DYEING AND SCOURING IN GENERAL.

NOTICE—Messrs MONDELET & Co., have the honor to inform the public, that on the 1st June next, they will open, at No 170 Chartres street, opposite the Orleans Hotel, A DYEING AND SCOURING Establishment.

The knowledge they have acquired of this art, by many years labor in the first houses in Paris, and by a diligent study of chemistry applied to dying, induce them to hope that no hesitation will be felt in entrusting to them the most valuable articles either for dying or scouring, convinced as they are that such articles will be as carefully and properly attended to as at Paris. Those who may honor them with their confidence will be convinced of their skill, by the care and elegance of their work, and by the finish imparted to it.

They dye and scour all kinds of articles, such as silk, merinos, mousseline laines, cashmeres, crapes, tul es, velvet plain or figured, straw hats, furniture covers, carpets, church ornaments, ball and theatrical costumes silk and thread gloves, silk stockings; they clean silk dresses without changing the colors. By new chemical processes they bleach muslins, jaconets and print dresses, giving them the appearance of new materials. They clean and dye kid gloves, all kinds of feathers, gentlemen's clothing without injuring them, and giving them all the neatness of new articles. They dye clothing black for mourning in twenty-four hours, and warrant the durability of the colors.—They likewise re-dye black stuffs, giving them various colors.

Terms moderate. m21—3m

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD—Ranaway since the 8th April last, from the plantation of the undersigned at McDonoughville, opposite New Orleans, the mulatto BEN, alias BENJAMIN, aged about twenty-five years; about 5 feet ten inches (English measure) well built and a handsome boy—has a large mouth, rather thick lips, long and flat nose, large head, and is of a dark brown color. This mulatto speaks and writes English, French and Spanish. He is a good segar maker and will probably seek employment in his business.

ALSO—The negro JEAN BAPTISTE, aged about forty-five years, 5 feet 5 inches in height, (English measure)—Jean Baptiste is a creole negro, speaking the English indifferently. He is of a weak constitution, thin face, bright eyes, and has a small beard nearly grey.

These two negroes were seen yesterday on the Canal Verret, near the plantation of the undersigned.

The whole reward will be paid to the person who will lodge them in one of the jails of this city—or one-half for the apprehension of either of them. m7—tf A. DELPIT, 16 St Louis

MANDEVILLE COLLEGE.

THE attention of Parents and Guardians is respectfully solicited to this Institution, lately established in the town of Mandeville, on Lake Pontchartrain, in the Parish of St Tammany.

MANDEVILLE is situated in the Parish of St Tammany, within 2 hours ride from New Orleans. Free from all epidemic diseases; bordered by a Lake which wafts over the place an uninterrupted breeze, and which will serve the pupils as a salutary bath, far from the bustle of a large city and its concomitant pernicious effects; provided with this elegantly constructed edifice, 500 feet in length, and surrounded by delightful gardens and orchards—it combines all the requisites for the promotion of that physical development and bodily health, without which the best talent would lie dormant, and become a burden to its possessor.—With us the physical education of young men has hitherto been too much neglected. It is the object of this Institution to combine physical and intellectual education. Such being the plan of the College, it is believed, that the State of Louisiana does not offer a more suitable spot for its location than Mandeville.

The instructing Body of the College is composed as follows—

LEWIS ELEIN, (late Principal of the Orleans High school and formerly of Jefferson College,) Principal and Professor of Mathematics

Dr. DUNCAN MACAULY, Professor of Latin, Greek and English.

J. O. POIRIER, (late from Lyons and Juilly Colleges,) Professor of Latin, Greek and French.

FELIX PERRIN, (late from Paris,) Professor of French and History.

FRANCIS GONZALES, Professor of Spanish.

H. W. HEGELUND, Professor of Vocal and Instrumental Music.

ZENON GORA, Teacher of Drawing.

The Boarding Establishment is under the charge of Mrs MACAULEY.

The Clothes room is under the charge of Mrs. POIRIER.

F. COQUILLON is the Steward of the College.

A. BAUDOUIN, Esq, 342 Bourbon street, is the Agent of the College. All desired information may be obtained from him.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that in conformity to an act entitled: "An act to provide for the better administration of the Louisiana Penitentiary," approved March 25th, 1844, proposals will be received for three months from this date, at this office, for the lease of the Penitentiary for the term of five years. The terms and conditions prescribed by said act, on which the lease may be made, are as follows:—

1st—Approved security in the sum of twenty five thousand dollars for the faithful performance of the contract.

2nd—Lessee to conduct the Penitentiary at his own expense, and to make no change in the present treatment of the prisoners, not authorized by law

3d—The labor of the convicts to be chiefly confined to cotton and woolen manufactures, negro shoes, and cotton bagging and bale rope; no business or mechanical work to be pursued for profit, which may come in competition with the mechanics of Baton Rouge.

4th—Lessee to bind himself to put up, without delay, the necessary machinery for the making of bagging and rope; to complete the present preparations for the manufactory of cotton and woolen goods, for which purpose the Government will advance to him [illegible] thousand dollars to be repaid at the end of the lease; the lessee paying on the amount, semi-annually, interest at the rate of six per centum per annum.

5th—All manufactured articles and materials on hand to be received by the lessee at an appraised value, for the amount of which he is to give his bond payable at the expiration of the contract, bearing six per centum interest per annum, and should the contract not be renewed, the State to be bound to receive, at like manner all similar articles as may then be on hand, all machinery, &c. to be appraised and received for,—the lessee binding himself to leave the same in like condition, or others of equal value, at the expiration of his term.

6th—The profits of the Penitentiary, for the first two years of the lease, to be for the exclusive benefit of the lessee; what may be earned during the remaining period of the term, to be equally divided between him and the State, as nearly as may be stipulated for in the contract.

7th—That for every [illegible] of the State [illegible] of the Directors put at [illegible] for the lease, are invited to deliver [illegible] as possible, as the interests of the lessee, as well as that of the State, may become of sufficient security to be obtained under the provisions of the law.
