FOR MAYOR,
A. D. CROSSMAN.

The Newspaper Mail arrived yesterday from beyond Carrollton.

The Telegraph.—A dispatch from Mobile, dated the 28th, announces the arrival of the mail yesterday with dates from New York to the 15th. The steamer had not arrived. It is rumored, however, that the steamer's news has been received by some of the express. [illegible]

Mexican News.

Toward the city papers, the Delta and Courier contain voluminous details of the intelligence received by the steamship New Orleans. The advices from the city of Mexico, extend to the 21st inst., inclusive, and besides a variety of miscellaneous matter, contain copious extracts of the proceedings in the Court of Inquiry on Gen. Scott, Pillow and Col. Duncan. We will endeavor to give the most important features of the investigation in a condensed form.

The Court assembled at the National Palace, on the 15th March. Members were also Gen. Twiggs, Gen. Worth, Gen. Pillow, Col. Duncan, Gen. Caleb Cushing, Col. W. B. Campbell, Right Judge Atocha, Col. Cosio, and Col. Lemus, [illegible] Gen. Scott, who was present, [illegible] Gen. Pillow, who was absent
