Grocery for Sale.

THE undersigned offers his Wholesale Grocery Establishment, situated at No. 5 Front Levee, between Customhouse and Bienville streets, for sale. The attention which requires interfering with his Cotton Broker business.

The above named Grocery has been established since 1st November last; it enjoys a good run of custom, has done an active business, and has realized a very handsome profit—notwithstanding the heavy expenses incumbent upon an establishment of this kind for the first year, and the many other difficulties that a new house has to contend with.

For any person wishing to engage in this branch of business, this is a chance which will seldom offer.

Two gentlemen of excellent character and each of them valuable in their line, the one as a first rate salesman, purchaser of goods and business man in general—the other possessing a numerous and most valuable circle of friends and acquaintances in this city and throughout the State of Louisiana, are attached to the establishment, and their services may be retained by the purchaser.

Application to be made at the store where every information will be given and access to the books may be had. Terms will be liberal.

PUBLIC NOTICES.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 21, 1851.

To the Councils of the First and Third Municipalities of the City of New Orleans:

Gentlemen—In conformity with a provision of the Charter granted by the State of Louisiana to the "Pontchartrain Railroad Company," as expressed in the 5th section of the original charter and the 3d section of amended charter, approved April 24, 1835,

The President and Directors of the said Railroad Company would respectfully solicit from the Councils of the First and Third Municipalities of the city of New Orleans, permission to extend the track of the said road for horse cars only, in the manner following—to say,

Beginning at the junction of Canal street with Rampart, and running through Rampart, Esplanade and Greatmen streets, to connect with the track already laid—and to run from thence through such street or streets as the Council of the Third Municipality may approve, to the lower Cotton Press or below.

Among many reasons which might be urged for the extension now solicited, your petitioners beg leave to submit the following:

1st. The increased facilities it would afford passengers over omnibusses, as the horse car would transport passengers at one half the expense, and in half the time; besides a convenient accommodation for any number; and as the track would occupy the centre of the street, and the cars be conducted without noise and without injury to the trees now planted, no inconvenience or loss would result.

2nd. The greater convenience it would afford to men of business, in reaching the U. S. Mint, Lower Cotton Presses, Warehouses, &c, &c.

3rd. The cheap and easy opportunity it would present to large numbers of the people of the First and Second Municipalities to visit the Lake, who are now deterred by the expense and trouble of getting there.

4th. The vast increase of intercourse which would be produced between the different municipalities, and especially between the 1st and 3rd.

5th. The increase of population, and on the value of real estate on the First and Third Municipalities consequent upon the extended intercourse mentioned.

6th. The experience of other cities demonstrates the importance of this improvement; and we have an example in point at home, in our sister city Lafayette. In all the Eastern cities and in our own neighborhood it has been found that by traversing the principal thoroughfares with horse car railways, a rapid advance in population and in real estate, have been the unfailing results.

It may not be out of place to remark in conclusion, that a railroad is under contract, and rapidly approaching completion, to connect the Carrollton road with Lake Pontchartrain above the city.—Without wishing to deprecate the importance of that work, it will nevertheless occur to your honorable bodies, that unless additional means of intercommunication be established between the upper and lower part of the city, we shall yield to our upstown friends all the benefits likely to arise from such increased facilities. We now have advantages of population, locality, &c., quite equal to our neighbors, and by keeping pace with the times and meeting the wants of the people, we may not only maintain our position but rapidly advance also in population wealth and comfort. By reference to the map of the route, it will be seen that Rampart, Esplanade and Greatmen streets, would afford the greatest convenience to the public and interfere less with other interests, the present lines of omnibusses included. This route, if agreeable to the Councils, would be entirely acceptable to the company. A route further back than Rampart street, would make it necessary for the track to cross Canal Caron[de]let, which would render it almost impossible for the cars to be run with that regularity and exactness which the public convenience would require and the interests of the company demand.

You have accompanying this petition, copies of the charter in French and English, together with a map of the localities through which the railway branch would run. All which is respectfully submitted.

By order of the Board,

DR. EDOUARD MARTIN'S
HYGIENIC ELIXIR,
AGAINST SEA-SICKNESS.

