HEADQUARTERS DEPARTM'T OF THE GULF, }
New Orleans, August 4, 1862. }

GENERAL ORDER No. 55.

It appears that the need of relief to the destitute poor of the city requires more extended measures and greater outlay than have yet been made.

It becomes a question in justice upon whom should this burden fall.

Clearly upon those who have brought this great calamity upon their fellow-citizens.

It should not be borne by taxation of the whole Municipality, because the middling and working men have never been heard at the ballot-box unawed by threats and unassailed by Thugs and paid assassins of conspiration against peace and good order. Besides, more than one-half of these (which was claimed for secession have taken the oath of allegiance to the United States.

The United States Government does its share when it protects, defends and preserves the people in the enjoyment of law, order and calm quiet.

Those who have brought upon the city this stagnation of business, this desolation of the hearth-stone, this starvation of the poor and helpless, should, as far as they may be able, relieve distresses.

There are two classes whom it would seem peculiarly fit should at first contribute to this end. First, the individuals and corporations who have aided the rebellion with their means; and second, those who have endeavored to destroy the commercial prosperity of the city, upon which the welfare of its inhabitants depends.

It is brought to the knowledge of the Commanding General that a subscription of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars was made by the corporate bodies, business firms and persons whose names are set forth in schedule "A," annexed to this order, and that sum placed in the hands of an illegal body known as the "Committee of Public Safety," for the treasonable purpose of defending the city against the Government of the United States, under whose benign rule the city of New Orleans had enjoyed such unexampled prosperity, that its wharves were filled with the trade of all nations who came to share her freedom, to take part in the benefits of her commercial superiority, and thus she was made the representative mart of the world.

The stupidity and wastefulness with which this immense sum was spent was only equaled by the folly which led to its being raised at all. The subscribers to this fund, by this very act, betray their treasonable design, and their ability to pay at least a much smaller tax for the relief of their destitute and starving neighbors.

Schedule "B" is a list of cotton brokers, who, claiming to control that great interest in New Orleans, to which she is so much indebted for her wealth, published in the newspapers in October, 1861, a manifesto deliberately advising the planters not to bring their produce to the city, a measure which brought ruin at the same time upon the producer and the city.

This act sufficiently testifies the malignity of these traitors as well to the Government as their neighbors, and it is to be regretted that their ability to relieve their fellow-citizens is not equal to their facilities for injuring them.

In taxing both these classes to relieve the suffering poor of New Orleans, yea, even though the mercy be the starving wives and children of those in arms at Richmond and elsewhere against the United States, it will be impossible to make a mistake save in having the assessment too easy and the burden too light.

It is therefore ordered—

1st. That the sums in schedules annexed, marked "A" and "B," are against the names of the several persons, business firms and corporations therein described, be and are hereby assessed upon each respectively.

2d. That said sums be paid to Lieutenant David C. G. Field, Financial Clerk, at his office in the Custom-house, on or before Monday, the 11th instant, or that the property of the delinquent be forthwith seized and sold at public auction, to pay the amount, with all necessary charges and expenses, or the party imprisoned till paid.

3d. The money raised by this assessment to be a fund for the purpose of providing employment and food for the deserving poor people of New Orleans.

By order of
MAJOR-GENERAL BUTLER.
R. S. Davis, Captain and A. A. A. G.

[Lieutenant Field may be found in the room formerly occupied by the Navy Agent.]

SCHEDULE A.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTM'T OF THE GULF, }
New Orleans, August 7, 1862. }

SPECIAL ORDER NO. 256.

A Commission of Relief to take charge of the distribution of the provisions for the poor, to consist of five members, one from each District, and a President.

The Committee will have the entire management of the distribution of gratuitous distribution of food.

They will make requisitions upon the Chief Commissary for provisions and establish the stores of distribution, as many in each District as economy and efficiency may show need.

They will receive and decide upon all applications for relief, making careful inquiry in all cases into the character and circumstances of the applicants, so as not to encourage loyalty to the Union, but to relieve the deserving women and children although not loyal.

They will make requisitions upon the Financial Clerk for the sums necessary to pay expenses and labor of distribution.

They will keep separate accounts of food distributed.

1st. Families of Federal recruits.
2d. Widows and friendless destitute.
3d. Families of Confederate soldiers.

They will carefully keep in a systematic manner all the book and records necessary to show in a clear and complete manner all their transactions, ready and subject at all times to the inspection of the Government officers who may be appointed or detailed to examine or supervise them.

They will report to the Commanding General weekly the number of families supplied and the quantity of provisions distributed.

They will suspend and abolish the so-called Free Market, as soon as they are ready to make distributions.

Messrs. R. F. Flanders, President;
T. S. Thorpe,
R. Heath,
C. Whitmore,
J. S. Hubbard,

are appointed as such Commissioners.

THIS establishment, founded in 1836, has long held a high position in public opinion, as one of the leading institutions in the South of the United States.

The plan comprises a general and extensive system of education. Pupils are admitted at six or seven years of age, and continue till they are prepared for their future pursuits in life. They are distributed into classes, according to their capacities and requirements.

The premises are, perhaps, the best to be found in the city, with ample space for exercise and recreation, and every convenience for an institution of learning.

The Professors are gentlemen of talent, chosen with care. Good order reigns in the establishment, and strict attention is paid to the moral conduct and improvement of the pupils.

By reading the certificate of Mr. P. Burgunder in the newspapers, some people find it astonishing that he certifies his daughter was cured of her sore throat by the third application of the remedy procured at No. 117 St. Ann street, and I don't deny it, I was one of the unbelievers; but I was afflicted with sore throat, and thought I will go anyhow and see. I went and had the article, and the result was the same; after three or four applications I was cured; therefore I would recommend to every one who suffers from Croup or Sore Throat to go with full confidence at No. 117 St. Ann street, and he will find a sure cure.
