No. 17. NEW ORLEANS, THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 5, 1837. Vol. XI.

STATE OF LOUISIANA.
PARISH OF IBERVILLE.

NOTICE to the resident owners of land situated in the 11th inspection district of the Parish of Iberville, of the works to be done on their respective roads and levees.

To John Nolan (non resident) to clear your levee of all weeds, briars, and other incumbrances, at a distance of 10 feet on each side, and to raise your levee two feet by changing the side next to the river, and adding dirt on the top; to deliver a road across 12 feet wide, free from all incumbrances, well levelled and raised in the middle, with a ditch on each side; the first ditch to be at least 10 feet from the levee, not less than 12 nor more than 18 inches in depth, 1 foot wide at the bottom, with a regular slant towards the road; the 2d ditch to be parallel with the 1st, and 25 feet from it, to be of the same dimensions and slanted towards the road at least 4 feet. You are further ordered to make a cross-or draining ditch, and a bridge at least 18 feet in length, to be made of planks at least 3-inches thick, placed upon 7 sills at least 4 inches square, and well pinned down; the bridge must be lined beneath with boards or pickets of cypress.—Also, to make the same works and repairs upon your tract of land bounded above by the representatives of Cornelius Baldwin, and below by land of Aug. Richard, except to the levee, you are to raise low places.

To T. Lessasier (non resident) to make the same new works and repairs that ordered by John Nolan upon your tract of land bounded below by John Nolan and above by lands of Zenon Hebert; levee to be raised at low places, and holes stopped. Upon your land bounded above by lands of Baptiste Leblanc and below by lands belonging to Mad. E. Herbert, to make a new levee of 275 feet in length, with the two ends to be raised 18 feet base, 6 feet on top, and corresponding height, so that it shall be eighteen inches above high water mark. Said levee to be made without taking the dirt from the old levee; to be made at the distance of 60 feet from the old levee, except the ends that join the same. Also, to make your road, bridges and ditches in the same manner as before directed for John Nolan; also, to make the following new works and repairs upon your upper tract of land: levee to be cleared of all incumbrances, and the low places filled up; roads, bridges and ditches to be made in manner as above directed for J. Nolan.

To D. E. Bien & Co. (non residents) upon your land bounded above and below by lands of Zenon Hebert, to clear the levee of all incumbrances, to make your road, ditches and bridges in the same manner as is above directed for Jno. Nolan; upon your land bounded below by Bernard Allain and above by land of Mad. E. Herbert, to make a new levee near the upper part, of 250 feet in length, to be made in the same manner as above directed for T. Lessasier; also your road, bridges and ditches to be made as first above directed.

To the Heirs or Assigns of Cornelius Baldwin (non residents) upon your land bounded above by Dart. Edwards and below by lands belonging to J. Nolan, to deliver a road, ditches and bridges, to be made in manner and form as above directed for John Nolan; also to clear your levee of all incumbrances, fill up cavities and low places.

To B. M. Browder (non resident), to make the following repairs upon your land purchased of J. Estevan, bounded above by Pierre Lecoste and below by lands of Thomas Lessasier: levee to be raised in low places and cleared of all incumbrances; road, ditches and bridges to be made in the same manner and form as above directed for John Nolan.

To the Heirs or Representatives of Jas. Sharp (non residents) to make the following repairs upon your land bounded above by lands of Luke Lessasier, and below Victor Babin levee to be cleared of all incumbrances and raised in low places; road, ditches and bridges to be made in the manner above directed for J. Nolan.

All the above specified works and repairs ordered for each individual, are required to be finished on or before the last day of January next; and it not commenced before the 24 day of January, after ten days notice, the works will be let to the lowest bidder, at the expense of owners of the lands.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto placed my signature, together with my two assistants, this 28th day of August, 1837.

Ordinance concerning the issuing of Notes of the First Municipality.

The Council of the First Municipality of the City of New-Orleans ordain as follows—

Art. 1. There shall be issued by the First Municipality, in the shortest possible delay, notes drawn by the Treasurer of said Municipality to the order of the Comptroller and endorsed by said Comptroller, to the amount of four hundred thousand dollars; each of those Officers shall keep a correct account of the emissions in proportion as they will take place.

Art. 2. The First Municipality guarantees fully and formally the reimbursement of the notes issued in virtue of the present ordinance, the redemption of which is hereinafter provided for; and in order to give to that guarantee all possible security, there shall be successively deposited in a fund created to that effect, an amount of notes on hand equal to each of the emissions which shall be made; and the deposits thus formed shall be scrupulously affected for the redemption of the notes.

Art. 3. The emissions shall be made in four series successively, in proportion as the wants of the community may require it, in conformity with the opinion of the Treasurer and of the committee on finances.

Art. 4. Each series shall be at one hundred thousand dollars, and divided as follows:

$10,000 Notes of $5 each.....$ 5,000
