ORLEANS HIGH SCHOOL.
(Lycée d'Orleans.)
ESPLANADE STREET.

THE HIGH SCHOOL, conducted by Professors EVERETT, MERKOVEY and WYNDHAM, receives Boarding Pupils, Half Boarders, and Day Scholars.

The course of instruction as set forth in the Statutes, embraces all the branches of a sound and finished education.

The Mathematical department and the department of Languages are conducted by Professors SILEY, MACMANUS and FOURNIER and by the Directors of the School, Messrs. MARKOVEY, EVERETT and WYNDHAM.

The accomplishments are taught by Mr VARNEY, Professor of Music, Mr JACMA, Teacher of Drawing, Mr. DAVOTI, Dancing Master, Mr GARRENE, Fencing Master.

The Proprietors have always in their employ several ushers whose duty it is to watch over the pupils in the play grounds, study rooms and dormitories.

The discipline observed in this Seminary is strict and firm, and no interference on the part of parents or guardians is suffered, unless solicited, in extraordinary cases, by the Directors themselves.

In the method of teaching, the Proprietors, satisfied that sound learning can only be acquired by systematic and long continued labor, repudiate all the new fangled theories which profess to impart the several branches of knowledge in much less time than has been heretofore devoted to them.

The printed Statutes of the High School may be had in English and in French at the principal book stores in this city. n4 [illegible] the patronage of [illegible] the only one [illegible] studies, [illegible] received [illegible] rendering [illegible] philosophie.

The Course of Studies embraces a general and a special course.

The General Course, which comprehends the outlines of the science of jurisprudence, is intended as preparatory to the Special course. It includes, besides an examination of the utility and philosophy of legal studies, an outline of the history of the Roman, Spanish, French and Common law, which is indispensable to enable the students to appreciate the elements of the jurisprudence of Louisiana, also the principles of modern international and of constitutional law, &c.

The Special Course, which is devoted to the study of the actual legislation of Louisiana, and which is intended to prepare the students for admission to the bar, embraces the study of the various authors prescribed by the rule of the Supreme Court of the 20th Nov. 1840, prefixed to the 15th vol. of Louisiana Reports.

Attached to the Law School is an extensive and well selected Law Library, comprising several thousand volumes.

The Hon Henry A Bullard, Judge of the Supreme Court, Christian Roselius, Esq. late Attorney General of the State, and J P Benjamin, Esq. will aid the undersigned in delivering lectures in the institution.

Terms—Fifty dollars for the General, and one hundred dollars for the Special Course—each course is of six months duration. Subscribers to the Special Course are admitted free of charge to the General Course.

Applications to be made to the subscriber, who will promptly furnish any additional information that may be desired. GUSTAVUS SCHMIDT.

SEMINARY FOR THE TWO SEXES,
IN RAMPART STREET,
(between St. Anne and Maine streets.

MR. GARREAU'S INSTITUTION, which has been in existence only since the 15th July, already possesses more than thirty pupils. Nothing has been neglected to ensure to the pupils an education at once solid and varied. The classes are directed by the following professors:

Mr GARREAU, Director of the Superior Classes in French, History, Geography, &c.

Mr BEAUSSANT, Ex-professor of the Normal School of Paris, superintends mathematics and drawing.

Mr DE VARENNES for the intermediate French classes.

Mr OUSTEAU, for the Elementary classes.

An English professor of established merit, gives lessons twice a day in that language.

The young ladies placed under the immediate superintendance of Mdme. Garreau, are separated entirely from the other sex. Every branch of instruction necessary for a young lady is imparted to them with the utmost care and zeal.

Instruction in Music is attended to by a teacher well known in New Orleans for many years. j3

WASHINGTON COLLEGE.
One mile below the Ursuline Convent.
CONDUCTED BY
J. CHANUT, A. M.,

FORMERLY Professor of History in the Royal College of Henry IV at Paris, Ex Vice-President and Professor at Jefferson College, (Louisiana.) At this Institution which has been in existence some months, all the branches of education are taught, embracing either a COURSE OF CLASSICAL STUDIES, or the acquisition of knowledge DESTINED SPECIALLY FOR COMMERCIAL PURSUITS. The lessons are personally superintended either by Mr. Chanut, his associate well known as a professor in this State, and a SPECIAL PROFESSOR of the English language from the North, who is permanently attached to the establishment.

The various branches of instruction announced in the Prospectus which may be found at any of the Book-Sellers, will be taught with equal assiduity, but English appears to the Principal of such importance to this country, that he will be particularly careful to give it proper preponderance in the system of instruction, and to render every pupil capable of writing and speaking it with facility, purity and elegance.

OUT DOOR LESSONS.

MR. G. BELLANGER, yielding to the liberal feelings which have established public schools, now comprehends that for him, the period for keeping a Seminary of learning has passed.

He has consequently resumed, as formerly, the practice of giving private lessons in families.

Those who think proper to extend to him that confidence by which he has been for fourteen years honored in this city, are requested to apply at the Book Store of Mr Ver Hebert, No. 149 Chartres street. o21 3m

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL
FOR YOUNG LADIES,
Founded in 1832 by Madame Lacaze and conducted since 1841 by Madame Desnavaux.
(Rampart street, corner of Bienville.)

THE course of instruction pursued in this establishment is both solid and varied, extending from the elements of reading and grammar to the study of literature and the elements of the sciences indispensable to a polished education.

The pupils are distributed into seven classes, suited to their different ages and capacities.

The French and English languages are cultivated with equal attention, and a good opportunity is afforded for their free and familiar use in conversation by the intercourse of Creoles with Americans.

Vocal and instrumental music is taught by ladies, exclusively attached to the establishment, and their constant presence is a guarantee of unremitting attention, both to lessons and practice.

The performance of religious duties, by the boarders, is duly attended to; a priest, authorised by the Bishop, attends the establishment twice a week, to instruct catholic pupils and prepare them for their first communion.

From the 1st November, 1844, this Institution will no longer receive young boys, and will be exclusively consecrated to young ladies.

Parents are informed that the house in Bienville street, contiguous to the Church edifice, has been added to the Institution, for the better accomodation of boarders.

Examinations in music take place from November to April, on the 1st Saturday of each month. At the end of May, general examination and distribution of prizes.

DANCING ACADEMY.
BY MR. G. CASIMIR.

In St. Peter street, between Royal and Bourbon.

MR G. CASIMIR, Professor of Dancing, Pupil of the Royal Academy of Paris, lately arrived from that city, respectfully informs the Parents, Guardians, High Schools, Young Ladies and Young Gentlemen in general of New Orleans, that he has opened a Dancing Academy, and teaches the fashionable, graceful and elegant Dance, the Polka. Mr Casimir without boasting, can only say, that he had the opportunity to travel in the first capitals of Europe, as—London, Rome, Vienna, Berlin, Paris, his native place, St. Petersburg and Poland, where he had the best opportunity to learn the Real Dance-Polka, and which he has danced in all those mentioned cities the first society, thus this beautiful Dance is the most preferred all over Europe, and the principle cities of the United States, for its grace, gaiety and it might be here now for some partial persons.

M. G C. will teach also all the new fashionable French Quadrille, Cotillions, Slow and Quick Step Waltz, Hop Waltz, the Grand Gustave Galopade and Virginian Reels. Parents who will honor him with their confidence, will have the kindness to address at Mr Casimir's Dancing Academy, 104 St. Peter street and Mistress Casimir will always be present at the Young Ladies' lessons, and will pay all necessary attention to them. Mr G C. gives also private lessons also if required. Young Gentlemen's Class will be in the evening.

Mr Casimir is provided with an excellent musician. o8
