Great Sale of Oil Paintings.
BY ANTHONY FERNANDEZ.
Auctioneer.

THE agent of the splendid and unique collection of PAINTINGS, which have been some time, and still are on exhibition at the St Louis Ball Room, will offer a portion of them for sale at auction, next WEDNESDAY, the 21st instant, at 10 o'clock A M, without reserve. Those sold last week were so horribly sacrificed, that the whole amount of the sale was not a quarter of the sum necessary to pay the expenses already incurred.

The sale is positive, let the price be what it may. The collection is far superior to the last one sold, and many of them are richly framed. Altogether, the collection is the most valuable ever offered for sale in the United States, and richly deserves the attention of connoisseurs and those making collections. They are now arranged in a room adjoining the St Louis Ball Room, where they may be seen.

Agency Sun Mutual In. Co.
NEW ORLEANS, November 7th, 1846.

THE fiscal year of this Institution terminated on the 4th day of last month, and the Trustees have declared a dividend of thirty-two and one half per cent. on the amount of earned premiums ($[illegible] 99) during the year, and have further divided six per cent. in cash, on the script. They have been in operation five years, and have made the following dividends, viz.

On the 4th of October, 1842, declared	32 per cent.
"	"	1843, "	34 "
"	"	1844, "	30 "
"	"	1845, "	33 "

(In consequence of the disastrous fire in New York on the 19th of July of that year.)
And on the 4th of October, 1846, declared 32½ per cent.

They do not insure against the risks of fire in New York or elsewhere, except at this Agency.

The board of Trustees also resolved, that no division of profits should be made until the accumulated earnings shall, at least, exceed one million of dollars.

The existing script and assets, available to meet losses, amounted to $695,655 62, on the 4th ultimo, to which may be added more than $100,000 for premiums taken since, which, in the opinion of the undersigned, affords the most ample protection for their policies.

This Agency continues to insure against fire, marine and river risks. L. MATTHEWS, Agent, corner of Camp and Common streets.
N. B.—Due notice will be given when the script certificates are ready for delivery. n10tf

Terms and Conditions: 1st The residence of the late L B Macarty, designated as 9th, one fourth cash, the balance at 1, 2, and 3 years credit, on the terms hereafter specified.

2d All the other properties, one fourth cash; and the balance at one and two years credit. The purchasers will give their notes, to their own order, (in coupons, if wanted) bearing special mortgage until final payment.

3d The acts of sale will be passed before O de Armas, notary, at the cost of purchasers, and will contain the non alienando clause, and a stipulation for interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum, from maturity, on all notes left unpaid when due.

4th Purchasers will bind themselves, immediately after the sale, to insure their property for at least the same amount for which they are now insured, and policies will be transferred to the Testamentary Executors, until final payment. As said properties are now insured, purchasers will reimburse to the Testamentary Executors, their share of the premium paid, from the day of sale to July 15th 1847, on which day the policies expire for account of the Estate.

5th Purchasers will, within ten days after the sale, deposit the amount which will be respectively due by each of them in the hands of the Notary, who will give them in exchange a receipt of said amount signed by the Testamentary Executors, and in default by them to fulfil this condition, the property which he or they may have purchased will be resold, for their account and risk, after ten days advertisement.

6th Purchasers will put themselves in possession, at their own cost.

Nota: Plans of the properties situated in the First and Third Municipalities, will be exhibited at the St Louis Exchange on the day of sale. Plans of the properties in the Second Municipality, Carrollton and Bloomingdale, will be exposed at Banks' Arcade Exchange, also on the day of sale, to wit: on the 10th May, and on the following days.

Purchasers will receive the rents of said properties only from and after the 1st June next, 1847.

AMUSEMENTS.

GRAND EXHIBITION.

A MAGNIFICENT GALLERY OF ORIGINAL PAINTINGS, by the most celebrated masters, is NOW OPEN at the St Louis Ball Room, from 8 A M till dark, and the room will be brilliantly illuminated with gas every fair evening till 10 P M.

This collection is chiefly the property of some of the most eminent families in Italy, embracing the choicest portion of their collections, which have been celebrated for centuries, sent to this country to found a National Gallery of the fine arts in America. Among this collection is to be found the celebrated picture painted by MICHEL ANGELO BONAROTI, representing Count Ugolino and his four Sons in prison: the father and sons were there left to starve to death. This picture alone is worth double the price of admission.

Also at the same place is to be found a SEPARATE EXHIBITION OF THE FAMOUS MARBLE STATUE OF VENUS DE MEDICIS, by the immortal Canova, &c.

It is, beyond all comparison, the most extensive valuable and interesting Collection, which has ever been seen in this country; as was indeed the necessary result of the unique mode of its formation. It embraces specimens of every style of art, from that which preceded the invention of Oil Painting to the final chef d'oeuvres of Raphael, Titian, Correggio, Claude, Rubens, Carlo, Dolce, Vandyke, &c, &c.

The limits of an advertisement do not allow room for hinting at the gems it embraces, but the most cultivated and travelled connoisseurs, are the persons by whom it is most highly esteemed. A personal inspection can alone give any idea of its interest and value, and to enable every one to enjoy these, the Tickets of Admission are fixed at the price of only 50 cents. A Season Ticket for a single gentleman during the whole time that the gallery remains open $2. mr13

Pontchartrain Railroad Ball Room
Cor. Morean & Elysian Fields sts., 3d Municipality.

THE Proprietors respectfully inform their friends, and the public generally, that the above Room is now open for the season. A Grand Dress and Masked BALL will be given every WEDNESDAY and SUNDAY, and for QUATEROONS, every TUESDAY, THURSDAY and SATURDAY, until further notice.

The visitors may rest assured that the most strict order will be required, and a sufficient police will be in attendance to enforce it. The Ball will commence at 8 o'clock.

Admittance to the Ball Room—Gentlemen $1, Ladies gratis.

A superior Orchestra is engaged, and there is also a good Restaurant and Bar, where all kinds of refreshments may be had. d9 N HALE, Manager.
