EXTRA CARD TO THE LADIES

THE Theory of Beauty reduced to Practice, with reference to the attainment of a fine complexion.

LADY MONTAGUE'S COMPOUND CHINESE SOAP

Marks a new era in medical and botanical science, the mild virtues of herbal preparations.

LADY L. MONTAGUE'S opinion of the female mind and character is far too exalted to suppose for a moment that the Ladies of this city and elsewhere, to whom this card is politely addressed, can be cajoled or flattered into patronizing her, but wishes to address herself to their good sense only. The ladies are most respectfully informed, that is a beautifulful and healthy pearl white for the face, neck, and hands—the most innocent and the most beautiful that can possibly be made. It gives to the skin at once all that delicacy and semi-transparency so desirable and so distinguishable in all fine complexions, without discovering, in the smallest degree, that any art has been used. It gives a double lustre to that lively color, it gives Queen Victoria's bloom to the complexion, without injury to the skin, or prejudice to the health.

FEMALE BEAUTY.

The Graces, from Olympian bowers,
Mindful of beauty and of flowers,
Endowed the wreath by Montague wove
With each bright attribute to Love;—
Orient zones their tribute blend
With native sweets, that meekly bend—
Wild blossoms in our Southern dells—
To form the soft but potent spells!
Which Women's fairest charms enhance,
And that with rose her beaming glance

ANNO 1796.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, one all recommend it Indeed, royalty, nobility, the presses and the aristocratic balance of all things, public opinion has cited good it and placed its efficacy beyond suspicion. It is recommended as a complete preservative of the complexion of young and old, and as a most delicate and agreeable article for gentlemen, for beautifying the complexion, removing freckles, and imparting freshness and delicacy to the complexion. The aristocratic distinction of a soft and white hand, is with many an object of considerable interest. Exposure of warm climates the neck, face and hands become tanned or hardened, and the inventions of modern chemistry have been rendered subservient not merely to the necessary every day arts of life, but even to its luxuries and elegancies.

By special appointment patronised by Her Most Gracious Majesty, Queen Victoria, Her Majesty the Queen of the Belgians; Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent, His Royal Highness Prince George of Cambridge, the Duke of Beaufort, the Princess of Gagowy, the Duke of Buccleuch, the Duchess of Sutherland; the Duke of Devonshire, The Duchess of Somerset; the Duke of Brunswick, the Duchess of Richmond; the Duke of Roxburgh, the Duchess of Cleveland; the Duke of Marlborough, the Duchess of Bedford; the Marquis of Normonby, the Countess of Schafield; the Marquis of Abercorn, the Countess of Cadogan; the Marquis of Dourn, the Countess of Lincoln; the Earl of Chesterfield, the Countess of Blessington, the Earl of Milton, the Countess of Montfitchet; the Earl of Durham, the Countess of Dunlington; the Viscount of Castlereagh, the Lady John Russell: the Viscount of Powerscourt, the Lady Harriet D. Orsay; the Viscount of Milton, the Lady Lindhurst, &c. &c.

The also celebrated popular articles known as Lady Montague's Compound Chinese Soap is just received by the Messrs Loudon, Importers, of this city, and for sale Wholesale and Retail at No. 96 Customhouse street, New Orleans.—Price $1 per cake, $9 per dozen.

LADY MONTAGUE'S TRIUMPH OF MERIT.

When from the still by science refined,—
First discovered the famed Soap, the boast of our land
There sprang up of impotent rivals, a host,
But where are they now? In obscurity lost.
The Compound Chinese Soap while spreading its fame

And gaining distinguished and permanent fame.
Through intrinsic worth for its splendor unfurled,
Pervades now the whole of the civilized world.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THERE is an old adage which says that "he who attends to his own business will have enough to do," but it appears that a Mr. Davis, of whom I know nothing, has taken upon himself to make a statement, in regard to a lottery ticket, which in many respects wants that most important of all ingredients—truth, and what is more to be regretted, is calculated to injure an honest man.

For the information of the public, and as an act of mere justice to Mr. Gregory, I deem it proper to make the following statement of facts.

About ten days since, while passing through Exchange-place, I accosted an old friend, who kept a lottery office—he advised me to purchase a ticket in the Louisiana lottery, class 16 extra this I objected to, saying I thought joke and poke, as ridiculed the idea of any thing being gained by investments in lotteries; finally, however, I took a 4th of a ticket, on the evening of the drawing of the lottery, I repaired to the informant's office, in company with a friend, and after examining the drawn numbers, without taking notice of the numerical order in which they were drawn, I handed my ticket over to Mr Gregory, then very busily engaged, and who, from the representations as to the order in which the numbers were drawn, by a friend who accompanied me, said a gentleman, who, like myself, was a seeker after fortune, declared it to be the 1/4 of a $100 prize, and the ticket was cashed.

The gentleman who sold me the ticket, as stated by Mr Davis, did call on me to congratulate me on my good fortune—and astonished me by the information that instead of a fourth of $100, I was the lucky possessor of the fourth of $1940. As may be imagined, I repaired to the office of the managers, in company with the gentleman from whom I bought the ticket, and explained to Mr. Gregory the mistake into which he had been inadvertently led by myself and the individuals above referred to. With alacrity and honesty of purpose which reflected in my opinion great credit on himself, he immediately commenced examining several packages of tickets which had drawn prizes: and finally found my ticket, and paid the full amount of the prize, $1940, and that, at the same time regretting that any circumstance of the kind should have occurred.

I believe these facts are sufficient, coming, as they do, from the possessor of the ticket, to refute the unmerited charges which have been made by Mr. Davis, to bring in question the honesty and integrity of Mr. Gregory.

It is disagreeable for a "mechanic" to be thus brought before the public. He was satisfied with Mr. Gregory's integrity, and so expressed himself in the presence of the person from whom he purchased the ticket. Such being the case, why should those who have no interest in himself or his fortunes, become his spokesmen, and mis-represent facts probably to gratify self views.

The MECHANIC alluded to.

The above communication was voluntarily written and published in the Courier at last evening by the owner of the prize—comment from me is unnecessary—the public will at once appreciate the feelings that actuated Mr. Davis, in making such statement—feelings of envy and malice.

J. G. GREGORY.
