NOTICE is hereby given that application has been made to the Honorable the Fourth Judicial District Court of New Orleans, for the confirmance and approval of the act of Incorporation of the Louisiana Company for Life Insurance on Slaves—and all persons interested are hereby notified to make opposition, if any they have, to said Act of Incorporation, within thirty days from the date of this notice. Said Act of Incorporation is in the words and figures following to wit:

United States of America—State of Louisiana—Parish of Orleans and City of New Orleans—

BE IT KNOWN, That on this Seventeenth day of the month of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and the seventy third of the Independence of the United States of America.

Before me, Lucien Hermann, a Notary Public, duly sworn and commissioned for this Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana, and in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and undersigned—

Personally came and appeared, Messrs. Jean Martin Lapeyre, George Urquhart, Laurent Millaudon, William C. Micou, Jules Kruttschnitt, Jules Tuyes and Charles de la Bretonne, all domiciliated in this city, who declared:

SECT. 1.—Name and style and place of business of the Company.—That availing themselves of the provisions of an act of the Legislature of this State, approved on the sixteenth day of March, eighteen hundred and forty-eight, they have mutually agreed, and do hereby mutually agree to establish a Company under the name and style of the "Louisiana Company for Life Insurance on Slaves"—the affairs of which shall be transacted in this city.

SECT. 2.—Its object, Seal, duration of Charter.—The only business of the Company shall be the life insurance on slaves in the State of Louisiana, not under the age of fifteen years or over the age of forty years. A seal, with the device of "Life Insurance on Slaves," in the centre, and "Louisiana Company, New Orleans," around the margin thereof, shall be used by the Company, and this business shall commence on the nineteenth day of March next ensuing, 1849, and end on the nineteenth day of March, eighteen hundred and seventy four; say for twenty five years, being the limited period of duration of its present charter. A President shall be chosen from among the Directors elected, as hereafter provided, on whom shall be served all legal notices and citations relative to the affairs of the Company.

SECT. 3.—Capital Stock, Shares, How paid, Security for the same. Transfer of Stock.—The capital stock of the Company is fixed at the sum of $100,000—$100,000 to be divided into one thousand shares, of one hundred dollars each. On the amount of each share the sum of twenty dollars shall be paid in cash at the time of the subscription, and balance shall be made payable at such period as shall be determined upon by the Board of Directors; Provided, that no instalment shall exceed the sum of ten dollars per share, and that previous notice of such demand shall be given at least fifteen days in advance, in any paper published in this city, and designated for that purpose by the Board of Directors at their meeting, and, for the balance of eighty dollars, remaining due on each share, each subscriber shall furnish his bond or obligation, endorsed by two solvent persons, in order to insure the immediate payment of any instalment called for at the time and in the manner as hereinbefore provided. And in the lieu and place of such personal security, any stockholder shall have the privilege of giving a special mortgage on real estate, to be approved of by the Board of Directors; or of giving in pledge bonds of the State of Louisiana, or, shares of the capital stock of any specie paying bank of this State, and, at any time the security so furnished shall be deemed insufficient, the Board of Directors shall have the right of requiring additional security.

A certificate stock book shall be kept in the office of the Company. Every certificate of stock shall be sealed with the seal of the Company, signed by the President, and countersigned by the Secretary, and shall be delivered only after the above mentioned conditions and requirements shall have been complied with. In case any certificate of stock shall be lost, mislaid, or destroyed, a new certificate shall be issued in favor of any stockholder making application for the same, after public notice of such loss, at the expense of the applicant, shall have been given for sixty days, at least once a week.

No transfer of stock shall be considered binding upon the Company, unless it be made on the Transfer Book of the Company, and after good and sufficient security shall have been furnished by the transferree in lieu of that furnished by the transferrer. Stockholders holding stock by transfer, shall have the right of voting at the meeting of the Stockholders only twenty days after the transfer of the stock made to them on the books of the Company.

SECT. 4.—Subscriptions, Reductions, Commissions.—Subscription Books shall be opened on the First Day of March, next ensuing, at the office of the New Orleans Insurance Company, on Canal street, under the inspection of Messrs. Jean Martin Lapeyre, George Urquhart and Jules Tuyes, all of this city, or of any two of them, who are hereby appointed Commissioners and authorized to receive subscriptions of stock. The said books, kept in the usual way, shall remain open during three days. In case the amount of stock subscribed for should exceed the amount of the intended Capital stock, it shall be the duty of the Commissioners to reduce the number of shares of the largest subscribers in amount, in such manner and proportion that no subscription shall be reduced to a number below the number of the lowest, other than shall be otherwise exceeding it in number. After which, the Commissioners shall call together, by public notice in the newspapers for six days, a meeting of the Stockholders of the Company for the election of the first Directors, which meeting of Stockholders shall take place within the twelve days following the closing of the subscription Book. And previous to the said Election of Directors, it shall be the duty of the Commissioners to reimburse to the Subscribers free of interest, any surplus sum which they may have paid for shares subscribed for by them and reduced in the manner above mentioned.

SECT. 5.—Lots of Directors, Forfeit of 20 per cent.—At the first meeting which shall be held on the Monday following their election, the first Directors of the Company shall have the right of requiring them within the ten days following said notice, to furnish security for the four-fifths due on each share owned by them, and at the expiration of that delay, the securities should not have been furnished or be deemed insufficient, the Board of Directors shall have the right of declaring the twenty per cent paid by such subscribers as forfeited for the benefit of the Company, and to cause any number of shares so forfeited, to be sold at auction after ten days advertisement in any newspaper selected by them. The same right of forfeiting shall be exercised by the Board of Directors, in case any security offered to and accepted by the Board should not be furnished within thirty days after they shall have been accepted by the Board.

