CONTINUES to relieve the most violent Toothache in one minute, and at the same time fastening the decayed tooth, so that it will last 20 years, or more in the jaw. The public should be aware, however that this Antalgic is not to be confounded with other nostrums, where a physician is in constant attendance. The method of tendering his services Doctor Watson has taken, he thinks is very well known to the public, and that they become unwearied, much as a bore will be to apply to. They do not wish to mention it to their friends, and will know that such physicians are almost entirely strangers to the practice among laymen have neither no experience in the management of dental disease. Doctor Watson has so frequently been informed by patients themselves how much pleased they were to have found a dentist, that in no manner is any doubt how useful it is to advertise the public in this manner, at what place they may find a physician to undertake the treatment of the disease they suffer from, who has had long experience and study, has made himself master of it, as well as by attending to no other practice

Doctor Watson has had to call upon him three night or nine years past a great many on whom a "definite" of a "particular" kind had been bought, and have been cured. Question.—What these causes are is best known to patients themselves, and what is the debility alluded to, whether a want of sufficient vigor, or excess of indulgence, or some other conditions of the parts. But it is enough to mention that whatever the cause may be, or whatever the effect produced, the help there is to be obtained, will cure him the confidence of his patients.

The officers very conveniently situated, having separate entrances, and being so arranged that patients never meet one another—in fact, as much secrecy may be observed as the case requires, and as the confidence due to a gentleman to the doctor himself, there need not any thing be said of that

IN CHANCERY—At Jackson, Tennessee April Rule, 1843—Ferdinand E Swansbury, by his guardian E A Ferguson, complainant, vs. (original bill) Spurel Hale, Henderson Clark and Thomas Nash, defendants.

The system of complainant and it appearing to the Clerk and Master, that the defendant, Hale, is a non resident of this State; and that he resides in the city of New Orleans, La; so that the ordinary process of this court cannot be served upon him. Therefore it is ordered by the Clerk and Master, that publication be made for three successive weeks in the New Orleans Bee, a newspaper published in the city of New-Orleans, La; so that said defendant, Hale, be compelled to appear at the next Term of the Chancery Court, to be held at the Courthouse, in the town of Trenton, Tennessee, on the 3d Monday in September next, and answer complainant's bill, or the same will be taken pro confesso, and set for hearing ex parte as to said Hale

Test, JNO. C. CLAIBORNE, C & M

Bill charges—That on the 7th December, 1836, said Hale was appointed by the County Court of Dyer county, guardian of Sarah Saunders' four minor children, and as such guardian, he got into his hands the penal sum of $16,000 for the faithful discharge of the duties of such guardian with said Clark and Nash, his sureties, and that said Hale absconded from the state of Tennessee, and has not been heard of since March, 1842—that said Hale never made any account of the property and effects of said ward, but has been repeatedly called upon to shew the annual accounts of said estate, for his disbursements, but said Hale pretended to have left Dyer county, Tenn, with the funds of his wards, and took them off of the state of Tennessee, and that there is a large sum of money due complainant, and the said Hale, upon account prayed to be taken.
