MAYORALTY OF NEW ORLEANS—COUNCIL OF MUNICIPALITY NO. 1.

SITTING OF MONDAY, 13th July, 1840.

THE Council of Municipality No. 1, ordain as follows:

1. From and after the promulgation of this ordinance no pedlar or hawker of goods, merchandize, jewelry, boots, shoes, hats, cap, hardware, cutlery, crockery, ready made clothes, stationary, &c. shall be permitted to station in any public place, road, levee or side walk, within this municipality, under a penalty of ten dollars: and moreover for the faithful performance of this ordinance the commissaries of the meat and vegetable markets are hereby held personally responsible, and shall be fined $25 for the first and second offence, and afterwards dismissed from office by the Mayor if they neglect their duty. The commissary of the meat market is obligated to inspect from St. Anne to St. Philippe-street, and the commissary for the vegetable market, from St. Philip to Ursuline street. The residue of this municipality devolves upon the immediate inspectors of the commissaries of the different wards or districts under the same conditions and penalties.

2. All keepers of taverns, coffee-houses, grog-shops, and all others who rent to or permit pedlars to station in front of their premises, shall pay a fine of $20 for each offence, and if repeated, their licenses shall be taken from them.

3. During the summer months, when oysters are not sold, the occupants of the oyster stands on the levee are not permitted to sell any intoxicating liquor, under the penalty of $25 for every offence. They are also not permitted to sell other than fruit, under the same penalty.

4. The owner or owners of the ferry shall have a strong fence or enclosure with one gate, with not a small and one large gate in front of the landing, any thirty feet front on the Levee, extending on each side to the river—the gates to be shut and locked after the running of the boat shall have ceased.—The interior of this enclosure shall always be kept clean under the penalty of $10 for each and every offence.

5. The stands or pavilions used for the sale of ice cream, lemonade, &c. shall be removed from the Levee, and permission granted, if asked, to said occupants, to erect three small pavilions for that purpose under the trees of the public square, in front of the church, for which they will pay each $20 per month to this municipality, during the summer months.

6. From and after this date, no other stalls outside of the markets shall be permitted, (and that only during the market hours, say till 11 o'clock, a. m.) but those that sell bacon, lard, pork, fowl, game, corn, meal, fruit, rice, peas, beans, grass, vermicelli, coffee and sprats. The walk from the Levee to the vegetable market shall be kept free of market pedlars; and after mark 1 hour in the morning the whole of the market, and the space on the Levee between the two markets, shall be swept daily and kept clean; the two commissaries are obligated to have this done under a penalty of $15 for each neglect of duty.

7. The present resolutions shall be printed in French and English and published in every ward, and twenty hundred handbills shall be printed, and the Mayor requested to have them stuck up in the several parts of the three months of this municipality, and every other public place, so that all persons interested in any not pretend ignorance of the promulgation.

[Signed] PAUL BERTUS, Recorder.

Approved, July 14, 1840.

RESOLVED, That the ordinance passed at the last sitting, concerning the police of the Levee, and the municipality of the market, be so amended as to erase from the said ordinance the penal provision of three days imprisonment against each pedlar as may be found peddling goods between the two markets.

[Signed] PAUL BERTUS, Recorder.

Approved, July 20th, 1840.

[Signed] WM. FRERET, Mayor.

INSTITUTE FOR THE EDUCATION OF YOUNG LADIES—Formerly the plantation of Mr. Hurst, four miles from New Orleans.

Madame DESARCLE has just opened an establishment at the above mentioned country seat, well known for its healthy and pleasant situation.

She will bestow the utmost care on pupils, as well in a moral & intellectual point of view, as in the care and attention, which can render her deserving of the confidence of those who are disposed to grant her the pleasing charge of their children, descended, as she is, by the most able professors, and an English lady recommended and known under the most distinguished auspices, Madame Delarselle hopes to obtain the share she has in view.

The terms for board are $250 yearly, payable in advance quarterly; music, dancing, singing, painting, Spanish and Italian language extra. 213