FOR a long time past the scientific world, medical men especially, appear to have been struck with the remarkable fact, that among the innumerable collection of curative agents discovered not one had been found to counteract or even mitigate the dreadful effects of sea-sickness. Several means have been tried to attain this end. These remedies, whether simple or compound, after many trials, have hitherto proved signal failures. An idea may be formed thereof by the perusal of the works of Pharmacy, Chemistry and Medicine—all concur [illegible].

The invention of the Hygienic Elixir has at length put an end to this [illegible] discovery. After numerous trials, voyages and alterations in the proportion of the substances composing this Elixir, he was enabled to offer it to travelers in the shape of a palatable draught, not decomposed or altered either by climate or age.

The Elixir checks sea sickness immediately, and restores the stomach to its healthy state. However delicate be the constitution of the person using it, it is equally tolerable, and procures a gentle feeling of ease and comfort. The nausea ceases, the languor, the [illegible] restored, the appetite awakened, and the digestion effected promptly under the influence of this Elixir.

The inventor having had an opportunity during a recent sea voyage, to prove the efficacy of his Elixir, has invited his friend to offer it to the public. He could produce the above statements, [illegible] by testimonials from several sea captains who [illegible] appear only to [illegible] the [illegible] and [illegible] the commander of the French Commercial Navy. Capt. Laborie having had an opportunity of testing, under his own immediate supervision, the efficacy of this remedy, (then in the shape of pills,) during several voyages, gives this testimonial:

Dear Doctor—During my last voyage to France, I have had opportunities of testing on divers persons your remedy against sea-sickness; I am happy to be enabled to report to you that I have observed the best results, and if it were possible to alter this remedy into a palatable draught, such as a lemonade of some kind, which could be more easily taken than in its present form, especially when the sea-sickness has already commenced, nothing more would be required, and you would be entitled to the everlasting gratitude of all those who are obliged to travel by sea, with a long accustomed therein.

I am yours truly,

Signed, A. LABORY, Cons't Ship l'Oscar.

The improvement suggested by Capt. Labory has been effected. The Tonic and Hygienic Elixir against sea sickness, is sold in four ounce bottles, with glass stoppers. Care must be taken to keep the bottles corked to prevent evaporation.

IN QUART BOTTLES.

For the removal and permanent cure of all diseases arising from an impure state of the blood, or habit of the system.

THE Sarsaparilla is combined with the most effectual and the most salutary productions, the most potent simples of the vegetable kingdom, and its unprecedented success in the restoration to health of those who had long pined under the most distressing chronic maladies, has given it an established character—furnishing, as it does, evidence of its own intrinsic value, and recommending it to the afflicted in terms which the afflicted only can know. It has long been a most important desideratum in the practice of medicine, to obtain a remedy similar to this—one that would act on the liver, stomach and bowels with all the precision and potency of mineral preparations, yet without any of their deleterious effects upon the vital powers of the system. Although possessed of powerful healing properties, it is entirely harmless, and will not injure the most delicate constitution. When in perfect health no effect is produced by its use, except an increase of appetite; but when disease is seated in the frame, and carrying fast its victim along the path of life, it kindles new life and vigor, and brings health and strength to the suffering and diseased.

SCROFULOUS AFFECTION OF THE EYES.

WINCHESTER, Ky., Oct. 29, 1849.

A. B. & D. Sands—Gentlemen, I would not have presumed to write to you, if it was not my duty to let the public know the almost miraculous effect your Sarsaparilla has had upon me. My limbs were covered with ulcerous sores, so that I could not walk during the whole Spring and Summer. In this situation I commenced the use of your Sarsaparilla, and after taking two bottles was entirely cured. I must also tell you of another wonderful cure. My brother was afflicted with this scrofula in his head, so bad his physician told him the loss of his sight was inevitable, and permanent blindness seemed to be his fate. Three bottles entirely restored his sight, and we cannot but recommend all similarly afflicted to use Sand's Sarsaparilla.

Yours truly, BENJAMIN F. BUCKNER.

ITS POPULARITY ABROAD.

FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

MARACAIBO, Venezuela, April 12th, 1849.

Messrs Sands—Gentlemen: I consider it a duty due the public to make known the great benefit I have received from using your valuable Sarsaparilla. About three years since I was attacked with Rheumatism in my shoulder, and also in my legs, and so severe was the pain that I was unable to sleep. I tried all of the best medicines I could hear of without receiving any benefit, until through the advice of a friend I procured some of your Sarsaparilla, and after using four bottles in the course of fifteen days, I found myself entirely well. I have no hesitation in saying your Sarsaparilla is the best medicine I ever took, and confidently recommend it to my friends and the public.

