Relative to the Orleans Navigation Company, the Bayou St. John, and Canal Carondelet.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana, in General Assembly convened, That in the event of a final judgment of forfeiture being rendered in favor of the State of Louisiana against the Orleans Navigation Company, in the suit now or recently pending on appeal in the Supreme Court, it shall be the duty of the Court in which said suit was instituted, to proceed to the liquidation of the affairs of said Navigation Company in the manner hereinafter provided, to wit: The said Court shall appoint a liquidating commissioner, who shall forthwith proceed to take possession of the entire property of said company, real and personal, moveable and immoveable, and to advertise and sell the same in block at public auction, after sixty days' advertisement, to the highest bidder, payable one-tenth in cash, and the remainder in equal annual instalments, from one to twenty years; the credit portion of the price to be paid in bonds bearing legal interest, divided into sums according to the directions of said commissioner, secured by mortgage and vendor's privilege on the property sold as aforesaid.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, &c., That immediately after the making said sale, it shall be the duty of said commissioner to file in said court a tableau of distribution of the proceeds of said sale, both cash and bonds, as well as of all monies collected by him for tolls during the interval between the taking possession and the sale, and the said proceeds and tolls shall be appropriated as follows, viz: First, to the expenses of the liquidation, including a reasonable compensation to the toll collector; secondly, to the payment of the debts of the company to the creditors of the company, according to their rank; and thirdly, the surplus, if any, to the stockholders of said company; and the proceeds of the same shall be paid out on said tableau of distribution, as shall be the same as may be in case of insolvency of individuals.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, &c., That it shall be lawful for the purchaser or purchasers of said property to organize themselves into a corporation under the general laws of this State for a term of twenty-five years, for the purpose of completing the construction of the works according to the plan designed and described in the reports and plans known as Harrison's reports and plans including the construction of a new Basin at the terminus of Canal Carondelet and Bayou St. John of the depth and dimensions set forth in said reports and plans, and shall actually complete and effect all said improvements within the term of three years from the date of their charter; and such corporation shall be entitled to receive the tolls now levied by the said company for the use of said Canal, Bayou and Basin, to the Orleans Navigation Company; which are entitled to the charter, provided, that at the end of said term of twenty-five years, the State of Louisiana shall have the option either of granting to said corporation a renewal of the right of receiving said tolls for a further term of twenty-five years, or of purchasing for itself the property and improvements of the said company at a fair valuation; and provided further, that if said second term of twenty-five years be granted, the whole property shall revert to the State of Louisiana at the end of said second term without any payment or compensation made to said Company.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, &c., That all parish superintendents who shall fail to settle and pay into the Treasury the amount due by them within three months after the passage of this act, shall be deemed defaulters, and it shall be the duty of the District Attorneys throughout the State, to bring suit on the bonds of such defaulters for the recovery of the amount due by them, and they shall suffer the pains and penalties now prescribed by law against defaulters.

A VERITABLE SALAMANDER.

IT was supposed that the great Canal street conflagration had fully developed the fire-defying qualities of

RICH'S IMPROVED

Patent Salamander Safes;

but the achievements of the article on that occasion were entirely eclipsed by those of another SAFE of the same make, recently tested in Pearl street, New York, which, owing to the protracted intensity of heat, could not be reached by those in search of it until forty hours after they commenced their efforts, and was then found glowing in a mass of coals, and the contents uninjured. Incredible as it may seem, the subscriber has the testimony of the owner, Mr. JOSEPH G. GILBERT, to prove that its contents, worth to him over one hundred thousand dollars, were uninjured, notwithstanding the unexampled ordeal through which their protector had passed, it being the only one among twelve Safes or Chests tested at the time which was not demolished. Certificates of many other tests will be forwarded (postpaid) to any who may desire full information with a view of purchasing, and will send their address to the subscriber.

