These are to give notice to all persons interested therein to show cause in writing at the office of the Secretary of State, within ninety days after the last publication hereof, why the said Bond should not be cancelled and annulled.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the State at New Orleans on this thirteenth day of October, eighteen hundred and thirty-four, and in the year of the Independence of the United States the fifty ninth.

(L. S.) A. B. ROMAN.

By the Governor,

Geneas Eustis, Secretary of State.

NOTICE to persons desirous of acquiring in a short time, and at a trifling expense, the indispensable art of a beautiful hand writing.

M. DUCHESNE DUVERNAY, professor of Calligraphy, lately arrived from Paris, begs leave to inform his friends, and the public, that he will engage to correct in 25 or 30 lessons, the most bad hand writing, provided the pupil will second his efforts.

The great superiority of the method, over all others, in formation of writing consists in the continued movement of the wrist with the arm, this joint labour (hitherto unemployed) accelerates the progress of the pupil. A more correct idea of the easy and beauty of his system may be formed by calling at his room.

In these days a fine hand writing is indispensable to every man, from which he often derives a living, this manner of acquiring in a short time a fine hand is not to be neglected. In this there is no surprise to be feared no fallacious mockery, no vain promises, nothing but what is punctually executed. The professor, strong by his numerous examples, may promise a full success.

He has two classes, one from 12 in the morning until 2 in the evening, the second from 5 till 8 in the evening, the first will be devoted for ladies the second for gentlemen. He will attend private houses, and at boarding schools.

N. B. The price of 24 lessons is $15.

His Academy is in St. Peter street, No. 156, between Dauphin and Burgundy streets.