Your obedient servant,

INSTITUTIONS.

ORLEANS HIGH SCHOOL.

NO. 57 ESPLANADE STREET.

Erastus Everett, A. M.,
Principal and Proprietor.

THIS Institution, for the education of young gentlemen, was opened in April 1843, by Mr. EVERETT in company with other Professors, and soon secured for itself a place among the best Seminaries in the South.

The various branches of knowledge are taught by Mr. EVERETT and a corps of Assistant Professors selected with a view to good character, sound learning, and experience in teaching.

The course of study embraces the Grammar and Literature of the Greek, Latin, English, French and Spanish Languages; History, Geography, Rhetoric, Versification, Logic, Political Economy, Moral Philosophy, Book-keeping, Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, Trigonometry, Natural Philosophy, and Chemistry.

As the Modern Languages, (particularly the English and the French) and the higher Mathematics receive very special attention, the School offers singular advantages to boys designed for mercantile pursuits.

The English classes are taught by Mr. EVERETT solely, and he will give, as heretofore, all diligence in imparting to the Students of the School an accurate knowledge of the language of the land. To the higher classes is given, in connection with Rhetoric, a course of English and French Literature.

Prospectuses may be found at the Book Stores of Mr. LELIEVRE, Royal street, Mr. STEEL, 63 Camp street, Mr. WHITE, 31 Canal street, or at the High School, 57 Esplanade street.

ST. LOUIS' INSTITUTION.

DIRECTED BY MADAME DERON.

BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.

(Years 1850—'51.)

No. 115 St. Louis st., between Dauphine & Burgundy.

THIS Institution, founded nearly twelve years ago, combines every material, moral, and intellectual advantage. Madame Deron, formerly a pupil and governess in the "Institut de la Legion d'Honneur," (Maison St. Denis,) has founded her Seminary, as much as possible, on the model of that great establishment, as well as on the plan of the first Northern Academies.

The situation of St. Louis' Institution is one of the most agreeable and salubrious in town. The whole locality, including dormitories, class and study rooms, and play grounds, being very spacious and airy, and overlooking several gardens, is in so healthy a position, that, not a single pupil has experienced the least serious illness.

The plan of instruction both in French and English embraces all the literary and scientific branches of a finished education.

The study of English is the object of particular attention. Madame Deron is scrupulously careful that the creole Young Ladies should devote more time to the study of the English language and literature than to any other branch. Mr Orton, a professor well known in New Orleans, continues his course of lessons every day. Two English governesses residing in the establishment, preside over the elementary classes, and contribute to the progress of the pupils by the constant use of that language in all the relations of ordinary life.

With respect to the study of French, besides the lessons of able professors and governesses, M. and Madame Deron themselves instruct in the different branches, and are thus enabled by their personal efforts to insure the solidity and rapidity of the progress of their pupils.

The department of Music, including the piano harp and singing, is under the direction of Madame Lavillebeuvre, an excellent music mistress, who formerly gave lessons in St. Louis' Institution, and who is now especially attached to the establishment. This young and talented lady, so justly classed at the head of the artistic celebrities of Louisiana, secures to the study of Music in Madame Deron's Academy a marked superiority. No mistress can better join example to precept, and this is often the secret of the scholar's advancement. A musical examination taking place every month is intended to prove the rapid and brilliant progress of Madame Lavillebeuvre's pupils.

Religious and moral instruction, which is the basis of every really good education, has received greater developments than in any other Boarding School in the city. Madame Deron herself superintends the religious exercises of the Catholic pupils, and M. l'Abbe Tholomier prepares them for their first communion, and for confirmation by giving religious instruction several times every week in the Chapel of St. Louis' Institution. o4

ST. VINCENT'S COLLEGE,

CAPE GIRARDEAU, MO.

THIS College, incorporated by the Legislature of the State of Missouri, in 1843, with University privileges, is beautifully situated on the Mississippi, at Cape Girardeau, forty five miles above the mouth of the Ohio; it commands a noble view on each side of the river. Forty acres adjoining the College have been provided for its use, and, one mile and a half from the town, an extensive farm, where the pupils may spend their days of recreation.

