AND COMMERCE.

LEGAL NOTICES.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons, owners of property situated in the Parish of Jefferson, New Orleans, whether they be residents or non residents, that the taxes imposed according to law by the Parish of Jefferson for the year 1842, and for the year 1843, will become due and demandable on the fifteenth July next, and be delinquent on the twenty-third day of the same month, when the lists will be closed, and the seizure of delinquents will commence on the first day of August next, and the sale of the property of delinquents will commence on the third day of August next, and will be continued from day to day, until the whole is sold, or the taxes and costs of sale paid. The said office is open from 9 o'clock a. m. to 6 o'clock p. m.

Persons having to make payment of the said taxes will find it greatly to their advantage to avoid the costs and expenses of sale, as the Legislature enabling the Police Jury to provide for the collection of taxes, passed on the 1st of February last, approved 10th of March, 1842.

ANATOLE J. LABRANCHE,
Collector of Parish Taxes.

STATE OF LOUISIANA, Parish Court for the parish and city of New Orleans: Thereby certify that on the 15th June, 1843, judgment was entered in this court in this suit, in favor of the plaintiff, in said sum of $50 with interest and costs of suit, viz:

No. 5754. Mia A. L. Michel (solastique Duchemin) vs her husband.

Now, it is ordered, adjudged and decreed that judgment be entered in favor of the plaintiff against the defendant, that there be a separation of property between the parties, and that the plaintiff recover from the defendant the sum of one hundred and fifty-five dollars, with the privilege and mortgage granted by law to the wife for the recovery of her dotal property, situated by her husband, and that the defendant pay the costs of suit.

New Orleans, June 17th, 1843.

Signed, during the illness of Chs. Maurian, judge:

C. WATTS, Judge.

Be it known, whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the said Court, at the city of New Orleans, on this 17th day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, and in the sixty-seventh year of the independence of the United States.

LOUIS R. CORTIN, by Clerk.
