LEONARD'S FRENCH CHEMICAL
Blacking.
THE subscriber announces to the public, that he intends to remain in New Orleans only one month longer. One of the most useful discoveries that has been made for nourishing, polishing and preserving all kinds of boot, shoe and harness leather, and most deserving the attention of the public, is certainly the Royal Blacking, (lousant royal.) The various compositions now in use for polishing harness, boots and shoes, have long been complained of; they cause the leather to crack and become reddish, by reason of the adulterate of vitriol, spirits of wine and vinegar, in their preparation, the undersigned has, however, been so fortunate as to discover a process, that will supercede those rather expensive compositions; which not only possesses the virtue of preserving leather, but giving it the most brilliant black, and its utility is already known, particularly in France, (where Mr. L. supplied five jars to the Royal family) in England, Germany and through the United States, it has been approved of by the most eminent professors of Chemistry, who are now using it, from whom he has received about 1000 certificates. To prevent all imposition, he does not intend to open any depot, but all orders addressed to him before the 25th of March next, at the corner of Hospital and Levee streets, No 2, New York Coffee House, will be punctually attended to. A large box containing a sufficient quantity for blacking shoes and boots for a whole year, $3; do for carriage harness, $3.

SCHOOL FOR PISTOL SHOOTING—Ch. Andrieux, professor and inventor of a sure method for shooting perfectly well with pistol, gun or rifle, after having given his lessons during seven years in New York and Philadelphia, where the excellence of his method has been universally acknowledged, as well on account of the short time required to learn it; as for the advantages it offers of not being forgotten by want of practice, has the honor of informing the public that he has established in this city a school for pistol shooting. He pledges himself to his pupils to bring them to that perfection after 8 or 10 lessons, if not, he asks no compensation. The price of lessons is $30; for shooting 30 balls $1. Each pupil will pay besides $1 for each doll he will break at the shooting gallery. Persons who have but a few days to stay in the city, and are desirous to take lessons, are at liberty to do so.
