UNITED STATES AND FRANCE.

[illegible] papers of the 19th are filled [illegible] the difficulty with France [illegible] the Republic have [illegible] Washington [illegible] the affair. The [illegible] to advance [illegible] facts of the case [illegible].

[illegible] It will at once be seen that the [illegible] Had it [illegible] have ended the [illegible] mutual relations of [illegible] But the French Govern[illegible] M. de Tocqueville [illegible] we have [illegible] may not and probably will [illegible] The insult of [illegible] Government has been repelled, by [illegible] was offered. We may add, moreover, as a fact not wholly [illegible] that our squadron in [illegible] Mediterranean has been more than doubled [illegible] last year, and that it is larger now [illegible] ever been before.

[illegible] at liberty, under present cir[illegible] to withhold the fact that informa[illegible] of this country some months ago, from [illegible] highest source, based of course upon the [illegible] the statement and [illegible] knowledge, that if France [illegible] it would be in their [illegible] Russia, but with the United [illegible] We [illegible] these recapitulate events, [illegible] knowledge of our readers, [illegible] the probability of a hostile [illegible] the present French Gov[illegible] American Republic. The [illegible] Louis Napoleon has waged [illegible] Rome; the aid which [illegible] Russian and Austrian con[illegible] crushing the nascent independence of [illegible] towards England, and the con[illegible] he has shown to prefer to the [illegible] the worst portion of the Eng[illegible] feeding their jealousy and dis[illegible] American Republic—these, and ma[illegible] of his policy, of which the [illegible] beyond all doubt, is to rear an Impe[illegible] the ruins of republicanism in [illegible] to look for strength in [illegible] Republic, which has ne[illegible] from [illegible] powerful despotisms of the [illegible] forebodings may [illegible] We know that the pre[illegible] all that justice and a [illegible] of the country will al[illegible] preservation of peace with all the [illegible]

[illegible] to the important information [illegible] the very highest source" which has [illegible] the country, is made in the most un[illegible] terms. It must evidently refer to [illegible] communicated to the Cabinet [illegible] Washington by some one or more of our [illegible] Ministers. If, as the Courier & En[quirer] avers the French government replied [illegible] the remonstrances of Mr. CLAYTON touching Mr. POUSSIN's indecorous and impertinent notes, [illegible] saw no occasion for interference, and [illegible] remarked insults had been committed on both [illegible] the affair would certainly look as if France desired to goad the United States into [illegible] action, with a view of making it sub[illegible] a ground of complaint, if not a casus [illegible]. The answer of the French Government seems to have reached an insolence not less censurable than that which rendered Mr. POUSSIN's communications with our Government so offensive. There are other indirect reasons [illegible] countenance this conclusion. The policy of the French Government of late has mani[illegible] tended to the conciliation of despotism. It has made war on Rome and subserved the [illegible] of Austria in crushing Italian hopes of [illegible] It has stood aloof during the strug[gle] of Hungary, and calmly suffered Russia and Austria to desolate that unfortunate coun[try] and reduce the brave Magyars to bondage and oppression. It has looked coldly upon the only Republic in the world that is eminently worthy of the name. In fact, its entire course of conduct seems to have been actuated by a shrewd foregone conclusion. Perhaps LOUIS NAPOLEON may seek still further to propitiate his new allies, by striving to bring about a rupture with the United States. Of this we can better judge when the entire correspondence promised by the National Intelligencer, is laid before the people.

The whole country, however, will echo the language of the Courier and Enquirer. The honor of the UNITED STATES, observes that able journal, will be maintained, their rights will be defended and their just dignity will be vindicated, from any attempt to derogate one hair's breadth from their due proportions, though made by all the nations of Europe combined. Whatever LOUIS NAPOLEON may strive to make of France, this country is a REPUBLIC, and as a REPUBLIC it will exact respect from every nation which may choose to maintain relations with it, and chastise insolence, by whatever power it may be hazarded. Upon this point, it is well that the truth should be known and clearly understood. ZACHARY TAYLOR is not the man to permit the honor of his Country to receive the slightest stain,—or to suffer REPUBLICANISM to be deemed a fit theme for the ridicule or the insults of the ambitious despotisms of the old world. The insolence of France has been rebuked as it deserved. If she chooses to resent the chastisement she has received, she will find no obstacle in the timidity of the American Executive, or in a lack of patriotic fervor on the part of the American People. War, we are aware, is not an issue to be lightly courted;—but REPUBLICANISM on this Continent has reached a point where it neither fears the frown, nor will tolerate the insults, of any power, or combination of powers, on the face of the Earth.