Dr. Ed. Martin's Vermifuge Syrup.

Without any disagreeable Taste or Smell.

THE Medal Awarded. (Exposition des Produits de l'Industrie. Class X. Dec and [illegible] Class XIII. Ordre II. Medaille) [illegible]

[illegible] of the most remarkable [illegible] the root of which for some time past has been, by a few persons, justly reputed the best vermifuge known, supplied with the principal agent in the above named remedy.

Having sought, with the greatest care, in the bark of the root of this tree, the active principle which produces such excellent results in verminous affections of children, we have succeeded in extracting it in its purest state and by combining it with other tonic substances, which are also indigenous to Louisiana, have arrived at composing the above VERMIFUGE SYRUP, the efficacy of which is now beyond the shadow of a doubt.

This Syrup, of an agreeable flavor, can be administered without the slightest apprehension to the most delicate children. Its use continued during three days, the doses being given at shorter intervals as the child may be older and stronger, will infailibly expulse all those intestinal worms which are the source of so many diseases, dangerous and often fatal to children.

Some mothers, rendered timorous by the frightful result of the various vermifuges hitherto employed, have given it to their children, but in doses extremely small; this has, in such cases, rendered the effect incomplete, and might have injured the standing of this remedy, had not several of our most experienced practitioners, by judiciously prescribing it and regulating the doses adapted to the different ages tested and established its excellent virtues.

To avoid debilitating the little patients by too severe a diet, we have modified the doses originally prescribed, in the following manner:

Children 2 to 5 years old, three tea spoonfulls a day, at an interval of from 1 to 2 hours. Above five years old, three table spoonfulls at the same intervals. No nourishment to be given between the first and third dose, nor within an hour after the third.

The Syrup must be administered during three consecutive days. Composed entirely of vegetable extracts, this Vermifuge does not produce any of the pernicious effects which have often followed the use of those hitherto in use.

TRICOPHEROUS, OR MEDICATED COMPOUND, FOR RESTORING, PRESERVING, AND BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, eradicating scurf and dandruff, and curing diseases of the skin, glands and muscles, stings, cuts, bruises, sprains, &c., &c. It has been ascertained by experiment that Barry's Tricopherous has produced the same effect in curing diseases of the skin, &c., of the horse and all the animal kingdom. The following testimonials, selected from hundreds of similar import, will serve to show the value of the preparation, and the estimation in which it is held by those who have given it a trial.

New York, Sept. 22, 1850.

PROF. BARRY—Dear Sir:—I have been affected with a cutaneous eruption of the scalp, of a most aggravated character, for the last sixteen years, and during that period have had the advice of some of the most eminent physicians, and have tried all the preparations for the hair and skin now known, without the least benefit. I was advised by a friend to try your Tricopherous. I did so, as a last resort, and to my surprise and gratification, found myself cured in about two months. Such was the violence of the disorder that at times I was partially blind.

Respectfully yours,

G. V. M. RAPELYE, 140 Columbia street, Brooklyn.

New York, Oct. 23, 1850.

PROF. BARRY—My Dear Sir.—About two years ago my hair came out in great deal, and my head was much affected with dandruff. I was told by a friend to try your Tricopherous, and I did so, and to my astonishment my hair was firmly rooted, and all the dandruff disappeared, as the head now shows for itself. With respect, I am your ob't serv't.

J. S. TREDWELL, 6–3 Broadway.

If any lady or gentleman doubts the authenticity of the above, they will please call at Professor A. C. Barry's Office, No. 137 Broadway, New York, where he will produce the original letters.

(From the Military and Naval Argus, Nov. 9, 1850.)

There is no remedy for the permanent cure of bald ness and diseases of the cranium generally, it has reached the popularity enjoyed by the article known as Professor Barry's Tricopherous, or Medicated Compound. It is extensively used by the upper classes of the community; in almost every nursery in the land it is used in preference to other articles of the kind. It imparts vigor to the roots of the hair, and thus promotes its growth to a remarkable degree. It destroys the dandruff and scurf, and yields the hair fine and glossy. It will cure all diseases of the scalp, such as scald head, dew worm, and other obnoxious disorders of the skin; in cheapness as well as efficacy, it stands unrivalled. It is sold in large bottles, price 25 cents at No. 137 Broadway and at the Druggists generally throughout the United States and Canadas. le12 3m
