EDWARD PINAUD,

230, rue St. Martin, Paris,

CHEMIST, PERFUMER AND FANCY-SOAP MANUFACTURER,

Purveyor to Her Majesty the Queen of England.

Manufacturer of PERFUMES and SOAPS FOR THE TOILETTE, renowned for the good qualities of his Perfumes for the pocket handkerchief and waters for the toilette. Till the present time the perfumery trade has been brought into disrepute by the bad productions which have been sent to all parts of the continent and the colonies. We particularly recommend the articles manufactured by ED. PINAUD as being superior to all others, by the care which is taken in their manufacture, and a certain distinguished character which he has given to all the productions which bear his mark and signature.

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.

Under the Direction of

MADAM CHARPAUX,

At the corner of Bayou and Claiborne streets

THIS SEMINARY, whose existence dates some six years back, has met with a success that proves beyond all cavil, the capacity of those who have charge of it.

Determined to merit the confidence of parents, Madam Charpaux will spare no pains to make her Seminary equal to the best institutions of the kind in New Orleans, and in order to do this, she has employed the ablest teachers.

Madam Charpaux has purchased a large and airy edifice on one of the highest pieces of ground in the city, and the better to consult the health of her pupils, she has had spacious and elevated apartments built on purpose for school and sleeping rooms, through which there will be a constant circulation of air from many windows.

Great attention will be paid to the improvement of Scholars in the English language. For this purpose, American ladies of acknowledged capacity, as teachers, will constantly reside in the Seminary.

The English, French and Spanish languages, geography, arithmetic, and in short, all the branches of a polite education, will be taught in this Seminary.

Religion should be the foundation of all sound education, it will be carefully attended to by Madam Charpaux, who will conduct to church and preliminary catechisms, all her young ladies who may have their first communion to make.

Music having become a most desirable branch of the education of young ladies, Mr. Charpaux, from the best musical school in Paris, and ex-artist of the Orleans Theatre, will devote all his time to teaching music. All the Scholars, besides their regular lessons, will practice daily under the eyes of the Professor. ...

In order to kindle emulation among the Pupils, and improve their singing, on the morning of the last Saturday in every month, there will be a musical exhibition and a distribution of rewards.

Madam Charpaux, in order to complete the education of her Scholars, has opened a class where will be taught all the useful and ornamental branches of needle-work.

During the summer, the classes will open at 8 o'clock, and close at 2. Re-open at 4 and close at 6 o'clock, P. M. In winter, they will open at 8½, and close at 2. Re-open at 4, and close at 5½ o'clock, P. M.

G. BOYER'S INSTITUTION

No. 148 Conti Street, between Dauphine and Burgundy.

MR. G. BOYER, founder of this establishment, the oldest in New Orleans, avails himself of the opportunity to make a new appeal to the confidence of parents. This institution is conducted in a large mansion, occupying a fine central position, being well ventilated, and in other respects perfectly salubrious. The range of studies which engage the attention of the pupils, extends over all the branches of learning, which are necessary to a useful, polite and finished education; from primary instruction, to the more abstruse subjects which are especially the province of a collegiate course. ...

—BRANCHES OF INSTRUCTION—

The English, French, Spanish, Greek and Latin languages; Mathematics, History, Geography, Elements of Natural Philosophy, and Philosophical Science.

—TERMS—

Day Scholars, $ 5, 8, 10 per month.
