THE SUBSCRIBER a direct importer of a fine assortment of garden and flower seeds, wished before entering upon business transactions, to experiment that would prove their good qualities.

Repeated trials have been made with every species which have established their excellence and have secured to the subscriber important sales.

The subscriber has, then, the honor to inform the public that they will find at his establishment an assortment of perfect seeds, at moderate prices, and he feels, in view of the necessity of securing the interest of planters, he has taken proper measures to offer them no seeds that cannot be positively relied upon.

The subscriber therefore sells, and will continue to sell, with a guarantee, not the mere customary guarantee which is illusory, but with the assurance to his purchasers that he will refund all money for seeds found to be bad.

SLATE AND METAL ROOFING.—The subscribers would inform the public that they having entered into the roofing business, are now prepared to give ready and with wonderful success as a spring and fall purifier by those who are subject to various complaints, and whose constitution requires strengthening. Where a cold drink is necessary, this panacea, taken in usual doses, will answer all purposes in much less time, at less expense, and in a far more agreeable manner than the common diet drink.

The following certificate, out of hundreds of similar which might be produced, are given to show the effect of the Indian's Panacea in the various complaints the sin mentioned, and are to exhibit in the most satisfactory manner its superiority over other similar preparations:

Case of Ulcerated Throat, Nostrils, &c.—Charleston, Jan. 18, 1839. This is to certify that I was afflicted with a scrofulous disease for several years, during which time I employed several eminent physicians, both in Philadelphia and Charleston, and also took several bottles of Swain's Panacea, but still continued to increase. During the last winter I was taken with an ulcerated throat, which soon became so severe as to prevent my taking sufficient food to sustain life. I remained in this situation several days, emaciated and threatened with suffocation, when, as a last resort, I had recourse to the Indian's Panacea, and found from it almost immediate relief, and in about a fortnight or four weeks I found myself quite well, as I have remained ever since. ANDREW COZIER, King street.
