HOF ORLEANS.—Court of Probates, State of Louisiana.—To all whom these presents may concern, Greeting:—Know ye that whereas George Worthington Pritchard, a resident of the city of New Orleans, has applied to me W F C Duplessis, Register of Wills, in and for the Parish and city of New Orleans, and ex officio Clerk of the Court of Probates, in and for the Parish and City of New Orleans aforesaid, for a monition or advertisement, in conformity to the Act of the Legislature of the State, entitled "An Act for the further assurance of titles to purchasers at Judicial sales," approved on the 10th March 1834, notice is hereby given to all whom it may concern that by virtue of an order of sale rendered by the honorable the court of Probates in and for the Parish and City of New Orleans, State of Louisiana, dated the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty six, in the matter of the succession of Thomas Leader Harman deceased, and rendered in the suit entitled of Thomas Leader Harman and Francis S Harman vs. Nathaniel Cox, Tutor of Charlotte G Harman, for the partition of the property held and owned in common by them, the landed property hereinafter described, belonging to the succession of the deceased Thomas Leader Herman, was for the account of the same exposed for public sale by auction by Isaac L McCoy, one of the auctioneers for the Parish and City of New Orleans, on the ninth day of May one thousand eight hundred and thirty six, according to a plan exhibited at the sale and adjudicated to the aforenamed George Worthington Pritchard, he being the last and highest bidder.
Description of the property as given in the Judicial Conveyance—
1st. A lot of ground situated in and forming part of the square bounded by Camp, Julia, St Charles and Girod streets, said lot number twenty six having twenty seven feet front on Camp street by one hundred and forty nine feet two inches and three lines in depth, adjudicated to George W Pritchard for the sum of eleven thousand five hundred dollars.
2d Lot number six, having twenty six feet seven inches and six lines front on St Charles street by one hundred and forty nine feet two inches and three lines in depth, were adjudicated to George W Pritchard for the sum of nine thousand eight hundred dollars each, amounting in all to the sum of thirty nine thousand two hundred dollars
Terms of sale—one sixth cash, and the balance on a credit of one, two, three, four and five years with special mortgage on the property sold until final payment, the first and second notes only to be satisfactorily endorsed, and should any of the notes to be given for the five instalments not be punctually paid at maturity, the same to bear an interest from said maturity at the rate of ten per centum per annum until final payment, without however giving the purchaser the right of delaying the payments of said notes—
Wherefore all persons who can set up any right, title or claim in and to the lots of ground herein described, in consequence of informality in the order, decree or judgment before recited and under which the sale was made, or any irregularity or illegality in the appraisements or advertisements, or in the manner of sale, or for any other cause or object whatsoever, are hereby cited and admonished to show cause within thirty days from the day this monition it first inserted in the public papers, why the sale so made as aforesaid should not be confirmed and homologated in accordance with the opinion of said purchaser.
Witness my hand and the seal of said Court of Probates, this twentieth day of December A D 1836

Mr Editor,—I should consider it a favor if you would insert the following in your valuable paper—
On Sunday, the 18th inst. the individuals hereafter named, were at my request arrested on suspicion of having committed a robbery in a tavern, at the corner of Conde and St Anne sts, M. M. Fernando Corando, Fernando Ximenes, Antonio Castellanos, Bernardo Paris I now declare to the public, that these gentlemen had no participation in the above robbery, which was the cause of several persons being arrested; and their apprehension originated in a mistake I think it due to the good character which these gentlemen have always enjoyed in the city, to make this statement.
