inglis, John S. Furey, & Hugh McCurdy, whose names are signed to the above certificate, that they are gentlemen of character and respectability, and as such full credit should be given to the said certificate.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the city to be affixed, [L.S.] this sixth day of December, &c.

ROBERT WHARTON, Mayor.

MOBILE INSTITUTE.

THE next term of this institute will commence on Monday the 15th instant.

The Seminary has now been two years in operation, and during that time has fulfilled the highest expectations of its founders, in the entire healthiness of its situation, and in the successful application of the principles on which it was established. It is designed to unite the advantages of a complete collegiate education with the moral safety and good order of a private family.—It offers a course of study, in all departments, as thorough and as liberal as the undergraduate course in any college or university in this country, with especial advantages in modern languages, particularly the French, and in the correct and skilful writing of the English: while at the same time, the habits and morals of the pupils are carefully watched over at all hours, as in a well regulated private family.

A statement of the object and advantages of this institution more particular than a single advertisement admits, will be given to the public. Parents, and all persons interested in education, are invited to acquaint themselves with it.

TERMS—For board, washing, and tuition in all the branches, three hundred dollars a year, payable semi-annually in advance.
