Official Journal of the State.

NEW ORLEANS:
TUESDAY MORNING, NOV. 12, 1844.

☞ If the mail should come through to day, we shall get many returns from Georgia, Pennsylvania nearly complete, a part of Maryland, one or two counties in Virginia, a part of Ohio and something from North Carolina. By Friday or Saturday we shall probably know whether HENRY CLAY or JAMES K. POLK is to be the next President of the United States.

There are reports from one or two other counties, but nothing positive. It is said that Washita has given 70 locofoco, and Morehouse 50 whig majority. We shall see.

* We have some reason to believe that St. John has given 115 instead of 29 whig majority, but we let the latter figure stand until the official returns be received.

PENNSYLVANIA.

The Baltimore papers of the 4th furnish no additional returns and reports from Pennsylvania, which we annex, comparing the vote with that of 1840. Many of the returns are confused and contradictory, and we cannot place implicit reliance upon them.

The Baltimore Sun adds that many of these returns conflict with each other, and that they have selected those which appeared to them the most authentic.

BEAVER.—A report from Beaver county sets down the whig gain at 600, while another makes it 200.

ALLEGHENY.—A report from Allegheny makes the whig gain 700 since Shunk's election. We have, however, taken the statement of the Sun—that paper being generally accurate.

With respect to Westmoreland, we can scarcely believe that the whigs have gained 700 in that county—though it would appear so from the account given in the Sun.

From these returns our readers may draw their own conclusions. We are not of a very sanguine disposition, and are forced to conclude that POLK and DALLAS have carried Pennsylvania. The people of that State seem to have swallowed with matchless gullibility the stories circulated there of Mr. POLK's advocacy of a Protective Tariff. So be it. Should Mr. POLK be elected President—which, however, we do not believe, they may one day discover the fatal error which they have blindly embraced.

GEORGIA.

We continue our returns from Georgia. Yesterday's mail adds but little to them, in consequence of the failure of our Savannah exchanges.

Lincoln,	108	000	23	000
Taliaferro,	327	000	00	25
Warren,	261	000	59	00

There is a nett whig gain of 168 in these seven counties, or an average gain of 24 in each county. There are 93 counties in the State—a similar ratio of gain throughout would be 2,232 in the State, or about 100 less than the locofoco majority at the late election. We are not wholly without hopes of having carried Georgia, though we can advance no opinion until we hear from some 30 or 40 counties.

Since writing the above, our friends of the Tropic have kindly loaned us a slip from the Augusta Chronicle, containing returns from 13 counties more. They are annexed:

	CLAY.	POLK.	GAIN.	LOSS.
Baldwin,	17	000	000	15

Putnam,	80	000	000	8
Walton,	000	208	32	000

According to these returns the nett whig gain is 320; or, in 20 counties 188. A very slightly increased ratio of gain would give us the state. We shall see.

OHIO—ALL RIGHT.

In addition to the gain in Hamilton county reported in yesterday's paper, we have some fragments of returns by the way of Wheeling. A letter from the editor of the Wheeling Times, dated November 2d, says:—"We have but a moment to write. A part of Belmont county is received; 9 townships, 5 loco and 4 whig—Clay's gain over Bartley's vote in these townships is about 80. I think Belmont county good for 300 majority for Mr Clay.

From Jefferson county two or three townships are received, and they show a considerable gain over Bartley's vote. You can set down Jefferson for 50 whig this time.

Guernsey county, two townships, give a gain of about 50 as compared with Bartley's majority."

Belmont gave 210 majority for Bartley in October.

Jefferson gave a locofoco majority of 25 in October.

VIRGINIA!—FIRST GUN!!

We yesterday received a slip from the office of the Petersburg Intelligencer, communicating the result of the Presidential election in that city. It is as follows:

For Clay and Frelinghuysen,	376
For Polk and Dallas,	336
Majority for Clay and Frelinghuysen,	40

In 1840, Petersburg gave Van Buren 17 majority.—The whig gain is consequently 57.

☞ We are indebted to the clerk of steamer Diamond for late papers.

