C Payan having purchased at a sale made by the Sheriff of the parish of Orleans, the property and shares hereinafter described, has applied to the Clerk of this Court, in whose office the deed of sale was recorded on the 25th day of February, A. D. 1847, for a monition or advertisement in conformity to an act of the Legislature of the State of Louisiana, entitled "An act for the further assurance of titles to purchasers at judicial sales," approved the tenth day of March, 1834.

Now, therefore, know ye, and all persons interested herein, are hereby cited and admonished in the name of the State of Louisiana, and of the Fifth District Court of New Orleans, who can set up any right, title or claim in and to the property hereinafter described, in consequence of any informality in the order, decree or judgment of the court under which the sale was made, or any irregularity or illegality in the appraisements and advertisements, in time, or manner of sale, or for any other defect whatsoever, to show cause, within thirty days from the day this monition is first inserted in the public papers, why the sale so made should not be confirmed and homologated.

The said property was sold by the Sheriff of the parish aforesaid on the 8th day of February, A. D. 1847, by virtue of two decrees rendered by the late First Judicial District Court of the State of Louisiana—one on the 5th of January and the other on 23d April, 1846; and also by virtue of a decree of the Fifth District Court of New Orleans, rendered on the 5th January, 1847, in a suit entitled Edward Martin vs. Victor Martin et al. No. 24,633 of the docket of the said District Court; at which sale the said Thomas C Payan became the purchaser of said hereinafter described property and shares, for the price of four thousand one hundred and twenty five dollars, payable as follows, to wit: the purchaser retained in his hands the amount due to the Citizens' Bank of Louisiana, say $1,445 78, and paid said Sheriff in cash the sum of [illegible], and the balance, say $2,883 12, in his twenty eight several promissory notes, dated on the day of adjudication, to his own order, of the following amounts, and payable as follows:

1. Seven notes or coupons, amounting in all to the sum of $502 35, four of which are for the sum of $71 76 each, and the three others for the sum of $71 77 each, are all payable six months after date.
2. Seven notes or coupons, amounting in all to the sum of $502 36, three of which are for the sum of $71 76 each, and the four others for the sum of $71 77 each, are all payable twelve months after date.
3. Seven notes or coupons, amounting in all to the sum of $502 35, four of which are for the sum of $71 76 each, and the three others for the sum of $71 77 each, are all payable eighteen months after date.
4. Seven notes or coupons, amounting in all to the sum of five hundred and two dollars and thirty six cents, three of which are for the sum of $71 76 each, and the four others for the sum of $71 77 each, are all payable twenty four months after date.

Description of Property, as given in the Judicial Conveyance, viz:

1. One lot of Ground, No 4, with the improvements thereon, situated in Bourbon street between Dumaine and St Philip, measuring twenty three feet four inches front on Bourbon street, one hundred and one feet seven inches in depth on the line which separates it from Lots Nos 1, 2 and 3; on the other side, the fore-line of the same depth, [illegible] at the distance of fifty eight feet eight inches and [illegible] twenty one feet on the back line. [illegible]

The improvements on this lot consist of a two story Brick House covered with slate, a two story Kitchen [illegible] fixtures for the water works &c.

GRAND EXHIBITION.

A MAGNIFICENT GALLERY OF ORIGINAL PAINTINGS, by the most celebrated masters, IS NOW OPEN at the St Louis Ball Room, from 8 [illegible] dark, and the room will be brilliantly illuminated every fair evening till 10 P M.

A [illegible] is chiefly the property of some of [illegible] families in Italy, embracing the [illegible] collections, which have been celebrated for centuries [illegible] to this country [illegible] to find a National Gallery of the [illegible]. Among this collection is to be found the celebrated picture painted by MICHEL ANGELO [illegible], representing Count Ugolino and his four Sons in prison, the father and sons were there left to starve to death. This picture alone is worth double the price of admission.

Also at the same place is to be found a SEPARATE EXHIBITION of the FAMOUS MARBLE STATUE of VENUS DE MEDICIS, by the immortal Canova, &c.

It is, beyond all comparison, the most extensive, valuable and interesting Collection, which has ever been seen in this country; as was indeed the necessary result of the unique mode of its formation. It embraces specimens of every style of art, from that which preceded the invention of Oil Painting to the final chef d'œuvres of Raphael, Titian, Correggio, Claude, Rubens, Carlo, Dolce, Vandyke, &c. &c.

The limits of an advertisement do not allow room for hinting at the gems it embraces, but the most cultivated and travelled connoisseurs, are the persons by whom it is most highly esteemed. A personal inspection can alone give any idea of its interest and value; and, to enable every one to enjoy these, the Tickets of Admission are fixed at the price of only 50 cents. A Season Ticket for a single gentleman during the whole time that the gallery remains open $2. mr13