SECT. 6.—Election of Directors, Quorum, Duties and Rights of Directors.—The Directors shall be elected yearly at the general meeting of the Stockholders, to be held on the second Monday of February, except in the case mentioned in the fourth section of this act, they will be seven in number, and will go into office on the first Monday of March following, and at their first meeting they shall elect a President from among themselves. No Stockholder holding less than five shares of stock shall be elected as Director. Four Directors shall be necessary for a quorum. The Board of Directors shall, under their own responsibility, have the right of transferring to any one of its members, who shall be designated by them, such part of the power and authority conferred on them, provided that such transfer of power and authority shall not be contrary to the provisions of the act of the Legislature of the sixteenth day of March, eighteen hundred and forty-eight. They have the power of making, in conformity to the act of the Legislature of the sixteenth day of March, eighteen hundred and forty-eight, all rules and by laws in relation to the management of the affairs of the Company, and to provide the rates of premiums of Insurance, the mode of investment of the cash funds, property and assets of the Company, the duties of the President, Secretary, agents and physicians, clerks, and all persons employed by the Company. They will insure, in the name of the Company, the life of slaves within the limits mentioned in the second section. Policies of Insurance containing a correct and full description of the slaves insured, shall be signed by the President, or, in his absence, by the Directors, and countersigned by the Secretary. The policies shall bind the Company, and any amount due by the Company for losses under policies is issued shall be paid immediately after the evidences of such losses shall have been furnished to the Company, in the manner and form prescribed by the Board of Directors.

SECT. 7.—Agents, Physicians and Clerks.—The President and Directors shall, moreover, have right and power of appointing the agents and physicians, whose duty it shall be to visit or reside in the country parishes. They shall also appoint the Secretary, and all other clerks or persons to be employed by the Company, and fix the amount of their salaries.

SECT. 8.—Accounts.—The accounts of the Company shall be kept in a regular manner, and cash book, stock book, and all others required by the eleventh section of the act of the sixteenth of March, eighteen hundred and forty eight, shall be used.

SECT. 9.—Cash.—All cash and surplus profits may be invested by the Directors, at their discretion, in any of the modes authorized by the tenth section of the said act of the sixteenth of March, eighteen hundred and forty eight.

SECT. 10.—Dividends.—Until the payment in full of the whole capital, the annual dividends shall never exceed ten per cent on the amount which shall be paid on each share, at the time when any dividend shall be declared. Any surplus profit, after such dividend, shall be applied to the payment of the balance due by the stockholders on their stock; and no other use shall be made of any such surplus profits, until the whole capital stock of one hundred thousand dollars shall have been paid in full.

SECT. 11.—Carpired Risks and Premiums.—In conformity to the 10th Section of the above recited act of the Sixteenth day of March, Eighteen hundred and forty eight, the amount of Premiums for unexpired risks shall never be considered as being part of the profits of the Company, nor shall it be taken into view at the usual time of declaring a dividend.

SECT. 12.—Payment of Dividends.—Dividends shall be paid semi-annually, at such periods as may be agreed upon by the Directors, and after the publications required.

SECT. 13.—Annual General Meeting, Quorum.—On the Third Monday of January, of every year, there shall be a General Meeting of the Stockholders; said Meeting shall be called by a previous public notice, of at least thirty days. At this General Meeting a majority of number of shares subscribed shall be represented. Each share shall be entitled to one vote; any Stockholder may give his power to another. The meeting may be adjourned from day to day in the usual manner.

SECT. 14.—Second Meeting, for a want of a Quorum.—If, at this First stated Meeting the Members present should not represent at least a majority of the whole number of shares, a new call for a Meeting, to take place in the following fortnight shall be made, in a newspaper selected for the purpose, and published once a week, and then, whatever may be the number of shares represented, the proceedings of the Meeting shall be lawful and binding upon all the Stockholders.

SECT. 15.—Appointment of Officers—Vacancies.—At the general meeting, the Stockholders shall have the right of removing from office any officer of the Company, even before the expiration of the time for which they may have been appointed and appoint others in their place.

SECT. 16.—Extraordinary Meetings.—The Board of Directors shall have the power of calling extraordinary meetings of the Stockholders, whenever they shall deem it necessary. The same right shall exist in any number of Stockholders representing at least two hundred and fifty shares. The same rules and regulations governing the annual general meeting of Stockholders shall govern these meetings.

SECT. 17.—Meetings of Directors.—The President or in his absence the Secretary, shall have the right of calling a meeting of the Board of Directors in all cases of need, and more specially the semi-annual meeting preceding the dividend to be declared. The notices for this meeting of Directors shall be left at the domicil of the Director.

SECT. 18.—Liquidation.—In case of Liquidation, three Commissioners shall be appointed by the Stockholders at their general meeting, whose duty shall be to collect and pay all sums due to or by the Company, in order to distribute the surplus fund to the Stockholders. A commission of five per cent to be equally divided between them, shall be allowed to them on all sums collected by them. They shall alone have the power of liquidating the affairs of the Company with power to sell and dispose of all the assets generally of the Company to collect all sums due to the said Company, and to give discharge and acquittance for the same in the name of the Company, and also all releases of mortgage.
