HOWARD'S HOTEL, (Broadway, corner of Maiden Lane, New York.)—This Hotel is one of the most commodious in the Union, having a front upon Broadway of over 100 feet, and upon Maiden Lane 150 feet, with two large wings extending in the rear 125 feet. It is six stories exclusive of basement, and under cellars, and containing over 200 bed chambers, each well lighted and ventilated with grates, besides numerous private parlors with sleeping rooms attached, and public parlors; dining, reading and other rooms. There are two elegant dining saloons, the doors of which, as well as the spacious halls in the first and second stories, together with the reading and other public rooms, are paved with Italian marble. There is also an extensive and pleasant room fronting upon Broadway, fitted up for a Ladies' ordinary, and the ladies are provided with attractive public parlors, and a private entrance to the Hotel from Maiden Lane.
The subscriber having for nine years past received a liberal patronage from merchants, and principally from gentlemen of business at his former Hotel in Broad street, is satisfied from experience that early meals to many are more acceptable; therefore, he has had his house so constructed as to be able to serve meals to such at early hours. The hours adopted for meals are as follows, viz:—In gentlemen's dining room upon 1st floor, Breakfast at 7, or half past 7, with reference to the season of the year. Dinner in same at 2 o'clock. In gentlemen's dining room, upon 2d story, and also in Ladies' ordinary, Breakfast from 8 to 10 o'clock, and Dinner at half past 3. Printed bills of fare are daily got up for the different dining rooms, as it is optional with Gentlemen to take their meals in either of the Gentlemen's dining rooms, without giving any notice of their choice, the subscriber hopes the extra trouble and expense in the attempt to suit their convenience in this respect will be properly appreciated by a generous public, and that a commensurate patronage will result therefrom.
This house possesses every convenience that the subscriber could devise, and is universally pronounced by visitors to be the most replete in its internal arrangements—its construction for light and air being superior to any other house in the city.
In addition to the many advantages and comforts over most Hotels, it has a living spring of pure soft water upon the premises, which, apart from its intrinsic worth as a wholesome beverage, so unusual to be found in the lower part of the city, adds very much to the safety of the establishment in case of fire on or near the premises; a powerful force pump being attached to the well to force water therefrom, as well as from the various cisterns in the yard, to the reservoirs under the roof, from which, by use of the hose, water can be forced over any part of the premises in an instant.
In short this establishment has been got up without reference to cost, and it is the intention of the subscriber to have it stand among the very best Hotels in the country.—He hopes to be favored with a share of public patronage.
j5-6t D. D. HOWARD.

GLOBE HOTEL—The subscriber has recently added to his establishment, the house 64 Broadway, which he has fitted up and furnished appropriately, more particularly with reference to the accommodation of families and those desirous of having parlors attached to their sleeping rooms. A private entrance to No 64 is on Broadway, also a hall communicating the hotel.
The house will be continued on the European plan, which has given so much satisfaction to all. The bathing apartments in the lower part of the house are in readiness for use from 7 o'clock, A. M. till 11 P. M.
The proprietor takes this opportunity of returning his most grateful acknowledgements to those who have so handsomely patronized him, from the first moment he was identified with the Globe, and pledges himself to endeavor by the most unremitting attention, to merit a continuance of their kindness. F. BLANCHARD.

SOUTH CAROLINA FEMALE INSTITUTE.

THE duties of this Institution, under the direction of Dr. ELIAS MARKS and Rev. WELLINGTON H. TYLER, will be resumed on the 1st. October ensuing.
TWENTY-TWO YEARS of past service is the pledge which one of the above named individuals offers, for that which is forthcoming. He is enabled, from personal acquaintance, to testify as to the superior qualifications of Mr. T. The following, among other testimonials, are offered:
"MR. WELLINGTON H. TYLER is a graduate of this College. After taking his first degree, he went to Kentucky, where he proved himself to be an able and faithful teacher of youth. Being invited to take a Tutorship he returned and discharged the duties of the office, with great credit to himself and advantage to the Institution. Since then, he has studied Theology in the Andover Seminary, and is now a very acceptable preacher of the Gospel.
It affords me great pleasure to recommend him to the public, as a man of high moral and Christian character, and perfectly well qualified to take charge of any Academy or High School, which his services may be wanted.
Amherst College, Sept. 16th, 1839. H. HUMPHREY, President."
"AMHERST COLLEGE, Sept. 20, 1839.
THIS MAY CERTIFY, That the subscriber is well acquainted with the Rev. WELLINGTON H. TYLER, having known him as a member of this College, of which he is an alumnus, and afterwards as a Tutor in the College, and since as a licensed preacher resident in this place; and I take great pleasure in recommending him to the public confidence as a Christian and a minister, and also as a scholar and gentleman, highly qualified by his abilities, attainments, and general character, to superintend the instruction of youth of either sex in any of our literary institutions.
N. W. FISKE, Prof. Int. and Mor. Phil'y."
Mrs. T. is amply recommended by the Principals of the Troy Female Seminary, and also by Profs. Yates of Union College, and Joslin of the New York University.
The principals of the Institute, in the discharge of the highly responsible duties which will devolve upon them, will aim at practical results, and attempt rather to qualify those submitted to their care for the duties of real life, than to gain for them the admiration too often bestowed upon erratic genius and fanciful attainments. The former requires the symmetrical development of all the faculties which make up the mental and moral constitutions, and, in any circumstances of future life, will it leave the pupil in the condition of a traveller, who should receive for his guidance a map of a different country from that on which he is to travel.
They will aim at permanent results. The power and the habit of reasoning are worth more than any number of the results of others' reasoning; the love of knowledge and a mind well disciplined and directed for future acquisitions, are a greater blessing than any amount of knowledge without such guaranty for its perpetuity and increase; as a living fountain is worth more than a stagnant reservoir of however great dimensions.
They will aim, in short, at combining, in the highest practicable degree, the advantages of home education with those, which, in the general, can only be enjoyed abroad, where many are brought together for the same object—at concentrating the endearments of home, its social sentiments and its properties of life—for the improvement and the enjoyment of those, who away thus be removed from the danger of being injuriously involved in fashionable dissipation, or being too early occupied with distracting domestic cares and obligations.
It will be perceived that the new arrangement leaves the identity of the Institution untouched. It will be the same in its objects and aims—the same in its internal arrangements, in its religious aspects and in the sentiments of its conductors, as they regard the domestic institutions of the South. Hence the propriety of omitting here much, that otherwise have been detailed at large, respecting our arrangements and the advantages of the same matters which have already and repeatedly been submitted to the notice of the public, and as it would seem, met their approbation.
The regular term of the Institute consists of ten months, commencing on the 1st of October and terminating on the last day of June. Term divided into two sessions of four and a half months each. Second Session commences on the second Monday in February, terminating on the last day of June.
It is every way desirable that pupils should enter at the commencement of terms; they will, however, be received at any period of the term, and charged only for the unexpired portion of the term.
The institution will be open five days of the week, during the hours of recitation, from 6 a. m. to 5 p. m. for the inspection of patrons and those interested in the cause of Female Education.
No expenditures will be made for pupils for Books, stationary, postage, and necessary articles, such as shoes, &c. unless an advance is made by deposit for the same.
All letters to Principals must be post paid.
☞ We recommend to patrons and others to postpaid their letters, addressed to the inmates of the Institute, in order to anticipate errors of double postage, upon the part of Postmasters.
