United States vs Nine cases of Furniture.

In the District Court of the United States Eastern District of Louisiana.—No 3,860.—By virtue of an Admiralty warrant to me directed, I have seized and take into my possession nine cases, marked III, 17, 21, 24, 27, 30, 33, 36, 433, containing furniture and other merchandize. Imported on the ship or vessel called the Salem, from Havre in France, and libelled by the United States, for the reason that the said nine cases of furniture and merchandize were together with the invoice made up with the intent, by a false valuation to evade and defraud the Revenue.

And I do hereby cite and admonish the owner or owners thereof and all and every person or persons having or pretending to have any right, title or interest in or to the same, to be and appear before a District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Louisiana, to be holden at the city of New Orleans, on or before the second Monday in January next, and show cause, if any they have or can, why the said nine cases of furniture and other merchandize should not be condemned and sold agreeably to the prayer of the libellant.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.—Long habit has taught the bakers to consider it their duty to present their customers with a cake on the Twelfth day. It is with regret, they find themselves obliged to inform their customers, that in consequence of the extraordinary scarcity of eggs and the utter impossibility of procuring a sufficient quantity to make the cakes, they shall not be able to comply with the established custom next Twelfth Day. In order to prevent however their movves from being misconstrued the bakers of the city have formed the determination of appropriating the sum arising from the privation they have been obliged to impose upon their customers to the benefit of the orphans of this city; accordingly they have agreed to make up a purse, the amount of which will be published, which they intend placing in the hands of some respectable person to be by him applied to its proper destination. They hope this expedient will meet with the approbation of their customers, who will doubtless experience pleasure in making so trifling a practice for so meritorious an object. d30 4t
