COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE BEE,
FRIDAY EVENING, January 6, 1860.

As some days the holiday events, our journal market has exhibited but a moderate degree of animation, [illegible] the past week, but with limited supplies and the usual [illegible] of an animation on the Western rivers, prices for most descriptions of Western Produce have advanced. In Cotton, Tobacco and Sugar we have noticed but few sales, while Molasses sold at higher rates. Provisions have been dearer, while some descriptions of Exchange have further declined.

On Monday evening we published the Canada accounts, which showed a decline of 1-16 to 1-8 on Cotton, and a decline of 1-8 on Tobacco, while the accounts from Manchester were decidedly unfavorable.

COTTON—Arrived since the 30th ultimo, 60,862 bales, Cleared in the same time for Liverpool 16,537 bales, Glasgow 1002, Fleetwood 403, Havre 4314, Bremen 2932, Ghent 1216, Santander 7th, Genoa 6th, Barcelona 2d, Leghorn 2d, Trieste 8th, and Philadelphia 16 bales; together, 6,015 bales, making 22 additions to the stock of 76,877 bales, and leaving on hand, including 34,441 on shipboard not cleared this day, a stock of 338,320 bales.

Fine Red Stemmed to Common	3½ @ 4½
Fine Red Stemmed to Common	4½ @ 5½
Fine	5- @ 6-
Fine	6- @ 7-
Choice Fine Selected	7- @ 8-

SUGAR—The receipts have been very light, and the demand for Sugar has ruled full prices, with sales during the week of twenty-five hhds, most of the latter number for the trade, and at the close we hear of no more for the trade but for small lots, and dropping, and we notice our quotations as follows:

Inferior	3½ @ 3¾
Common	3¾ @ 4-
Fair to Fully Fair	4- @ 4½
Prime and Choice	4½ @ 4¾
Centrifugal, not of Refined	4- @ 4½

MOLASSES—There has been a good demand for Molasses, and improved prices have ruled, with the bulk of the sales transacted at the week. The sales have amounted to 1,800 bbls, at a range of 20@22c. for inferior, 23@24c. for fair, 25@26c. for prime, and at 27c. and upwards for prime to choice, with some fancy lots held at 28@30c. If prime, according to the quality.

FLOUR—With advices from the West that inclines to have suspended, limited business has been done at prices ranging from 5 to 10c. per barrel, for superfine, 50c. per barrel for extra, and 75c. per barrel for family, with the bulk of the sales at the lower figure, the market closing at $4@4.25 for superfine, $4.50@4.75 for extra, and $5@5.25 for family, but concessions to close, the market closing at $4@4.25 for superfine, $4.50 for extra, and $5@5.25 for family brands, the demand latterly being pretty fully supplied.

WHEAT—There have been no receipts of any importance for some time past, and we have heard of no sales—nominal prices prevail.

CORN—There has been a good demand for Corn for a portion of the week, but at reduced prices, some 20,000 bushels prime yellow, The sales have amounted to some 70,000 bushels, for good to prime, the largest sales being at the lower figure for good white, and for good yellow, the range latterly has been from 65c. to 70c. for good to prime.

OATS—Prices have further advanced, and 2000 bushels sold at 38c. Cleared, 1000 bushels to St. Louis, and 1000 bushels to Mobile, the latter at 38c. We quote at 38@40c., though the market, from force of the adverse rate for prime.

BRAN—The demand has been quite active, owing to Regular supplies, and the sales have amounted to some 2000 bales Western during the week, at 60c. and 65c.

PORK—Prime has considerably advanced, and with an improved demand, some 1000 barrels have been sold, including the week mostly at $18 for old, and 50c. per bbl. for new, and at the close we hear of sales at $19 and $19 per bbl. The old, the close holders have held for $19 per bbl. Mess is also higher, and we hear of sales at $19 per bbl. The old bulk pieces have sold at 12c. and the new at 12½@13c.

HAM—The demand has been active, and the sales of the week have embraced some 300 hhds, small lots of Shoulders fetching 8½@9c., Ribbed Sides 10@10½c. and Clear Sides 12@12½c. Prime sugar-cured Hams sold in small parcels at 14@15c.

GREEN MEATS—We have noticed sales of about 100,000 during the week at 8½@9c. for Shoulders and Sides, and 9½@10c. for Hams.

LARD—The market has been quiet, and we have heard of no sales of any moment, the last quotations of 10@10½c. for prime to 11@11½c. for fancy.

BUTTER AND CHEESE—Western Butter has been selling at 16@18c., and Cheese at 9@10½c.

BAGGING AND BALE ROPE—Prices for Kentucky Bagging of 1½ and 1¾ yards have ruled from 8½@9c., and for Bale Rope at 5½@6c. cash, with sales of the latter for the week at 5½@5¾c.

GUNNY BAGS—The last sales reported were at 11½@12c. for heavy bags, and some 10c. and 10½c. for light.

COFFEE—The market has ruled quiet, and the sales of the week have embraced some 1000 bags Rio, at 10½@10¾c. for ordinary to prime quality, and 11@11½c. for fine, and some 500 bags Laguayra, at 11@11½c. for fair to fine, and 11½c. for prime. We quote Rio at 10@11½c. and Laguayra at 11@11½c.
