COTTON PLANTATION FOR SALE.

THE subscriber wishing to leave Louisiana, offers to sell his plantation, situated in the parish of Terrebonne, and lying on the bayous Terrebonne and Black, containing about one thousand arpens superficial measure of land, of which there are now in cultivation four hundred. The land is all or nearly all arable, and what is cleared, fresh, and in the best state for profitable cultivation. The improvements are new, and consist of a dwelling house, negro quarters, gin mill, cribs, &c.&c, all designed and constructed with an eye to utility and convenience. The soil is equal to any in the State, and the climate remarkable for salubrity and health. I would sell one half the place to a person who could put 12 or 15 hands on the premises, and who could engage to take the entire personal management of the whole, or if a suitable offer were made, I would dispose of forty or fifty slaves with the stock and utensils of every description along with the plantation. The slaves are in families, long accustomed to the climate and well acquainted with the culture of cotton—They are mostly young, and uncommonly healthy. To New Orleans there is navigation most of the year and at all times by a few miles hauling. The distance by water about one hundred and twenty miles.
It is my first wish to sell the plantation alone, or to obtain a partner by selling one half, who would also be the manager; and, lastly, I would sell the whole to a good purchaser, and the terms made accommodating.
I shall be pleased to shew the property and to communicate the conditions on the premises, or I would refer to W E Thompson, or Arthur H Wallace, Esq, New Orleans
Holly Wood, 1st October 1834.

MEDICAL COLLEGE OF LOUISIANA.—Extract from the Minutes.
The following letter of resignation from E. B. Smith, M. D. was received:—
NEW-ORLEANS, Oct. 2, 1824.
To the Faculty of the Medical College of Louisiana.
GENTLEMEN—Considerations arising from the loss of a very near and dear relative put it out of my power to retain the Chair in the Medical College of Louisiana, with which I have been honored, and which I therefore now resign.
Be assured, Gentlemen, that with my Professorship, I relinquish none of my zeal for the rise and progress of an institution which based as it is upon public utility, and sustained by distinguished talents and virtue, cannot fail to succeed—to elevate our profession—to honor our county and to reward its founders, but so far as any extrinsic exertion may contribute to its reputation and prosperity, mine shall be cordially and unremittingly given.
With sentiments of high respect and esteem, I am, Gentlemen, your obedient servant.
EDWIN B. SMITH, M D.
Whereupon it was unanimously resolved, That the resignation of E. B. Smith, M. D. be, and is hereby, accepted, and that the Secretary express to Dr. Smith the sense which the Faculty entertain of the loss they have sustained thereby, and of their deep regret of the cause which have occasioned it.
On motion it was then resolved that the Faculty enter into an election of a Professor of Materia Medica; which was accordingly done, and Doctor BARTON, was unanimously elected.
On motion it was ordered, That the above extract from the minutes be published, and that Dr. Barton's name be inserted in the list of Professors, as Professor of Materia Medica. By order of the Faculty.

PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

AT the sollicitation of several families, Mr Pedarré intends to establish an Academy, with the help of skilful masters he is confident that his pupils will advance rapidly. The professor's method is too well known to require publication. It is sufficient for us that the enlightened public of this city understand that Mr Pedarré's pupils always proceed from the known to the unknown. The persons who desire to see this last proposition fully explained, are requested to give a call after the first October 1834 to the Mr Pedarré's residence in Toulouse street, No 92, between Royal and Bourbon streets.
The branches of tuition, are the French, English, Latin and Greek languages, Mathematicks; Geography and History. The school will end at five o'clock p m, in the winter and six in the summer. oct 1