Locofoco Coalition.

The New York Locofocos, says the Republic, cannot stand it any longer. Flesh and blood can not bear this exile from the spoils of office. Old Hunkerism and Barnburnerism have agreed to kiss and be friends—quasi friends, that is to say, friends for all the purposes of an election. As for M. DICKENSON's ever acting cordially with JOHN VAN BUREN, or Mr. CROSWELL's being hand and glove again with Mr. BUTLER—that, we suppose, is quite out of the question.—But they have agreed among themselves, after a fashion, to waive principles for the nonce, and see if they cannot rescue some of the loaves and fishes for the benefit of whom it may concern.

In the new arrangement consummated at Syracuse, the Old Hunkers have surrendered unconditionally to the Barnburners. They have united on resolutions, to the effect that Congress has the power over slavery in the District of Columbia, and in the territories, and ought to exercise it to prevent the extension of slavery there. M. JOHN VAN BUREN undertook to show that the four Hunker candidates might be fair Free Soilers, and believed that if they were questioned on slavery, as they probably would be, would give Free Soil answers. IF THEY DID NOT, THEY WOULD BE BEATEN. The proposition for a union was a defeat of the Hunker leaders.

The Albany Argus discourses in the following fashion of the Free-Soilers:

"Its designs, so far as the objects of its leaders have been developed, are personal and political. Their sudden effervescence against slavery is the device through which they seek to divide the Democratic party, and with the aid of Whig and Abolition allies, to perfect their scheme of a northern sectional party, for personal and sinister objects. They may mislead honest Democrats for a season; and will undoubtedly secure the [illegible] of the Abolitionists and of some Whigs. But the indications are that the great mass of the Democracy and the American people, who are prepared to uphold the constitution and preserve the Union, will assuredly appreciate their designs and avert the evil they meditate against both."

MORE RIOTING IN PHILADELPHIA.—"The very latest"—While a party of Germans were having a dance at a house corner of Fourth and Carlton streets, on Monday, the 17th, a gang of rowdies burst open the door and made a brutal onslaught upon the inmates. Gangs were wantonly [illegible].

Four shots were fired in the melee, by which two of the Germans were wounded. Michael Ancore received a buckshot in the left breast above the heart. George Heck was hit by a ball, which entered the left side, passed around beneath the skin to the right side, inflicting a flesh wound. Two others were slightly injured—one of them, a man named Franck, receiving a flesh wound by a shot grazing his abdomen.

Our Candidates.

A letter from a well informed planter of St. James, gives us cheering assurances of the auspicious progress of the canvass. The writer says: "In Ascension, where parties are generally about equal, DECLOUET and KENNER will have an imposing majority; while in St. James they will receive nearly all the votes—the number opposed to them being so insignificant, as not to be worth while mentioning." So we go!

PROBABLE MURDER.—We are informed that the body of a white man was found in Virginia on Saturday last, in the neighborhood of a country tavern, about five miles from this city, with his throat cut from ear to ear. He did not appear to have long expired. He is supposed to be the young painter from Virginia, recently employed upon the repainting of the President's House, but who left the city on Friday for home, having received some $50 on that day from his employers here. Our information is rather vague and indefinite; but we shall endeavor to obtain further particulars to-morrow. Washington Republic.

BOSTON, Sept. 19.

LARGE FIRE.—Cholera in Bangor.—This morning, Ivan & Scott's extensive machine works, at New Market, New Hampshire, were destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at $30,000, which is covered by insurance. The New Market Iron Works were also somewhat damaged.

During the past week there were fifty deaths by cholera in Bangor, Maine.

THE SONOMETER.—The Lancet of the 11th of last month contains an interesting account of an instrument which has been invented by Mr. Thos. Walker, the Surgeon of the Royal Free Hospital, to be used during the treatment of deafness, in all its varieties. The Sonometer tests with the greatest accuracy the amount of hearing a person actually possesses in every stage of the affection, the advantage of which must be evident. With the aid of the Sonometer, no doubt can exist either in the mind of the patient or surgeon, regarding the progress of the case and treatment. The capacity of each ear is precisely and accurately measured as regards its exact appreciation of sound, and even the most simple and uninitiated, can, by this instrument, decide what progress has been made towards a cure.—Mechanics' Magazine.

RIVER NEWS.—The steamer Josiah Lawrence, from St. Louis, 19th inst., brought a paper of the 21st, from which we learn that from Cairo to St. Louis, the river was at a stand, with 8 to 6 feet water in the channel. There had been tremendous rains for two days on the Illinois river, and the water rose three feet during the night of the 13th; all the small streams were putting out full, and the river rising rapidly from Naples to the mouth. The Ohio, Tennessee and Cumberland was still receding on the 20th inst. The Alleghany river rose 10 inches on the 20th inst.

