J. R. PUTNAM, DENTIST,

RESPECTFULLY informs the public that he has removed to the house recently occupied by Dr. Ker, at the corner of Canal and Royal streets, over the Post Office, (entrance No. 6, Royal street,) where he may be found from 9 o'clock, A. M. until 5 P. M., ready to attend to the duties of his profession, and where he invites those who wish to employ or consult him to call, as it is impossible for him to leave his rooms during those hours, except in cases of indisposition. He has rooms for the accommodation of his visiters, separate and distinct from his family apartments, where they can be entirely private during the performance of an operation, or whilst waiting for his services, should he be at the time engaged. His charges will be such as are sanctioned by the usages of his profession and will not be deviated from except for persons of limited means, or where families are to be attended to, then a reasonable deduction will be made. As he has no assistant in his business, and as it is expected that he will be found always in his rooms, it must be obvious to all, that it is impossible for him to keep books and attend personally to the collection of his bills; he therefore respectfully solicits those who receive his services to make settlement at the time, or attend to it as soon as convenient to themselves, as he has given offence to some by presenting accounts through another person employed for that purpose. It is expected that punctuality will be strictly observed where positive engagements are made, or an excuse furnished in time, as a neglect to do this may subject others who have made engagements to disappointment and him to loss and inconvenience. Those indebted for services rendered during the last season, will oblige him by calling and paying their bills. nov 27

[illegible] HOURS

TERMS REDUCED TO ONE HALF,

And positively limited to the 28th of April for receiving new pupils!

W. C. DUHERTIS, finishing writing master and teacher of short hand in six lessons, Academy 43 Camp st. corner of Gravier street, New Orleans. Such as you, ladies and gentlemen, who have not hitherto applied, and are desirous of following the good example of many of your talented neighbors, that is, of becoming elegant and finished writers in the short course of six lessons, or six hours—are respectfully invited to make immediate application. Short hand taught in six lessons.

☞ With an express desire of having my terms come within the reach of almost every person who should feel anxious to avail themselves of my instruction, I have for that purpose reduced the usual charge of $17 50 to $ 875 for the remainder of my stay as above specified. Thus, it is presumed, that those who are disposed to become fine writers, will regard this as a most propitious opportunity, because high terms and a repetition of those systems of "Auld Lang Syne," are not to be considered, by any means, as prevailing obstacles in the attainment of splendid penmanship. W. C. D.

Respected Pupils:—The day being now nearly arrived which I have fixed for my departure, I would express the pleasure of appearing among you again but that my intended return to London deprives me of that honor; and thither shall I carry, and ever cherish in my bosom, the deep sense I at present entertain of the gratitude and popularity given me, and every other testimony of respect by a discerning public. For me to express my feelings now on the occasion, would only tend to alloy by an estimate of the manner in which I could describe. In the words of the Psalmist it is said that 'out of the fulness of the heart the mouth speaketh,' but the fulness of the heart under which I labor, only places a seal upon my lips. Meantime, I pray you, ladies and gentlemen, to accept the assurances of my most sincere esteem and respect, and believe me, Your faithful servant,

WM. C. DUHERTIS.

☞ Pupils received day and evening. Ladies on their respective days as usual.

☞ All bills charged to my account, I hereby give notice to have them presented at my office, corner of Camp and Gravier sts, previous to the 28th April, that the same may be discharged accordingly. april 8 W. C. D.