THE SYSTEM of running expresses for the purpose of obtaining election returns in advance of the regular conveyances, is extensively practised at the North, but from all that we can gather, it is barren in useful results, and leads to contradictory statements. The returns, in order to enable the express to outstrip the mail, must necessarily be made up in great haste, and are thus in almost every instance, imperfect and incorrect. In a closely contested state, like Pennsylvania for instance, these conflicting accounts deceive both parties and occasion equal confusion and uncertainty. We have been struck with this fact, on looking over the returns as published by the Evening Post (Loco) and the Tribune (w)—both of which papers profess to have received them by Express. Take a single county for example, Northampton. The Post claims 1281 majority for POLK; the whig papers concede but 1060—a difference of 221 votes in a single county. Again: Chester by whig account gives CLAY some 550 maj.—by locofoco cyphering it is reduced to 390. And thus the journals of both parties may be compared, and though all have received their intelligence by "Special Express," it will be found to vary to the extent of possibly 2,000 votes in less than half the state.

It appears to us, therefore, that the system alluded to is utterly inefficient. The fluctuations of hope and fear among politicians on both sides which it occasions—the numerous and important corrections which its statements require from day to day—all induce us to believe that it would be far better to await the slower but more certain and less erroneous advices which are brought in due course of mail. The suspense of a few hours or days is less torturing to the politician, than the agonizing alternations of feeling to which the blunders of expresses render him subject. We are, however, a people who seem to draw nutriment from the most exciting sources, and there may be to some a positive enjoyment in the rapid fluctuations of opinion which the early and imperfect transmission of intelligence is certain to produce. We seem to prefer running the risk of being deceived by false advices, than patiently to abide the result, and wait for the popular verdict in an unquestionable shape.

THE WEATHER is singularly sultry and unseasonable. Sunday and yesterday were almost too warm for winter habiliment. For the last forty eight hours we have had much rain, to be followed, we trust, by a cool, bracing and wintry temperature.

☞ We are requested to state that the Washington Total Abstinence Society will meet this evening, at 7 o'clock, in the Methodist Episcopal Church, Poydras street. An auxiliary society is to be formed, and several distinguished speakers will address the meeting.

☞ The passengers and part of the crew (nineteen persons) of ship Elizabeth, previously reported as having foundered at sea, arrived in this port last evening on board schooner Gracioso Arimanda, from Campeachy.

The brig Homer arrived at Laguna dismasted and otherwise so badly injured, that she was condemned and was to be sold.

SAVAGE RENCONTRE.—Last evening there was one of those disgraceful riots which have brought shame upon the city and Fire Department.

The rowdies belonging to the Weccacoe Hose attacked the Weccacoe Engine Company's Hose, on Queen street, with brickbats and other missiles.

A general fight ensued, in the course of which a member of the Weccacoe Engine Company was terribly beaten with a club, and two more were badly shot in the face, by the discharge of a pistol loaded with small shot.

The members of the Weccacoe finally retired into their engine house, and that terminated the fight for the time.

From the Journal of Commerce.

THE RECENT DECISION OF THE SUPREME COURT ON THE SUBJECT OF THE NATURALIZATION OF ALIENS.—We have already stated the effect of this decision. But the question is of so much interest and importance, that we are induced to copy at length from the Rochester Democrat, the intelligent opinion pronounced by Chief Justice Nelson.

SUPREME COURT—October Term:
Present—Chief Justice Nelson and Justice Beardsley.
Tuesday, Oct. 29.

Joseph Britton and others vs. The Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York—Mr. J. Prescott concluded for plaintiff; S. A. Foot was heard for Plaintiff; B. F. Butler in reply.

NATURALIZATION.

The Supreme Court, by Chief Justice Nelson, delivered the following opinion in reference to an application for naturalization:

In the matter of Alexander Paul, an alien:

This is an application for naturalization. The applicant emigrated to this country, and arrived in 1835, and has resided here ever since. All the preliminary steps requisite, under the Act of Congress to confer the rights of citizenship have been taken, unless the fact of having been without the territory of the United States, within the five years, operates as a bar to his admission.

It appears that the alien in September, 1843, started from the city of Rochester to go, in a steamboat on the lake, to the county of St Lawrence; that in passing from the port of Genesee to Ogdensburg, the boat stopped at Kingston, U. C., for passengers; and while there, he went on shore, remained a short time, and returned to the boat, pursuing his journey.

It is insisted, that this act of voluntary departure from the territory of the United States, disqualifies him, within the act of Congress, 31st March, 1813.

The act of Congress passed April 14, 1802, provided, that the Court admitting the alien should be satisfied he had resided within the United States, five years, at least, and within the State or Territory where the Court is held, one year, at least.