The steamers Iowa, Hannibal, Atlantic, Ne Plus Ultra and Sultana were in port, loading for New Orleans. Passed the steamers Amaranth and Louisiana, for this port, aground below Memphis.

A small steam dredging boat, the Savage, from the Ohio river, was sunk near Profit's Island.

DECREASE OF POPULATION IN IRELAND.—The New York correspondent of the Republic says: A letter was read in one of our city churches yesterday, from the parish of a pastor in Ireland, stating the alarming fact, that the population of his parish has decreased, in four years, fully one half! The number of persons in his parish in 1845 exceeded 9,000 souls; while, by a census recently and accurately taken, the number was found to be only 4,5000. This great falling off is attributed to famine, starvation, or consequent disease; while but a very small number have been able to escape these miseries, or the sight of them, by emigration.—Unhappy Ireland!

COME HOME.

Our absent friends who are sojourning at the North, or at the various watering places on the other side of the Lake, may safely resume their journey homewards. The city is perfectly healthy, and all fears of an epidemic have long since vanished. We want the Whigs home in time for the State Elections. Let them see to it.

Arrival of the America.

SEVEN DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

THE MARKETS.

DIFFICULTIES WITH THE POPE.

Hungarian Affairs.

THE GERMAN CONFEDERACY, &c.

It will be seen by the following despatch that the steamship America has arrived. She reached Halifax on Wednesday, the 26th inst. Her advices are not of very great interest.

BALTIMORE, Sept 29, 1849.

Liverpool, Sept. 15th.—The Cotton market continues steady, though the sales have been only moderate. Fair Upland and Mobile are quoted at 5⅝d. and fair Orleans at 5⅞.

The sales of the Cotton for the week comprise 31,780 bales. The stock consists of 539,460 against 555,230 at the same period last year.

The Grain market has stiffened somewhat. Provisions are in moderate request at fair prices.

The funds continue steady. Accounts from the manufacturing districts are less encouraging, but trade remains healthy. The sales of breadstuffs have been large, and prices have grown firmer, in consequence of unfavorable news of the potato crop in Ireland.

Wheat is in tolerably active demand. American is quoted at from 5s. to 6s. 9d. Western Canal Flour commands 22s. 6d. to 23s. Baltimore and Ohio, 24s. White Corn is quoted at 27s. 6d. to 28s. Yellow at 26s to 27s.

POLITICAL INTELLIGENCE.

France and Italy.

The political advices by this arrival are comparatively unimportant. Gen. Rawdon [this can hardly be the right name] has been appointed Commander of the French army in Italy, and has received instructions, in the event of the Pope's not returning, to carry out vigorously the policy prescribed by the French Government. The President has written a letter to the French Commander, full of vague promises and general professions of love of liberty. In it he declares that the intervention of the French, was not for the purpose of destroying Roman Liberty, but of preventing its undue excesses.

In the meanwhile, Pius IX has reached Naples, but seems little inclined to re enter the Eternal City, except upon his own terms and conditions.

Garibaldi was at Genoa, in charge of the military government established there. Things at Genoa were daily becoming more confused.

Spain.

The rumors of an insurrection in Cuba have excited some uneasiness in the Spanish Cabinet. The Madrid press devoted much attention to the subject.

Hungary.

Comorn and Peterwardein yet held out. Kossuth has not fallen into the hands of his enemies, though it is not known where he has concealed himself.

Germany.

All the northern German states have adopted the articles of the Confederation, except Oldenburg.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Cotton had advanced in the New York market.—Upland is quoted 11⅛, and Fair Mobile and Orleans 11¾ to 12c.

SECOND DESPATCH.

BALTIMORE, September 27.

The steamer Crescent City has arrived this morning at New York, bringing dates from Chagres of the 15th, and from Panama of the 8th instant. The steamer California had sailed for San Francisco, taking on board all the emigrants who were at Panama. The Crescent City brought no later news than was known by the arrival of the Empire City.

The cotton market of New York has experienced a slight downward tendency. Breadstuffs were firmer. From Liverpool, we learn that during the week which preceded the America's departure, 24,000 bales of American descriptions had been sold, of which 5,500 to speculators, and 4,000 for export. The importations had been 12,000 bales. Beef was in fair request, at firm prices. In Bacon, the transactions were limited.

