COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE BEE, Friday Evening, December 5, 1856.

We still have a fair amount of business to report in our general market, with an active demand for Cotton, and full prices for most of the leading articles. In some descriptions of Western produce, however, the transactions have been of a limited character. Flour has gone off slowly, but generally at the advanced rates noticed last week. The receipts of Grain have been very light and the market firm. In Provisions the business has been moderate, with but little change in prices. Freights have been firm, and Exchange has shown an upward tendency in the rate.

On Tuesday morning we published the Europe's advices, embracing dates from Liverpool to November 20th. They reported an advance in Cotton, of ¼@¼ d, with sales of 57,000 bales during the week, including 1500 on speculation and 7300 for export. Fair Orleans was quoted at 1½d. and Middling Orleans at 7 1-16d. ⅜ b. Advices from Manchester were favorable, the market being active and firmer. The stock of Cotton at Liverpool was stated at 732,000 bales, including 247,000 American. Consols had declined a little, and closed at 98¼ for money. At Havre Orleans Tree Ordinaire was quoted at 100 francs.

COTTON.—Arrived since the 26th ultimo, 59,993 bales. Cleared in the same time for Liverpool 16,871 bales, Queenstown 8242, Havre 12,682, Manchester 442, Bremen 2526, Ghent 671, Vera Cruz 1247, Boston 1293, and New York 378 bales; together, 40,810 bales, making an addition to stock of 16,117 bales. Stock at Liverpool, including all on shipboard not cleared 732,000 bales, stock at New Orleans 310,203 bales.

The market opened on Saturday with a very limited experience, under the influence of advancing freights, but subsequently, with favorable advices from Liverpool, a good demand prevailed, and the sales of the week sum up 56,000 bales, as follow: 3500 on Saturday, 8500 on Monday, 14,500 on Tuesday, 14,000 on Wednesday, 7500 yesterday, and 8000 to-day. Prices were feeble in the early part of the week, but have been steadily recovered, and close at a slight advance over our previous quotations. We now quote as follows:

MME. PARENT'S INSTITUTION,

Corner Royal and Hospital streets.

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.

THIS establishment has been removed to corner Royal and Hospital streets. The building is vast, well ventilated and well distributed for class rooms, dormitories, &c. Madame Parent avails herself of this occasion to thank the numerous families who have so largely patronized her establishment, and would assure them that their daughters will receive the same kind care as heretofore. The long known reputation of her institution is the best guarantee to that effect. The course of study embraces the same system, in both English and French, as that employed in the first class institutions in the North and in Europe. Music, instrumental and vocal, including Solfege, is taught by the most eminent Professors, also Drawing and Painting; Dancing by Monsieur Vernet.

MADAME PARENT will remove her institution across the lakes during the summer months, but will keep the house open in the city throughout the year. Finally, there will be nothing wanting to complete a literary and artistic education, and to excite in the hearts of young persons that pure morality which is the fundamental base of the institution, combined with that easy elegance of manner so necessary for young persons. For further information address Madame Parent, Mandeville, until 15th October; afterwards in the city at the Institution, where prospectuses can be obtained. oc14

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES,

UNDER THE DIRECTION OF

MADAME CHARPAUX,

At the corner of Bayou and Claiborne streets.

THIS SEMINARY, whose existence dates some six years back, has met with a success that proves, beyond all cavil, the capacity of those who have charge of it.

Determined to merit the confidence of parents, Mad. Charpaux will spare no pains to make her seminary equal to the best institutions of the kind in New Orleans, and in order to do this, she has secured the ablest teachers.

Madam Charpaux has purchased a large and airy edifice on one of the highest pieces of ground in the city, and the better to consult the health of her pupils she has had spacious and elevated apartments built on purpose for school and sleeping rooms, through which there will be a constant circulation of air from many windows.

Great attention will be paid to the improvement of scholars in the English language, for the purpose of American ladies of Creole origin, who have been sent, will constantly remain in the Seminary.

The English, French and Spanish languages, geography, arithmetic, and in short all the branches of a polite education, will be taught in the Seminary.

As religion should be the foundation of all sound education, it will be carefully attended to by Madam Charpaux, who will conduct to church and preliminary catechisms all her young ladies who may have their first communion to make.

Music having become a most desirable branch of the education of young ladies, Mr. Charpaux, from the best musical school in Paris, and ex-artist of the Opera Comique, will devote all his time to teaching music. All the Scholars, besides their regular lessons, will practice daily under the eye of the professor. The study of the notes will precede the performance, when Mr. Charpaux will put the pupils through the exercise of the regular keys and notes, and this will be attended with no extra charge.

In order to kindle emulation among the pupils, and to excite them to the acquisition of the last fashions, Madame Charpaux will procure at the commencement of each month, a fashion plate, which will be placed in the school room, and accessible to all.

Madam Charpaux, in order to complete the education of her scholars, has opened a class where will be taught all the useful and ornamental branches of needle work.

During the summer the classes will open at 8 o'clock, and close at 3. Re-open at 4 and close at 6 o'clock, P. M. In winter, they will open at 8½, and close at 3; re-open at 4½ and close at 6 o'clock, P. M.
