EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
Baton Rouge, Feb. 5th, 1852.

To the Senate:

I here with enclose a Petition from the jurors who sat upon the trial of Juan Romero, who was convicted of manslaughter before the 1st District Court of New Orleans. It will be seen that they were of opinion that his case was a peculiarly hard one, and in their verdict, did but conform to the strict letter of the law.

If the Senate consents, I will grant a pardon to the said Juan Romero.

I also transmit to you a Petition from the members of the Bar of the 10th Judicial District, asking for the exercise of the executive clemency, in the case of a slave, named Jerry, who was convicted before the proper tribunal, upon a charge of murder and sentenced to be hung. His sentence was commuted to imprisonment at hard labor in the Penitentiary.

By the representations in the Petition, it will be seen that the killing in this case was purely accidental. Therefore, if the Senate consents, I will grant a pardon to the slave Jerry.

JOSEPH WALKER.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
Baton Rouge, Feb. 5th, 1852.

To the Senate:

James Walker alias Dr. Hynes, was convicted by the Criminal Court of New Orleans on the 22d of August, 1840, to four teen years imprisonment in the Penitentiary, upon a charge of aiding the escape of a slave. He has but two years yet to serve. Numerous applications have been made to me for the exercise of executive clemency in his behalf. His health is such that longer confinement must prove fatal.

I also transmit to you the papers in the case of P. A. Dubord, who was sentenced to seven years imprisonment for inveigling a slave. He has been strongly recommended to me for pardon, and if the Senate advises and consents, I will grant a pardon in the above named cases.