This provision, from the broad language used, is open to a doubt (though I by no means intend to admit that such would be its true interpretation) whether interrupted periods of residence within the United States, making, in the aggregate, five years, prior to the admission, might not be a compliance with the requirements. He would according to the words of the section, have resided in the United States five years, at least, though not continuously.

But, however this may be, it is quite clear that a temporary absence out of the territory of the United States, on business or pleasure, without any intent to change his domicil, would not break in upon a residence within that act. Absence out of territory, under such circumstances, would not be inconsistent with continued residence. This is familiar doctrine.

An alien, therefore, who had taken up his domicil here, would be left to pursue the ordinary business of life, like any citizen, whether it be out of the U. States or not, during the five years.

Then came the act of March 3, 1813, upon which the question arises.

The 12th section provides that no person who shall arrive in the United States after the act takes effect, shall be admitted to become a citizen, who shall not, for the continued term of five years next preceding his admission, have resided within the United States, without being at any time out of the territory of the United States.

This section varies from the act of 1802 in two particulars.

1st. It requires a continued residence of five years immediately preceding the admission to citizenship; thus excluding in express terms any implication that the full time might be made up by interrupted periods of residence, in the aggregate amounting to the five years.

2d. It forbids absence out of the territory of the U. States, for even a temporary purpose, such as business or pleasure; which was clearly allowed under the act of 1802.

The whole object of the act of 1813 seems to be, to change the existing law, in the two particulars mentioned.

Congress meant, undoubtedly, to put an end to all questions on the admission of the alien, as to whether his absence from the country during five years was for a temporary purpose, and therefore not incompatible with residence, or with intent to change his domicil, and to bring the case down to a simple question of remaining within the territorial limits of the United States for the full five years, and that without any interruption or departure therefrom, during the requisite period of time.

We are of opinion the alien is not entitled to admission.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

AMERICAN THEATRE.—The melodrama of the Fire Raiser; or, the Prophet of the Haunted Moor, and the farce of the Promissory Note, are announced for this evening, in which Mrs Kent and Mr N. B. Clarke will appear. During the evening, Mr Archer will sing the favorite song of the "Sea," and Mr Oakey will dance a Sailor's Hornpipe.

CRIMINAL COURT.—Edward McGowan, charged with assault and battery, was yesterday put upon trial and found guilty.

Anthony Golding, charged with assault and battery, was also put upon trial. The jury not being able to agree upon a verdict, were discharged and the case continued.

The following persons were arraigned and severally pleaded not guilty. Andrew Jennins, Jean Moizean, Francis Bastardo and J. B. Piony, f. m. c., charged with assault and battery.

Timothy Keneily, Jacob Herzfelt, Simon Nibor and Hannah Lockhart, for larceny.

Nicholas Grinder and W. Kern, for opposition to a wachman, and Salem Cambell, f. m. c., for insulting a white person.

☞ George Graycroft, Thomas Mullaghan, Mary McKay and Hugh McLaughlin, were arrested yesterday by the police of the Second Municipality, charged with selling liquor without a license.

☞ Henry Harvey, alias Patrick Rodgers, was yesterday sentenced by Recorder Baldwin, to six months imprisonment in the Workhouse, under the vagrant law.

☞ Pepete Perez, Sr. and Pepete Perez, Jr., were arrested yesterday by the police of the Third Municipality, charged with assaulting and beating with intent to kill, on the previous evening in St Louis street, between Chartres street and the Levee, Mr Juan Videl.

POLITICAL EXCITEMENT.—A curious example of the absurdities to which intense political excitement drive impulsive and passionate persons is furnished by the New York American Republican of the 1st inst. That journal says:—"On the night before last, a remarkably enthusiastic Whig, residing in a large boarding-house, purchased a Whig flag at some considerable expense, and on retiring, affixed it to the Staff and suspended it outside his bed-room window. About two hours after, he was awakened by a tugging at his staff, and, upon looking out for the cause, found his flag on the sidewalk. He re-suspended it, and again sought his pillow. At daylight, his room-mate saw a strong light, at the window, and, supposing the house to be on fire, he awoke the owner of the political emblem. The landlady had first pulled down, and then burned up, the Clay and Frelinghuysen flag. That morning, five Whig gentlemen left the house for more congenial quarters, where women could be content with minding their own legitimate business."