The schooner Sindia arrived at New York yesterday and brought the report that Gen. Paez and several officers of high rank were prisoners at Caraccas, and that there had been a great deal of fighting in the interior.

THE FRENCH QUESTION.—The National Intelligencer of the 21st, states, that in consequence of the general interest mingled with some anxiety, excited by the conflicting reports that have been spread over the country in advance of the mails, of the misunderstanding which has led to the termination of the diplomatic intercourse between the Government of the United States and M. Poussin, the Minister of France—and to prevent the exaggeration of the circumstance by public rumor—the President has been induced to consent to the publication of the papers which comprise the official history of the case. Accordingly, the Intelligencer promises in its edition of the 22d (due to-day), to publish all the documents connected with the affair.

LIBERTY PARTY STATE NOMINATIONS.—The Liberty Party State convention, which met at Cortland village, New York, nominated the following ticket:

For Judge of the Court of Appeals—William Goodell.
For Secretary of State—S. R. Ward.
For Comptroller—Lewis Tappan.
For State Treasurer—Chas. D. Miller.
For Attorney General—John Thomas.
For State Engineer and Surveyor—Abraham S. Marinas.
For Canal Commissioner—Joel S. Harrington.
For Inspector of State Prisons—Francis Leslie.

The Kenner Rangers.

This numerous and spirited association had a large and enthusiastic gathering on Thursday evening at the depot of the Mexican Gulf Railroad, in the Third Municipality. The President, Mr. P. L. MAILLOUX, having taken his seat, and the meeting being organized, A. SAUCIER, Esq., addressed the club in a brilliant and animated speech. He was followed by CYPRIEN DUFOUR and Counsellor SEVER, who roused the enthusiasm of the audience to the highest pitch, by their eloquent and effective harangues. After a while, the assemblage was increased by the arrival of the Fillmore Rangers, the Declouet Guards and the Declouet Rangers; and an adjournment having been proposed, the several clubs united in procession and paraded through the Third Municipality, making the streets vocal with their sturdy shouts.

The Third Municipality is up and doing, and will give a good account of herself in November.

DISTRESSING SUICIDE.—We regret to learn that Mr. Henry Gornto, who resided in the lower part of Princess Anne county, committed suicide on Monday week, in the woods adjoining his farm, by cutting his throat with a knife.—Mr. Gornto was about 25 years of age; was a man of moral and estimable character, and in very comfortable circumstances. He leaves a wife, with whom, we hear, he lived on the most agreeable terms, and two children, to lament their loss. The particulars, so far as we have been able to gather them, are, that his wife had observed him sharpening a knife, which she generally used for cutting meat, which circumstance did not excite any suspicion at the time, and she thought no more of the matter. On the Monday following, Mrs. Gornto wanted to use the knife, when she found that it was missing, and commenced searching for it. Mr. Gornto then remarked to her that it had probably been mislaid, and that she had better get another knife, which she did and proceeded to the smoke house. Upon her return, she found that he had been to his room, and had taken off the suit of clothes he had on and had put on an old suit which he had thrown by. Upon her enquiring why he had so changed his dress, he stated that he was going into the fields to look after his hands, and walked off. Upon his not returning to dinner, she enquired of the hands if they had seen him, to which they replied that they had not. As night came on and he was still absent, Mrs. Gornto sent for some of the neighbors, and, after a search of two days, the body was found with the throat cut, and the knife spoken of above laying by him, in a thick swamp not far from his residence, where persons rarely went. It is supposed that he selected this spot on account of its seclusion, for the commission of the rash act, for which we have heard no cause assigned.—Norfolk Beacon, 21st.

A CASE in point is mentioned by the Philadelphia North American, in connection with the dismissal by our Government of M. Poussin, the French Minister. It is the case of Mr. Bulwer, the British Minister, who, not a long time since, was dismissed from Madrid in a very unceremonious manner by the Court of Spain, to which he had given offence, without any war ensuing in consequence. Numerous similar instances might be pointed to, in the history of civilized government; but it is scarcely necessary.