No Safe of Rich's make, when tested with Books, or other valuable contents, has cost its owner more than one per cent; while some of them have cost less than one-eighth of one per cent, on the amount saved. The fact serves to show that true economy would be promoted by possessing such an invaluable depository for articles of small bulk but great value, rather than by saving the cost of one, at the risk of suffering serious loss.

☞ A large stock and good assortment of SAFFS are constantly for sale by the subscriber, Sole Agent in this city of STEARNS & MARVIN, successors to C. RICH & CO.

Notice to Builders.

THE undersigned beg leave to inform the builders, their friends, and the public in general, that from and after the 5th of March instant, they will sell dove-tailed flooring planks, planed weather boards, and their ceiling boards at the same price as the other dealers engaged in the same line of business at the New Canal. Also a new article as a substitute for the weather board used in frame houses. This article is far superior to all those employed up to this time. They hope that they will obtain the patronage of the commissioners on account of the good quality of their materials, of the manner which they are prepared, and of the small difference existing between the width and the numbering.

[illegible] street—New Orleans.

THIS Institution which for the last twelve years has followed a constant course of progress and prosperity, has reached in these last years the [illegible] the confidence of the public; and for a great number of [illegible] the United States.
Madame Deron, formerly a pupil and professor of the Maison Royale of St. Denis, and a graduate of the Academy of Paris, has endeavored to profit by the experience which she has acquired in the United States, to place her Institution in the first rank of educational establishments in America.
Madame Deron, exclusively devoted to her pupils, applies herself not only to the cultivation of the mind, but also to the formation of the heart. She strongly desires that the young Ladies confided to her care may be remarked for all those valuable qualities which constitute a really good education, such as the spirit of order and economy, amiability of temper and solidity of judgment, mildness of manners and a sympathizing disposition, and above all every grace and elegance of manners. In order to obtain these results, Madame Deron has always employed as auxiliaries both firmness and mildness, the constant use of emulation, and especially rewards for application and regularity in study. She is seconded by her sister-in-law, Mademoiselle Deron, who, like herself, has always followed the career of instruction; these two ladies watch with the greatest zeal over the daily progress of the pupils.
The locality of the institution well known and appreciated in New Orleans, as one of the most suitable and salubrious in the city, is perfectly well arranged; the halls, the study rooms and dormitories are spacious and airy, looking over several gardens, and there are besides a handsome yard and a terrace, sheltered from the sun and intended for the recreation of the pupils.
The general instruction, is given both in French and English; it embraces all the branches which constitute a finished education for young ladies. The English language is the object of especial care, the creole pupils are required in their communications with each other, and with their playfellows, to use the English language alternately.
Mr. Orton who has been attached to the Academy from its foundation, devotes a great part of his time to impart to the pupils of the higher classes a thorough knowledge of the English language and literature, the other classes are intrusted to well qualified American governesses.
Madame Deron has reserved to herself the direction of the French classes. She has besides secured the assistance of an excellent Professor of the higher sciences, Monsieur H. Jagou, who divides with Madame H. Deron and Mademoiselle Deron, the care of the French department.
The Spanish language forms part of the system of study.
With respect to religious instruction M. l'Abbe Theoleon, whose zeal is so justly appreciated, continues to prepare the pupils for their first communion in the chapel of the institution.

MUSIC:

The study of Music is the object of particular care. Madame Laville Deron, an artist of the highest order is attached to the institution as Professor of the Piano and Harp. A course of Vocal Music by one of the best Professors of the city.

Water Cure Establishment.
Brattleboro, Vermont.

THE proprietor, DR. R. WESSELHOEFT, begs to inform the public that he has recovered from his severe sickness, and is able again to attend to his professional duties. Former and new patients, therefore may depend upon his giving due attention to their cases. They will also find comfortable and pleasant accommodation both for themselves and friends, but will be pleased to remember that the establishment is intended for the cure of diseases by means of water, and not for a hotel at a fashionable watering place. Yet, to the lover of nature and a quiet summer residence, there are many attractions besides its Water Cure, for nature has indeed been lavish of her gifts on the town, and the walks and drives in the vicinity.