HORRIBLE DEATH.—The St. Landry Whig of the 7th says:—"An old man, by the name of Dennis M. Stepens, of Prairie de Marais, who had attended the Polls at Washington, in this Parish, on Monday last, was discovered, by persons returning from the polls in the night, lying beside the road, who wished and offered to bring him into town, which he utterly refused to let them do. On Tuesday morning he was discovered about a mile from the place dead! This is a sad warning to all abusers of spirituous liquors."

ANOTHER.—A man by the name of Jas. Baw, a painter by trade, fell from his horse on Tuesday, the 6th, in Washington, (St. Landry,) while in a state of intoxication, fractured his skull, and died about 5 o'clock, on Wednesday morning.

AND YET ANOTHER.—An Indian lad, the grandson of the head of the Opelousas tribe, was thrown from his horse, in the same town of Washington, about a week since, and was so severely injured that he died in a few hours after.

We copy the following particulars from the N. Y Journal of Commerce of the 2d inst.:

ARREST AND SUICIDE OF THE BANK OF ENGLAND ROBBER.—Joseph Elder, recently a clerk in the Bank of England, who in August last succeeded in defaulting that institution of £8000, with which he fled to this country, was arrested on Thursday in Boston, where he had passed under the name of Ellis, and committed to prison. Previously, however, he was examined by Solomon Lincoln, Esq., United States Marshal, who found in his possession certificates of Railroad Bank and U. S. stock to the amount of $34,013 88 and 400 sovereigns.

On Friday morning he was found dead in his cell, having committed suicide during the night by hanging himself. He was apparently about 60 years of age.

A person supposed to be an accomplice, by the name of William Burgess, for whose arrest a warrant has been issued was traced last night to Nahant, from which place he escaped in a boat without his hat.

GREAT SNOW STORM.—Detention of the Mail.—The Rochester Democrat of the 25th ult., says:—

The storm which commenced on Sunday evening has continued till this morning. Not less than two feet of snow has fallen. The mail from the east due at three yesterday afternoon did not arrive till half past one this morning.

The Buffalo train East started from that place on Monday, at 4 P. M., and proceeded as far as Byron, and was obliged to stop. The Railroad company furnished a sleigh and sent on the mail. The mails left Byron at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and arrived here at two o'clock this morning. The train due at ten last evening has not yet arrived.

The roof of two small buildings in Rochester fell in, caused by the accumulation of snow upon them.

☞ Our snow storm yet continues. It comes from the north; and if Jefferson, St Lawrence and other counties in that direction are not piled full, we are much mistaken. From the detention of the mail due yesterday afternoon, until late in the night, the east, too, must have had its full share. For nearly thirty-six hours, snow has fallen incessantly—though at times but slowly. Fully two feet, we should judge, had fallen, though much of it has melted away.—Buffalo Courier, Tuesday.

A COSTLY WATCH.—Messrs. Hart & Son, of Cornhill, London, recently completed another watch for the Sultan of Turkey, Abdal Medschid. It is thus described in a London paper:

The movement is duplex, with a chronometer balance and jewelled with rubies throughout; it strikes the hours and quarters by itself as the time represents, which striking is repeated together with the minutes by pushing a small gold slide. This mechanism is seen through an inner crystal covering, in which are two holes, one for winding, the other for setting the watch. The watch is in a double gold case, the gold being of the standard of twenty two carats; the back external case is most beautifully engraved, chased, and enamelled with flowers and arabesque scrolling. This part of the workmanship is really exquisite; the brilliancy of the colors and the delicacy of the pencilling are thought to be even superior to the former watch made for his Highness. The pendant is composed of scrolls supporting the Turkish order. The dial is white opaque, enamelled on copper; the figures are Turkish characters. The hands are of blue steel and silver, set with diamonds. The minute hand represents an arrow; the hour hand a dart, with the crescent at one end. The case on which the watch is supported is of green Genoa velvet, richly ornamented at each corner with gold acorns. This costly and elaborate piece of mechanism has been shown to her Majesty and Prince Albert, both of whom have been pleased to express their admiration of the good taste which has been displayed in the enamelling, &c. The price of the two watches is 1200 guineas, or nearly 6,000 dollars!

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 11th, 1844.

Messrs. Editors:

I have read in your paper of this day a communication not signed, respecting my position in regard to the Association for the Protection of German Emigration to Texas.

I regret that the author has thought proper to conceal his name. It would have been a source of pleasure to me to enable him to rectify the errors into which he has fallen. I shall remain 24 hours longer in this city, and I hold at his disposal the inspection of various papers and documents, by means of which he may ascertain on which side good faith and justice prevail.

