BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES, Under the Supervision of Madame ED. LOCQUET, No. 202 Camp Street, BETWEEN JULIA AND ST. JOSEPH STREETS.

THIS establishment, founded by Dr. and Mrs. Macaulay, whose high reputation has never been questioned, will commence its seventeenth session on MONDAY, the 17th of September.

Mme. ED. LOCQUET, assisted by her sister, Mme. FRANCOIS LOCQUET, will use her best endeavors to continue to merit the confidence reposed, for so many years, in her predecessors.

Professors of the highest talent are employed in all the branches, both useful and ornamental. Piano, Music and the study of the Solfege, will be taught exclusively by the Mmes. The French language, the native tongue of the ladies, and the acquirement of which is now indispensable to a good education, is taught with the utmost care, and is spoken in the Institution. Young ladies will therefore find in their constant intercourse with these teachers every facility possible for perfecting themselves in this language.

This establishment, always so commodious and well ventilated, has recently been entirely renovated, with the utmost regard to the comfort and health of the pupils. Mme. LOCQUET respectfully invites parents and families to call and visit her school, where prospectuses, with all other information which may be desired, can be obtained.

Letters of inquiry will be promptly attended to by the Principal. ep8 1y

Richard's Pectoral Syrup.

THE above celebrated Syrup, well known in the city and in the country for the cure of Whooping Cough and the Spitting of Blood, is also the best remedy for Inflammation of the Throat and Chest, such as Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, &c. It has been proved, in numerous cases, that by the use of a few spoonfuls when the first symptoms are manifested, the progress of the above mentioned evils is stayed, and a complete cure is brought about in from twelve to forty-eight hours.

The annoying and often fatal consequences of neglected bad colds ought to be a warning to every one and an inducement to buy RICHARD'S PECTORAL SYRUP, the sale of which has been considerably increased for years, since experience has so clearly demonstrated its precious qualities over all other remedies of the kind. The moderate price of the same (75 cents) enables every one to procure it.

For sale exclusively by F. BERTA, Druggist, corner Rampart and Barracks streets, N. O.

LAWS OF HEALTH.

LORD BYRON has expressed, in a few words, the instinctive and unusual desire of mankind. He says "Man's first desire is health; his then wishes for long life." The habits and customs of society, and but too many occupations and pursuits are unfortunately opposed to health, which requires as its conditions, regular habits of exercise, both of the mind and the body, regular hours of rest and repose, fresh air, wholesome food and pure water. Of course these great blessings can only be enjoyed by a small portion of the human family, and of that portion too many neglect to turn their golden opportunity to account. In the absence of such opportunities, it becomes necessary to strengthen the system by the use of such hygenic preparations as nature itself has provided.

This fact the inhabitants of unhealthy regions of our country have long since discovered. The only question has been "what shall we use?" To that question we look for the means of escaping sickness and extending life to its natural limit the lesson of life?

It is certified by hundreds of witnesses of the highest standing and respectability in the United States, South and Central America, Mexico, the Empire of Brazil, in a great part of the Pacific, and other countries where Hostetter's Bitters are used, that these bitters are a safeguard against the epidemics and endemics of every climate—a specific for weakness and general debility—a sure and certain cure for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and every species of indigestion—an unfailing remedy for Intermittent Fever, Fever and Ague and all kinds of periodical disorders—a means of immediate relief in Flux, Colics and Cholera [illegible] a mild and safe invigorant and corroborant for delicate females—a powerful stimulant, alterative and tonic preparation for ordinary family purposes—a powerful recuperant after the frame has been reduced and a renewal of the digestive forces—a depurative of the blood and other fluids, and a general household remedy, desirable alike as a corrective and mild cathartic, and an agreeable and wholesome stimulant.

DYSPEPSIA.

OF CHRONIC INDIGESTION is the most painful and the most difficult to cure. It originates in some of lesions in the stomach, or rather in the fibrous muscular coating of that organ, which become irritable and feeble, and cause us to be frequently, as the result, accompanied with more or less inflammation of the membrane which coats the interior of the stomach, and always with a diseased irritability of the whole digestive operations.

Constipation or Costiveness is not unfrequently a concomitant of Dyspepsia, although it sometimes exists independently of any serious derangement of the digestive functions. It is generally accompanied by headache or a feeling of fullness in the head, and a partial obscuration of the memory, and of the perceptive faculties. [illegible] The moderate cathartic action of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is just what is required under such circumstances, and it is believed that any case of costiveness, not organic, can be cured by a course of the Bitters, or if necessarily by persons of costive habit, they will prevent the recurrence of this annoying complaint.

LIVER COMPLAINTS

and bilious diseases proceed either from want of activity in the liver, by which the flow of bile is reduced below the quality required by nature to liquefy the food, or from inflammation, causing an overflow of the bilious secretion into the stomach and bowels, or from a sympathetic derangement of the liver, consequent upon some disorder of the stomach.

