CORNS! CORNS!!
TO THE AFFLICTED.

MR. R. SIMMONS, who has successfully practised as a chiropodist, in the principal cities of Great Britain for the last ten years, offers to those citizens and the public generally who are afflicted with corns and other excrescences on the feet, a speedy, effectual and certain relief from all their suffering. After devoting much time and attention to the subject, he has succeeded in inventing a small chemically prepared rasp, by the sole use of which, he can, without the slightest pain, easily reduce to powder, the most obstinate, callosity, thereby avoiding all dangerous cutting, and the use of caustic and other injurious preparations, ordinarily used by humbugging impostors. Mr. S. feels well assured that a single trial will suffice to convince the most skeptical that this is not to be classed with the many humbugs of the day. Numerous testimonials from persons of the first respectability in England can, if desired, be furnished, proving the entire success of this new invention. These small instruments may be used by every person with perfect safety—they are for sale only at the quarters. Persons desiring his services will, by communicating their address to Mr. S. through the post office, care box B. No. 165, be promptly waited on at their own dwellings. oct15 1m

Sale of a Sugar Estate, Negroes, &c.
To operate a partition between the successions of Pierre Marin and that of Rosemond Fagot.

Evariste Marin, administrator of the succession of Pierre Marin vs. Elizabeth Esperante, the widow of Rosemond Fagot, administratrix of the succession of her said husband—Suit for a partition before the Hon. the District Court for the Second Judicial District of the State of Louisiana and Parish of St. Bernard.

IN virtue of an order of sale under date the 25th October, 1847, and to me directed by the Hon. the Second Judicial District Court for the Parish of St. Bernard, in the above entitled suit I will publicly sell at the St. Louis Exchange, in the city of New Orleans, on the 4th December, 1847, at noon, for the account of said successions,

A Sugar Estate established in the Parish of St. Bernard, at a distance of two miles from the Mississippi river, measuring ten arpents front on each side of the Bayou Bienvenu, by the ordinary depth of forty arpents on each side of said bayou, forming thus eight hundred superficial arpents, two hundred and fifty of which are cultivated in sugar canes, corn and peas, one hundred and forty arpents of ratoon canes and preserved canes to plant about ninety arpents; two hundred more arpents might be cultivated with the aid of a draining machine. This plantation might be easily drained by the purchase of small tracts owned by the adjoining neighbors. There are besides on the said plantation, a dwelling house entirely new, a sugar-house, mill, draining house, corn-barn, hay-barn, stables, hospital, kitchen-house, pigeon and chicken houses, negro huts, corn mill, a shed for sheltering carts; in a word, there are on the said plantation all the necessary buildings to carry on the establishment, together with four hundred and ten shares in the capital stock of the Union Bank of Louisiana; seven carts with new wheels from the North, ploughs, spades, axes, &c.; fifteen mules and two creole horses, four cows, one bull, and eighty head of cattle, and with thirty fifteen slaves, viz: Monroe, about 41 years old; Ben, 34 years; Soulhec, 37 years; Henry, 30 years; Sterling, 31 years; Rodie, 41 years; Thompson, 36 years; Conley, 30 years; Jim, 30 years; Aaron, 46 years; Crispol 30 years; Louis 14 years; Philippe, a mulatto negro, 36 years; Dause, a negress, 34 years; Lucy, 60 years.

The whole to be sold in one lot, on the following terms and conditions—viz.:

1. The purchaser to assume the payment of a sum of $12,000 due to the Union Bank of Louisiana, on a stock loan, which is secured by the mortgage of said property, matures on the 1st June, 1849, and is renewable according to the charter of said Bank;

2. Seven thousand dollars, which the purchaser may either pay in cash or pay on the payment [illegible] from year to year until the 1st June, 1852, on the yearly payment of an interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum from the date of the adjudication.

3. Seven thousand dollars due to Pierre d'Arpet, on an hypothecary obligation consented by an act passed before Octave Bernard, on the parish Judge of the Parish of St. Bernard, on the 30th June, 1841, which obligation, though due on the 12th June, 1846, may be renewed up to the 12th June, 1850, on the annual payment of an interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum, from 12th June, 1847, up to which time the said interest has been paid. The payment of this debt is to be assumed by the purchaser.

Six thousand dollars in ready money, and the balance in four equal instalments at one, two, three and four years in notes satisfactorily endorsed to the satisfaction of the administrators of said successions, to be made by mortgage—bearing mortgage on the property sold, payable and should any of said notes not be punctually paid at their respective maturity, then the whole to bear an interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum until paid.

The acts of sale to be passed before the recorder of the Parish of St. Bernard.
