Auction Notice.

THE UNDERSIGNED, proprietor of the HOTEL ST. LOUIS, Exchange Place, New Orleans, has decided to close entirely the business of the Hotel, which will take place on Saturday, the 1st of January, 1853, at which time he will dispose of the entire stock of wines, liquors, furniture, etc., etc., which are now in the Hotel, by public auction, at the Hotel, on the day above mentioned.

Terms of sale—Cash.

J. B. LAMARE.

Office of City Treasurer,
New Orleans, September 10, 1852.

NOTICE—The time for the payment of City Taxes is hereby further extended until the 15th of November.

JOHN F. FLANNERY,
Treasurer.

Notice to Voters—Payers of the United Municipal Elections.

A LL overdue Poll Taxes and Licenses, unpaid and not yet collected, are in the hands of the undersigned, Collector, who will be at his office, Exchange Place, from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.

All persons who have not paid their Licenses or Poll Taxes, and who desire to vote at the ensuing Municipal Elections, will be required to pay the same, with costs, before they can be allowed to vote.

E. C. LAIN,
Collector.

Office, No. 7 Exchange Place, second flat, Thalmy's building, between Royal and Chartres streets.

Soap, Tea, Pickles.

200 BOXES Soap, 1st quality, BLACK SEA.
For sale by J. S. VALENTINE & CO.,
Commission Merchants.

F. SOETHIEN,
SUCCESSOR TO REED & DR. DUBOURNAY
MONUMENTAL EAGLE,
St. Charles street, corner Common street.

Young Ladies' Academy.

Under the Management of Mrs. Cheyney,
CORNER.....Royal Road.....

THE above Academy was opened on the 1st of Sept. last.

Persons wishing to procure proprietorship will please apply on the premises.

For sale,

100 BARRELS NEW BREWERY KEGS
Lager Beer,
For sale by WILLIAM J. REID,
Commission Merchant.

Exchange,
ON LONDON AND PARIS,
SOLD BY THE BANK OF LOUISIANA.
APH. HOUTCHUP, Cashier.

West! West!! West!!!

HIGHEST CASH PRICE always paid for WOOL, by
A. A. VANHORNE & CO.,
Commission Merchants.

WE have on hand and expect that have been years to come:

WHISKY, BRANDY, GIN, PORT WINE, MADEIRA, Also—CHAMPAGNE, CLARET, SHERRY, MADEIRA, ALICANTE, PORT, SOAP, FOREIGN, RINGPORT, BRANDY, SYRUPS, BRIGGS, GERMANIA, &c. &c.
A. A. HART & CO.,
77 and 79 Tchoupitoulas st.

The Soldier's Safeguard.

THIS is the title bestowed upon HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS by an officer of the Mexican Army, writing from the Valley of Mexico. He says: "I am a soldier, and have served in Mexico, in every campaign, without some Hostetter's Stomach Bitters in my knapsack, and I can say, truly, as a soldier, that I have found it a safeguard against the fatigue, the exposure, and the malaria of the country. I have seen the time when I would have given a dollar for a bottle of the BITTERS, the recollection of the SOLDIERS' SAFEGUARD. Wherever it has been tried in the army, the result has been the same. Our officers have gone through the campaign, and have found it a safeguard against fatigue, and against the malaria, &c., &c., for which they have to thank the Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and not the medical department, in the opinion of the army. I have seen it prescribed from my experience in the Mexican Army, quality of it, and the medical department, in the opinion of the army, I have found it a safeguard from any malaria, or any exposure, and