THE ASTOR OPERA HOUSE RIOTS.—The trial of those charged with participating in the riots at the Astor Opera House, are progressing, with a fair probability of coming to an end some of these days. On Wednesday, the court having decided that the riot was proved, it was competent for the prosecution to adduce testimony in proof of premeditation, &c.—Such evidence, of an important character, was then given. The following is an extract from the testimony of Walter Corbyn:—

"I met defendant, Judson, in Broadway, in a wagon; he turned down Barclay street, on the right hand side as I went on the left, towards the office; he crossed over to me and touching me on the shoulder said, Corbyn you are the very man I wanted to see; where does Ned Forrest live? I told him it was somewhere in Chelsea, 22d street, I believe, but I did not know his exact address; Judson then said, you know there is going to be a "muss," and I want to see Forrest to know if he is right or wrong, for I consider myself the leader of the Native American party in this matter, and if Forrest is right, I mean to see him through; I should think, replied the witness, you had rows enough without interfering in this; I expect there will be some hard fighting, and I advise you to keep out of it; Judson replied, that may be, but I mean to see it out; I then left him and went to my office, and he crossed the street; I did not see him again."

Another witness testified that when Judson discovered that the police were watching him whilst he was leading and urging on the rioters, he received from him a short double-edged sword, which he had under his coat, without being seen. It also appeared that after he was arrested, his partner, Mr. Stanley, took from his pockets two heavily loaded six-barrel revolving pistols, without those who had him under arrest perceiving him.

The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger, under date of Wednesday afternoon, says:

"There were some rather remarkable developments made this morning in the Court of General Sessions. The witnesses examined were Mr. Corbyn, the well known theatrical agent, and a Mr. Thomas Bennett, father-in-law of E. Z. C. Judson, ('Ned Buntline.') Bennett swore to the fact that, on the forenoon of the day of the riot, Judson came to him with a request that he should accompany him up to the Opera House in the evening. Bennett assented. On the road thither, (I quote now from the testimony,) Judson said that one of the editors of the Courier and Enquirer had applied to him to head the riot that evening. I asked him in some astonishment if it was Col. Webb. He answered me that Col. Webb was only nominally the editor, and he told me the name of the person, but I do not recollect it.

"Your readers may draw their own inference as to the person here alluded to. It was probably the same individual who penned the bitter attack upon Mr. Forrest which appeared in the Courier the morning of the riot, but which was retracted, a few days after, by the 'responsible editor,' at the request of Edwin Forrest's counsel."

RETURNED FROM CALIFORNIA.—Mr. James King, of Georgetown, D. C., who went to California in 1848, has returned home. In a letter to the Advocate, he says:

"Dr. Craigin is at Sacramento city, fitting up an hospital at the fort. He is well and in fine spirits.

"Mr. Peachey, formerly of Georgetown, has established himself at San Francisco, in the practice of law.

"At Panama, I found Mr. Jones, of Washington, (son-in-law of Col. Benton,) Mr. Robt. Merrill, E. Shoemaker, and my brother, Wm. King, jr."

A NEW FRENCH MINISTER.—The New York Tribune is informed that Mr. Poussin's recall has been decided on by the French Government, independent of his difficulty with the Cabinet at Washington. M. de Montholon, the son of Gen. Montholon, is said to be named his successor. It will be seen that the information given by one of our Washington correspondents, confirms this statement.

The Cambria's News.

The Baltimore papers of the 21st, contain a telegraphic summary of the intelligence by the steamship Cambria, which reached Halifax on the 20th inst. It is, in all respects, identical with that published by us some four or five days ago.

A friend, speaking of the late proceedings of the "Free Democracy" of New York, suggests the following parody of George Canning's epigram on a fellow collegian:

That the ticket they've formed is both black and white
Is a fact undeniably true;
But the Whigs with such sort will ever the fight,
It will find itself both black and blue.

A report of the death of Signor Blitz has been going the rounds of the papers for some days. How the report got in circulation may be gathered from the following notice in the Boston Transcript:—

"Signor Blitz is not dead; we have his own direct authority for saying so. But he is so accomplished a juggler that we are not sure that there is not some illusion about it still. His personal appearance at one of his amusing entertainments may help to dissipate the painful suspicions of his friends."

Meeting of Delegates to the Memphis Convention.

A meeting of the delegates appointed from New-Orleans to attend the Memphis Railroad Convention, was held on Thursday evening at the office of Messrs. Cohen & Labatt in Exchange Place, for the purpose of deliberating on the course to be pursued by the Louisiana delegation on the important subject of connecting the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans by means of a railroad. The delegates present were Messrs. W. A. Elmore, M. M. Cohen, J. D. B. De Bow, J. P. Benjamin, C. S. Reese, P. B. Taylor, Judge Dunlap, J. M. Bell, Samuel Locke, R. B. Preaux, Alexander Walker, N. Jarvis, S. W. Oakey, and J. C. Larue.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. Cohen, and Mr. Elmore was chosen President—M. M. Cohen, Secretary.

