STATE OF LOUISIANA.

Thirteenth Legislature, Second Session,

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Wednesday, 24 January 1838.

The House met agreeably to adjournment.

The members from St. Tammany, Mr McDonald filed the following resolutions; to wit:

Whereas, on divers times and occasions, efforts have been made in the Senate of Congress by the representatives from the several states to disturb the peace and harmony of these United States, by agitating the question of slavery in the southern portion of the union; and whereas we hold all attempts of this kind and interference with matters which exclusively belong to local legislation, and therefore not within the constitutional powers of Congress, and whereas we believe the tendency of these efforts to go to destroy the vested rights of the citizens of the southern portion of these United States, and it perverts the intention of the dissolution of the union and a determination of a proposal form of government, and whereas on a late occasion a portion of the representatives of the southern and slave-holding states chose rather to leave their seats in Congress and retire in a body than to hear and listen to the base and calumnious attacks made on the character and institutions of the states which they represented, or listen to charges false in their nature and insulting and dangerous in their tendency to the common welfare.

Sec. 1. Be it resolved, &c. That we cordially approve of the course pursued by the southern delegation in Congress, in which they have manifested a firm and dignified and wise energy, to resist by all constitutional means any attempt which may be made to abolish or carry the slave question in the Senate of Congress, and be it further resolved, &c. That the thanks of this body be presented to that portion of the southern delegation who have shown a firm and wise energy in resisting the insult and outrage of our rights and institutions, and be it further resolved, &c. That the thanks of this body be presented to that portion of the southern delegation who have shown a firm and wise energy in resisting the insult and outrage of our rights and institutions, and be it further resolved, &c. That the thanks of this body be presented to that portion of the southern delegation who have shown a firm and wise energy in resisting the insult and outrage of our rights and institutions of the states which they represented, or listen to charges false in their nature and insulting and dangerous in their tendency to the common welfare.
