SOULES COMMERCIAL COLLEGE,
AN INSTITUTION FOR BUSINESS ASPIRANTS,
Located at Wm. Hauck's Writing Academy, corner of Camp and Common streets.

YOUNG gentlemen wishing to qualify themselves thoroughly and practically for the various duties of the Counting room, and business pursuits generally, are offered greater advantages and facilities at this Institution than at any other in the South, as everything is taught by practical exercises as would be learned in the counting-room, and instruction imparted individually, and not in classes. The course of study embraces DOUBLE ENTRY BOOK-KEEPING, as practically applied to various branches of business; PENMANSHIP, characterized for elegance, rapidity and legibility; COMMERCIAL CALCULATIONS, embracing every species of computation necessary for a business man to know, worked by analysis; and cancellation, a system only taught in this Institution. Books posted, closed and re-opened with dispatch and to reasonable terms. The Institution is in perpetual session, so that pupils can enter at any time for a full course, or any branch they may desire, and attend any hours from 6 A. M. to 9 P. M. Terms moderate and satisfaction guaranteed in every case.

A CARD.
Embalming the Dead!
P. CASANAVE,
UNDERTAKER,
No. 31 Marais street, between Dauphine and Burgundy streets, (Second District).
HAVING purchased from Dr. Holmes, of New York, the right of EMBALMING THE DEAD by his patented process, not only in the city of New Orleans and its environs, but also in the other sale of the State, I offer to the public that orders will be attended to at all hours, day or by night. He avails himself of this opportunity to assure the public that he has not adopted, nor will he adopt, any other method, but remains in their natural state.

He has had a large vault in Cemetery No. 1, Girod street, similar to those in Greenwood Cemetery, New York, and which is destined to receive persons embalmed before previous to their being taken for interment to other countries. The vault is well ventilated with eight or ten days' supply of Holmes's and friends of the deceased are invited to the inspection of the bodies at all times.