Mr. De Bow then offered the following resolutions, which were seconded by Mr. Woodroof:—

Resolved, That the interests of Louisiana are deeply involved in the movements now in progress in regard to a connection by railroad between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, and that in the present state of information, the route by the Rio Gila and Paso del Norte, whatever its eastern terminus, will receive the support of the Louisiana delegation.

Resolved, That as many of us as are able will attend the sitting of the Memphis convention on the 23d October, and trust that our absent colleagues will make the same effort.

Resolved, That all such delegates as may determine to attend, be requested to leave their names, or send them by letter to the office of M. M. Cohen, Esq., by the 15th October, and meet with us in New Orleans on or before that date, preparatory to our departure on the 17th.

Resolved, That the public press of Louisiana be requested to publish the proceedings and resolutions of this meeting.

Mr. Benjamin offered the following, which was seconded by Mr. Cohen:

Resolved, That it be recommended to the members of this delegation to bring to the notice of the Memphis Convention the great advantages of establishing a communication across the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, and to endeavor to secure the sanction and co-operation of the body in any enterprise for that purpose, which may be found practicable.

These resolutions were discussed by Messrs. DeBow, Benjamin, Cohen, Walker and Woodruff, and were unanimously adopted, as was also the following resolution, which was offered by Mr. Cohen, and seconded by Mr. Walker:

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed from the delegates of this city to make arrangements in regard to the departure of the delegation, and to secure a steamboat for them. That said committee publish in the papers the arrangements which they may make.

The chair appointed on the committee Mess. Walker, Bell, Jarvis, Cohen and Preaux.

The meeting then adjourned.

W. A. ELMORE, Ch'n.
M. M. COHEN, Secretary.

Kenner Reserve Guards—Fourth Representative District.

At a meeting of the voters of this district, held at the house of Salvador Patts, on Friday evening, September 28, the following gentlemen were elected officers:

E. SALOMON, President.
Mr. VIGNIE, 1st Vice President.
G. W. FLEMING, 2d do.
Mr CASSEAU, Sec'y, 1st Ward.
E. PAYSANT, do. 2d do.
J. H. MORRISON, Treasurer.

It was Resolved, That the regular meetings of this Club should be held on every Monday Evening, at Salvador Pratts, corner of Customhouse and Rampart streets, at half past 7 o'clk.

It was also resolved, That the proceedings be published in the Bee and Bulletin.

The business of the Club being through with, Col. Sever, one of the representatives nominated as a candidate for the Legislature, addressed the Club, and in the most forcible manner defended himself from the attacks made on him by the Courier, calling upon that paper to go on with similar articles; he invited and desired that every voter in the district should read them; he pronounced the charges made against him of having started the reports about General Walker, as being a base and unqualified lie, and the same of all the charges made by that paper. He called upon the residents of the city to investigate his character, being satisfied of the verdict of the people, as he hoped it would be given at the ballot box in November.

Pope Oldham, Esq., favored the Club with "Old Joe," when the meeting adjourned to Monday next.

E. SALOMON, President.
E. PAYSANT, } Secretaries.
Mr. CASSAU, }

City Intelligence.

ROBBERY.—John Canning and James Auld were brought up before Recorder Genois yesterday, on the charge of having stolen a trunk belonging to Mr. A. Duplantier, from on board the steamer Gipsy, on Monday last. Auld made a voluntary confession of the circumstances connected with the robbery, from which it appears that his friend Canning induced him to go on board of the Gipsy to ascertain the mark of a trunk. He fulfilled the mission by informing Canning that there was a trunk marked A. D. on board, whereupon the latter wrote an order for its delivery, and shortly afterwards the messenger brought it to his lodgings.—Canning at once went to work and pledged several articles of clothing for a trifling sum to a tailor in St. Charles street. At this Auld got alarmed, and fearing some mischief, he hastened to inform the police who had already been previously apprised of the matter by Mr. Duplantier. Canning, on the contrary, states that Auld was the principal mover in the affair. The Recorder committed both of them for trial before the First District Court.

COMMITTED.—James Rosch, the man accused of having stolen a silver chalice and a watch from the chapel of the Charity Hospital, was examined yesterday before Recorder Baldwin. ... Wm. Copeland, accused of being concerned in the robbery, was discharged, but Rosch was committed for trial before the First District Court.

EXAMINED.—Wm. D. Campbell, charged by P. P. Campbell with having stolen money and goods from his store in Canal street on Sunday last, was brought up for examination yesterday before Recorder Baldwin. He fled to Mobile after accomplishing the robbery, but was arrested on his arrival and brought back. The Recorder committed him for trial before the First District Court.