Since it is impossible for me in a simple letter to furnish all the particulars of the affair to which public attention is sought to be directed, I will at least, in a few words, rectify the gross and palpable errors which are apparent in the communication referred to.

1st. I did not cede my grant of land to the Association for "a liberal consideration." My grant was thrown into the common fund of the Society; my colaborers having furnished as their quota 200,000 florins for the enterprise.

2d. The Association began on the 1st October, 1843, after an examination of the titles.

3d. The Prince of Solms could not estimate the value of my lands: he never had seen them. Not a spot of occupied ground exists in my grant, and if any part belongs to private individuals, it is that in the vicinity of Rio Medina, and the lands of Canon Uralde only.

4th. The renewal of my grant is no new matter for the Association. Since the 19th October, 1843, it has possessed proofs of its necessity, and understands perfectly that such renewal is not doubtful.

It is true that I refused propositions of the Association. I was unwilling, from a member of the Society, to descend to the role of a simple employé under the Prince of Solms, my equal in the company. Intelligence and labor bow down only before the inspirations of Genius.

An explanation respecting the value of the lands purchased from Mr. H. Fisher yet remains; but upon this point I deem it proper not to offer an opinion, aware as I am that it would be too late to prevent a treaty already concluded.

In short, I terminate this communication by repeating my request to the author of the article to examine the documents which I will place at his disposal, for the purpose of enlightening him both in regard to the above facts and the philanthropic object of the Association.

I have the honor to remain,
Your obedient servant,
AL. BOURGEIOS D'ORVANNE,

OLD CLOTHES MADE NEW.
LONDON DYEING & SCOURING ESTABLISHMENT

JOHN J JACKSON, lately from London, respectfully informs the citizens of New Orleans and its vicinity, that he has taken the store No 90 CAMP STREET, next to Morrison's Temperance Intelligence and General Agency Office, a few doors below Poydras, for the purpose of Dyeing, Renovating, Repairing and Scouring upon an entirely new principle. All clothes made to appear as when new, without any injury to the cloth, and if not done to satisfaction, no charge will be made

From the long and practical experience which I have had during my apprenticeship in London, and in working for the officers of the Horse Guards, and other officers of other regiments, I am enabled to dye SCARLET and other colors in a superior manner; also to extract grease spots and stains of all descriptions from military and other garments.

Gentlemen composing volunteer companies in this city who have military clothes out of order, from the effects of grease spots, stains, &c. are respectfully invited to call and give him a trial.

Gold, silver and silk lace, epaulettes, &c. tarnished from use, can be restored to their original lustre and brightness.

LADIES' WEARING APPAREL, (including silk, satin and velvet dresses,) dyed in the most approved fashion and in the latest style and finish.

Carriage cushions, hangings, pulpit covers, sofa and chair covers, window hangings, carpet and hearth rugs, cleansed, dressed, &c. and made to appear as when new.

Many gentlemen and ladies hesitate to have their garments, carpets, &c. renovated or dyed, in consequence of the numerous impostors that do not understand their business. The subscriber requires but one trial to prove the character of his workmanship.

From a strict attention to business I hope to meet a share of public patronage.

☞ All work entrusted to my care will be ready for delivery in forty eight hours after being left with the subscriber JOHN J. JACKSON.

THE HIGH SCHOOL, conducted by Professors EVERETT, MERVOYER and WYNDHAM receives Boarding Pupils, Half Boarders, and Day Scholars

The course of instruction as set forth in the Statutes embraces all the branches of a sound and finished education.

The Mathematical department and the department of Languages are conducted by Professors Everett, Mervoyer and Everett, and by the Directors of the School, Messrs Mervoyer, Everett and Wyndham.

The accomplishments are taught by Mr Varney, Professor of Music, Mr Jaume, Teacher of Drawing, Mr Devezi, Dancing Master, Mr Castagne Fencing Master.

The Proprietors have always in their employ several ushers whose duty it is to watch over the pupils in the play grounds, study rooms and dormitories.

The discipline observed in this seminary is strict and firm, and no interference on the part of parents or guardians is suffered, unless solicited, in extraordinary cases, by the Directors themselves.

In the method of teaching, the Proprietors, satisfied that sound learning can only be acquired by systematic and long continued labor, repudiate all the new fangled theories which profess to impart the several branches of knowledge in much less time than has been heretofore devoted to them.
