Washington City, June ..., ...

Sir:—Considering a good hand writing to be not only an accomplishment, but a means of success to every man engaged in business, I greatly applaud your meritorious exertions to improve the ... graphy of the age. A gentleman or lady either, who writes badly, never writes willingly; and consequently, often fail to write when they should; and when they do write, it is done at the last moment, with haste and ... and consequently with faults of all kinds, often ... omitting and injuring both the writer and the cause which he advocates. Wishing you every success in your laudable undertakings,

I remain yours, respectfully, THOS. H. BENTON.

Columbia, Tenn., Nov. 20, 1843.

From the Rt. Rev. Bishop Otey.—Mr. J. W. Dolbear—Dear Sir: I have been much interested and pleased in examining your system of Penmanship, and as far as I am capable of forming an intelligent judgment upon the subject, give it my hearty approval. Your method of teaching seems to me to be both skilful and faithful, and the improvement of your pupils is surprising and rapid beyond any thing I have ever witnessed. I shall feel happy if this testimony to your merits shall lead others to avail themselves of your ... one of the most beautiful ... respectfully yours, etc.

MUTUAL INSURANCE.

THE General Mutual Insurance Company of New York having assumed and taken over the unexpired risks of the Ocean Mutual Insurance Company of this city (which Company has gone into liquidation), are prepared to insure against Fire, River and Marine Risks at the late office of the Ocean Insurance Company, No 45 Camp street, on the most favorable terms.

The "General Mutual Insurance Company" have a large capital well invested; they have paid back to the persons who have insured with them 22 per cent of the premiums during the past three years, in script, bearing six per cent interest, payable annually; and as the business of the Company is conducted altogether on the mutual principle—that is, dividing among those who pay the premiums the entire profits of the office—as large a dividend as is paid by any other mutual office may be confidently expected from their future operations.

This Company offers the additional advantage to those who insure with them, of paying their losses either in New York or New Orleans, at the option of the assured.
