D. 1848, the following described Property, belonging to the succession of said deceased. The sale to commence at 10 o'clock, A. M.,

The Tract of Land or Plantation, whereon the deceased resided, having a front of twenty arpents more or less on the river Mississippi, with eighty arpents in depth, bounded above by lands of the late Josiah Barker, now owned by Rouzan & Milne, and below by those of Gilbert Daigre,—on this tract there are some four hundred acres cleared and fit for cultivation; the rest is heavily and valuably timbered, and is susceptible of being made one of the best sugar plantations in this parish.

There is a suit now pending in the Circuit Court of the United States by the heirs of one James Fletcher, who claims the undivided three fourths of this plantation. Those wishing to become purchasers, are required to examine for themselves the nature of said claim, and after the sale will take the defence thereof.

Another Tract of Land, situated on Ward's Creek, bounded North by the lines of Smith, on the South by De Passau, West by Kleinpeter, and East by Gurley and Thomas, containing four hundred and twenty arpents.

Crockery Manufactory.

THE Crockery factory at Mandeville has just been completed, and is now prepared to execute and deliver at very moderate prices all commissions which the public may entrust to the proprietors.

In consequence of a clay of superior quality, a collection of the most skillful workmen in Louisiana, and the extreme care and attention bestowed upon all the details of the establishment, the products of the factory at Mandeville surpass in every respect those of other establishments—as well in the fineness of the grain, the solidity and strength of the paste, and the beauty of the varnish; they are particularly remarkable for the elegance and taste of the patterns—a merit hitherto too often overlooked in this department of industry.

The directors of the establishment are prepared to fill the most extensive and varied orders. To gardeners and horticulturists they offer every variety of flower pots, and some of a quality hitherto unknown, together with vases of antique form, italian do., and the most select and beautiful patterns. To families they offer every species of culinary and household utensil,—all resisting the action of fire. Finally, to architects they tender a large collection of articles necessary for building and ornament, such as slabs, enamelled squares, parisian lamps for drawing rooms, centre tables, &c. &c. &c.

Apply to Messrs. de la Bretonne & Co., at Mandeville, La., or the warehouse, in New Orleans, at the old Basin. oct9
