SANDS' SARSAPARILLA,

For the Removal and Permanent Cure of all Diseases Arising from an Impure State of the Blood, or Habit of the System.

This preparation [illegible] combination hitherto unknown in the history of Medicine [illegible] differing entirely in its character [illegible] and operations from [illegible] various preparations of Sarsaparilla, which have [illegible] different times offered to the public. [illegible] upon the whole system, there [illegible] and immediate influence [illegible] by bringing [illegible] Although possessing [illegible] healing effects, yet it is entirely harmless [illegible] cannot injure the most delicate constitution [illegible] effect health, no effect is produced by [illegible] increase of appetite [illegible] disease is [illegible] along the [illegible] and set [illegible] new life and vigor, and strength [illegible] spring and diseased.

"TRUTH [illegible] STRANGER THAN FICTION."—LET THE [illegible] SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES.—The following certificate [illegible] only another [illegible] in the great chain of testimony [illegible] merits. [illegible] afflicted read and be convinced [illegible] has done [illegible] will do again.

CHARLESTOWN, [illegible]

This may certify that my son, aged [illegible] for ten years afflicted with the scrofulous [illegible] age of seven years he had the measles [illegible] caused this humor to make its appearance [illegible] ful way, covering his body from his head to [illegible] small tumors. I consulted a doctor of medicine [illegible] examined him three days in succession, and [illegible] standing his case, advised me to consult Dr. Rogers [illegible] York, I then being a resident of that city. [illegible] and critical examination, having more than [illegible] medical gentlemen with him at the time, he pro[illegible] Scrofula or King's Evil. The child was then pro[illegible] for, and commenced taking medical drugs from that [illegible] He grew worse until June of 1837, and then his bones came affected in consequence of the mercury that had been given him. A piece of bone came away from his under jaw, in the first place, as large as an English walnut, a piece from his forehead as large as a sixpence, and a piece from near the crown of his head. It then went to the back and side, and discharged in three places. From thence to one of his limbs, separating, in consequence of the ulceration, the muscle and cord from the bones of the ankle joint on the back part. He had at one time fifteen running sores or issues from the glands of the throat and those places I have mentioned. In 1840, I lived in Portsmouth, N. H., and he was attacked with a Rheumatic Fever, which settled in one of his hips, which swelled as large as three of the other. Being under medical treatment, they gave him laudanum until he lost his reason. Then I became alarmed and sent for a Thompsonian. His medicine helped his hip and restored his reason. The third time he was attacked with this fever in 1842, when hearing Dr. Sands' Sarsaparilla, and being perfectly satisfied that all other medicines had failed of effecting a cure, I sent and procured six bottles, and by the time he had taken it all I considered him well. Those places healed—he became bright and lively—color came to his face and lips—from that time till the Fall of 1844, his complaints never troubled him. At that time he became deaf, which continued until last March, when his right eye became affected; from that to the left eye, covering the sight of the eye so that he was in a great measure deprived of sight.

Knowing that Sands' Sarsaparilla was the only medicine that had ever done him any good, I applied to Mr. Fowle, Apothecary, at Boston, for more. He has taken fifteen dollars' worth, which has removed the humor from his eyes and hearing, and he now appears to be cured, and radically so. I verily believe all this latter trouble might have been avoided if I had continued thoroughly the use of the Sarsaparilla when he was under its influence the first time.

These are the simple statements of the facts of the case, and I feel it my duty to make those facts known to the public, for the benefit of those who may be afflicted in like manner; feeling a full conviction the cure has been effected solely from the effect of this invaluable medicine.

HANNAH W. BECK, 298 Main st.