SHOOTING.—Three individuals, named Martin Hubbreden, George Konckey and E. David were arrested yesterday in the Third Municipality, charged with having attacked Mr. Manuel Prados, in Lafarge street, near the Gentilly Road, one of them being moreover accused of having shot at him with a loaded pistol. They were remanded to prison, for further examination.

ASSAULT BY A NEGRO.—Edward Blanc, a free negro, was brought up yesterday before Recorder Genois, on the charge of having assaulted a white person. He was committed for trial before the First District Court.

The Markets.

FRIDAY EVENING, Sept. 28, 1849.

Business has been generally quiet during the past week, and but few changes have occurred in the market requiring special notice. The city is beginning to fill up, and our thoroughfares present a scene of life and bustle quite in contrast with the listlessness that prevailed a few weeks since. We continue to enjoy unequalled health, and absentees may return to their own homes [illegible].

The Cambria's news, received in the early part of the week, reported no change in the Liverpool Cotton market. We are now in momentary expectation of getting the America's accounts to the 15th inst., the announcement of her arrival at Halifax having been already conveyed by telegraph.

To-day we have [illegible] the past week has been clear and pleasant, enabling planters, no doubt, to progress rapidly with picking. The intelligence however from the country in regard to the yield of the crop continues to be of the most discouraging character.

COTTON.—Arrived since the 21st instant, of Louisiana and Mississippi, 7,532 bales; Tennessee 721; together 8,374 bales. Cleared in the same time for Havre, 1,647 bales; Boston, 98; together 1,745 bales, making an addition to stock of 6,629 bales, and leaving on hand, inclusive of all on shipboard not cleared this day, a stock of 24,330 bales.

STATEMENT OF COTTON.

Stock on hand Sept. 1st, 1849	bales	12,791

The Cotton market maintains a somewhat unsettled appearance, but as a general rule, holders are very firm and refuse to sell unless at extreme rates. The unfavorable accounts from the country in relation to the crop, are the sole guide to prices just now, and parties are patiently awaiting the influence they are destined to exercise on the Liverpool market.

The sales of the week amount to 2,600 bales, at the prices subjoined, which are a shade easier than those quoted in our last review.

The America's accounts received to-day, indicate no change in the Liverpool market.

There has been a good demand for this article during the past week, but the limited supply remaining on sale, has restricted the transactions to 301 hhds. Prices are very full, but we continue previous quotations, though aware that in some instances they are ¼c below the ruling rates. Lugs, 2⅞@4c.; Leaf, Inferior to Common 4½@5c.; Fair to Fine, 5½@6¾; Choice 7@7¾ cts. ⅌ lb. Amongst the sales we notice 4 hhds. Admitted, at 7¼c; 1 do, at 7; 14 do, at 6¾; 13 do, at 6¼@6¾; 2 do, at 5¾, 26 do, at 5⅛@5¾; 9 do, at 5¼@5½; 93 hhds. Admitted and Refused, at 4¾c; 35 do. Refused, at 4¾; 5 do, at 4c., and 1 do, at 3½c ⅌ lb.

SUGAR—The transactions in view of the moderate stock, are necessarily limited, and prices are fully up to the previous mark. We quote: Common, 4½@5c; Fair, 5½@5¾c; Prime 6c; Choice, 6¼ cents ⅌ lb. A sale of 300 hhds. on plantation has been made at 5⅛c ⅌ lb.

MOLASSES—Business in this article is of the most limited nature, and prices are likewise feeble. Choice lots of reboiled may be quoted at 19@20c ⅌ gallon.

FLOUR—The Flour market has been maintained in about the same position last noticed—perhaps a little firmer in consequence of light supplies. The sales of the week comprise 6,000 bbls., at a range of $5@$5 25 for common to good brands of Illinois and second St. Louis; $5 37½@$5 50 for extra Illinois, and $5 75 for favorite St. Louis brands.

GRAIN—The Corn market has undergone no change since our last, though the transactions have been more extensive in consequence of the greater abundance of supplies. The sales of the week amount to fully 15,000 sacks, at an extreme range of 40 to 47c ⅌ bushel, though the greater portion of the business was done at 43@45c. Not a sale of Wheat has been made since our last. Oats have been in moderate request, at 40@45c ⅌ bushel for St. Louis, and 36½@37c for Ohio. Bran has been selling at 72½@75c ⅌ sack.

PORK—The market is unchanged, but there has been a little more doing during the past week. A sale of 270 bbls. Mess was made on Saturday, at $9 75, but the ruling rate is $10, at which a considerable retail business has been done. Prime is selling at $8 50. We notice also sales of 175 bbls. M. O. at $9, and 200 bbls. soft [illegible] at $9 25 ⅌ bbl.