In ordinary Liver Complaint the sufferer has an intermitting appetite, sometimes eating voraciously, and again loathing the sight of food, is drowsy, languid, dispirited in mind, both body and experiences a sensation of weariness and lassitude, accompanied by violent palpitation of the heart, after the least exertion of the body. [illegible] Our object here is to point out the true preventive and remedy. Let persons who are of bilious habits, or who reside where bilious complaints are common, fortify their system, in advance, with Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, which, acting through the stomach upon the liver, will surely preserve that important organ in vigorous health.

have been divided into two classes, malarious and contagious; but there can be little doubt that all epidemic fevers are caused and propagated by malaria or bad air. It has been denied that Typhus and Scarlet fevers are malarious diseases, but this is a mere assumption, unsupported by proof. All the epidemic fevers unquestionably proceed from miasma or gaseous poison evaporated by the sun from rotten vegetable matter and foul water. It is a well known fact that whenever the axe lets light into the primeval forest, Fever and Ague and bilious remittent fevers are sure to get into the "clearing." The reason is obvious. The vegetable deposits of ages are suddenly unveiled to the sun, and from decomposed leaves and rotten wood a rich compost for the farmer's crop, but a pest soil for the health of his family—there goes up a noisome exhalation pregnant with disease and death.

The best evidence of the popularity of

and their successful introduction everywhere, is the disposition frequently manifested to produce counterfeits. This has occasioned the proprietors much trouble and inconvenience, and to protect themselves they have been compelled to employ a traveling agent, whose exclusive business it is to see that injunctions against, and to prosecute the counterfeiting of the Bitters. As an additional means of protection to the public, the proprietors have gone to the expense of procuring a fine steel engraved label, to which is appended a note of hand, in order to enable them to prosecute for a felony the parties who counterfeit it. Their only remedy, with the old label, was to obtain an injunction, by which in some instances proved ineffectual in preventing the counterfeiting of it; but with their new label they will doubtless be more successful. Both the old and new label are now used—the old in order that former customers may feel secure, and at the same time fully understand the object of the adoption of the new one.

Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters.

A specific for Dyspepsia, Diarrhea, Dysentery, General Debility Chills and Fever, Liver Complaint, Bilious Remittent Fevers, and the pains and weaknesses which creep upon us in old age. For these ailments we quietly invited a trial and a verdict. The trial has come off, and the verdict has been rendered, and the Bitters are to-day the most popular remedy, for the time they have been in existence, in this or any other country. It still continues to thrive and increase in popularity with marvelous rapidity, simply because the world wants it, will have it, cannot do without it. The dyspeptic demands it as his only help; the victim of diarrhea or dysentery believes in it; the bilious sufferer dare not let even one run out before he gets another. Both sexes, all ages, all classes regard it as the most wonderful invigorant ever compounded. Hence the enormous demand.

Dr. Mott's CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest medical authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Misenstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHEA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remitted hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine which exerts such prompt, happy and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing fifty pills, price 50c. per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to R. B. LOCKE & CO., General Agents, 339 BROADWAY, N. Y. au10-2awd-2awe

L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR,

AN EFFECTIVE, SAFE AND ECONOMICAL COMPOUND

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR to its original color, without dyeing, and preventing the Hair from turning gray.

FOR PREVENTING BALDNESS, and curing it, when there is the least particle of vitality or recuperative energy remaining.

FOR REMOVING SCURF AND DANDRUFF, and all cutaneous affections of the Scalp.

FOR BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, imparting to it an unequaled gloss and brilliancy, making it soft and silky in its texture and causing it to curl readily.

The great celebrity and the increasing demand for this unequaled preparation convince the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over any other preparation at present in use. It cleanses the head and scalp from dandruff and other cutaneous diseases, causes the hair to grow luxuriantly, and gives it a rich, soft, glossy and flexible appearance, and also where the hair is loosening and thinning, it will give strength and vigor to the roots, and restore the growth to those parts which have become bald, causing it to yield a fresh coating of hair.

There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this Invigorator, when all other preparations had failed. L. M. has in his possession letters innumerable testifying to the above facts, from persons of the highest respectability. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning gray until the latest period of life; and in cases where the hair has already changed its color, the use of the Invigorator will with certainty restore it to its original hue, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume for the toilet and a Hair Restorative it is particularly recommended, having an agreeable fragrance; and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the Invigorator, can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls—hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a standard toilet article which none ought to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being ONLY TWENTY-FIVE CENTS per bottle, to be had at all respectable druggists and perfumers.

L. MILLER would call the attention of Parents and Guardians to the use of his Invigorator, in cases where the children's Hair inclines to be weak. The use of it lays the foundation for a good head of hair, as it removes any impurities that may have become connected with the scalp, the removal of which is necessary both for the health of the child and the future appearance of its hair.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the fac simile LOUIS MILLER being on the outer wrapper; also, L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR, N. Y., blown in the glass.