BACON—There has been a fair demand for Bacon and we notice sales of 150 casks Sides, at 5⅞@5¾c., besides various transactions at 5⅝@6c ⅌ lb. Shoulders may be quoted at 3¾c. These rates indicate a slight decline, caused by more abundant receipts. Sugar cured Hams are selling at 8¾@10c ⅌ lb.

LARD—Sales to a moderate extent have been made during the week, at a range of 5½@6⅛c in tierces and bbls., and 6⅞@7c ⅌ lb in kegs, the outside rates being the value of Prime.

BEEF—The transactions continue to be of a retail character. We quote Mess $14@$14 50, and Prime $12 50@$13 ⅌ bbl.

BUTTER AND CHEESE—We quote Western Butter from 10 to 12½c ⅌ lb., and Cheese at 6@9c ⅌ lb. The market is dull.

WHISKEY—The market has been very quiet, and the transactions altogether of a retail character, mostly at 21c ⅌ gallon for rectified. There have been no sales of Common.

SALT—The transactions in Liverpool Salt are restricted to lots from second hand, at $1 10@$1 20 for coarse, and $1 37½@$1 40 ⅌ sack for fine, delivered. Sales have been made of 10,000 bushels Turks Island to arrive, at 20c., two cargoes of 23,000 bushels to arrive, on private terms, and 300 sacks, at 87½c ⅌ sack.

COFFEE—The market for Rio Coffee is firm, but rather quiet. We notice a sale of 600 sacks in the early part of the week, at 8c., and some small lots of the new cargo recently arrived, at 8⅛@8¼ cents ⅌ lb.

BAGGING AND BALE ROPE—The demand for these articles continues feeble, but prices have experienced no change. Most of the sales are made at 18¾ cents ⅌ yard for Bagging, and 8⅝c ⅌ lb. for Rope, on short time with interest added, but inferior parcels can be had for less.

GUNNY BAGS—Sales to a limited extent have been made at 10½ cents for bales, according to quantity.

HEMP—Quotations are altogether nominal, as we are still without a transaction to notice.

LEAD—We have no sales to notice of this article.

LIME—Sales of Thomaston Lime from second hands, are made at $1 60@$1 75 ⅌ cask.

CANDLES—Our previous quotations are maintained though the demand is limited. Sperm Candles 37c., and Star 24c ⅌ lb.

EXCHANGE—The rates for both Foreign and Domestic Exchange have undergone no alteration since our last. We quote Sterling, 9@10 ⅌ cent premium. France, 5f 25@5f. 32½. New York, at 60 days, par @ ½ ⅌ cent discount. Checks, ⅝@1¼ ⅌ cent prem.

Day and Boarding School for Young Ladies.

Founded in 1839, by Madame Lecoq, and conducted since 1840, by MADAME DESRAYAUX, Burgundy street, between Customhouse and Bienville streets, New Orleans.

MR. and MRS. DESRAYAUX, formerly in Rampart street, having removed their institution upwards of a year ago, to more extensive accommodations, assure parents and guardians of youth, that their new building in Burgundy st. has met their expectations, and supplies one great and almost indispensable requisite—viz. ample accommodations, adapted to the object they had in view. It is scarcely necessary to state, that the building which they erected is provided with all the modern improvements for the comfort and convenience of domestic life, and for educational purposes. The apartments are spacious, airy, well lighted, and properly furnished. The large and well shaded garden in the rear of the building, purchased for the accommodation of the pupils, is found to be attended with many advantages, as regards health, exercise and amusement—in short, every arrangement has been made, at no small expense, to increase the facilities of education, to guard the health of the pupils, and to procure their comfort and happiness.

The Institution provides thorough and substantial instruction in every stage and department of education. It possesses great facilities for the acquirement of the French language, and for the cultivation of Music, and it is sufficient to say, that no efforts will be wanting to sustain the reputation which the School has already acquired in these departments.

DR. MACAULAY, who has taught in the Institution for upwards of five years, and who divides his time equally between it and Mrs. Macaulay's, takes the entire charge of the department of English Literature, including Natural and Moral Philosophy; and teaches not only the outlines, but enough of Mathematics, Chemistry, Geology and Astronomy, as to enable young ladies to understand all the ordinary phenomena which are constantly presenting themselves to their observation.

For further information, the proprietors of the Institution respectfully refer parents to their prospectus, published in pamphlet form, to be found at the book store and at the Institution. s2—1y
