FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,
HENRY CLAY.

NEW-ORLEANS:
FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 20, 1843.

☞ The Mobile boat having on board the Eastern mail had not arrived at a late hour last night. The boat is no doubt aground.

The Courier doesn't undertake the defence of Mr. DORSEY. Oh! no! not at all. Mr. DORSEY has removed good Van Buren democrats and cannot expect to be vindicated in the columns of the Courier. But the locofoco organ assumes a sort of quasi extenuation of the proscriptive conduct of the collector, by declaring that the policy of removals for opinion's sake was commenced by JOHN Q. ADAMS, and was continued by democratic administrations "in self-defence." It so happened that our neighbor is altogether incorrect in this part of his statement. The administration of Mr. ADAMS, in respect to the appointments of public officers was exceedingly mild and tolerant—too much so in fact, for he left in office a vast number of violent political opponents, whose brawling enmity and energetic exertions contributed materially to his defeat and to the election of ANDREW JACKSON. When that bold chieftain was exalted to the head of the government, then for the first time was promulgated and put in practice the infamous maxim "to the victors belong the spoils"—a maxim uttered by an infuriated partizan and announced as the policy of a democratic administration. Then it was that the Adams men fell by scores, until scarcely in the broad extent of the land was there left a solitary opponent of Jacksonism in public office, as a shining mark of the clemency of the government. What JACKSON began, VAN BUREN continued, until in 1840, the sight of a whig holding office under a locofoco administration was as rare as a unicorn or a black swan.

The locofoco executive of Louisiana fully understands the strength of this policy, and has accordingly exercised it with unsparing and remorseless severity.

With respect to Mr. MORGAN, the late collector, it is sufficient refutation of the baseless charges of the Courier to observe that the very individuals recently removed by GREENBURY DORSEY, were for the most part thorough-going locofocos whom Mr. MORGAN retained in office, because they performed their duties faithfully and abstained from intermeddling in elections; and it is furthermore worthy of remark, that with regard to the subordinate offices of the Customhouse, Mr. MORGAN left them in nearly precisely the same situation as he found them.

But we do not complain so much of Mr. DORSEY'S removals, as we do of the indecent and brutal manner in which his intentions were publicly proclaimed. We speak of the placard posted on the walls of the Custom-house as an outrage upon the feelings of every gentleman holding office in that department of the government. Moreover, Mr. DORSEY displaced competent individuals and filled their places with incompetent bunglers. This is a just subject of complaint. The public have a right to expect, let office be enjoyed by whig or locofoco, that they should receive the usual facilities in the transaction of business, and not be impeded and retarded by ignorance and unskilfulness.

The Courier misunderstands us in supposing that when we had declared our inability to obtain the clearances, we meant simply the list of vessels that had cleared. This of course we obtained and did not copy them from the Courier; nor are we in the habit of referring to that journal for any thing connected with the maritime or commercial department of our paper.—When we mentioned the impossibility of obtaining the clearances, we, of course, included the exports, which were not only, perforce, omitted by us, but by the Courier of Wednesday evening and by every morning paper yesterday.

It is a well known fact that two-thirds of the number lately employed in the Custom-House, were almost strangers to our State, and were unknown to the present incumbent.

Mr. Dorsey had reason to believe that a few of the persons employed in the Custom-House were disqualified for the stations they filled. To avoid the pain of personal explications, he has given them warning in a way to save their reputation—that is all.—Republican.

We are not surprised that a paper as ingenious and able as the Republican should be compelled to resort to such impotent and lame excuses, in order to shield Mr. DORSEY from the indignation which his official despotism has inspired in the mind of nearly every member of the community. It is not a well known fact that two-thirds of the number lately employed in the Custom-house, were almost strangers to our State. On the contrary, a large majority of the incumbents were Creoles, gentlemen born and bred in our midst, and well known to the mercantile classes and to the citizens generally.

The second paragraph of the Republican's article is altogether inapplicable to the case in point. It so happens that the officers who have been deprived of their places by the wanton tyranny of the Collector, are precisely those, who, so far from being disqualified for the stations they had filled, had occupied those very stations many years, under various mutations of party, had fulfilled their duties with eminent ability and given universal satisfaction. They were gentlemen of fixed political principles—most of them belonging to the democratic party, yet, so free from the slighest cause of reproach had been their conduct, that they were left undisturbed by the late Collector, Judge MORGAN, who with every desire to gratify his friends and subserve his political principles, could not consent to displace worthy and efficient functionaries solely because they differed from him in their political view of the nature and duties of the General Government.

We need no better evidence of the feeling with which the editor of the Republican must have read the imperial ukase placarded on the walls of the Custom-House, than the fact, that though devoted to Mr. TYLER, these gentlemen had not a syllable to say on the subject on Wednesday morning, when almost every other journal in the city noticed the insulting proclamation only to condemn it.

☞ When the locofoco party were in the majority in the Georgia legislature, they got up a set of personally and politically offensive resolutions instructing JOHN M. BERRIEN, whig U. S. senator, to do their behests, or resign. Mr. BERRIEN rightly believing that he had been elected for the constitutional term of six years, and holding, in common with the whig party, the doctrine of instruction in abhorrence, as entirely adverse to the spirit of the constitution, paid no attention to the bidding of the locofoco pack. Now the tables are reversed and the whigs have both branches of the Georgia legislature. We wonder how WALTER C. COLQUITT—that immaculate, consistent and pure-minded democrat—would relish instructions to support a national bank, a tariff and all the other so called fed ral whig abominations? His party believe in instruction—or rather profess to believe in it. Would he obey or resign? Neither we fancy; though he will not be put to the test, as the whigs of Georgia, like the whigs elsewhere, have no idea of making slavish tools of their representative, and spurn the servile doctrine of instruction.

CHARITY HOSPITAL.

Report for the twenty-four hours ending at 7 o'clock last evening.

" of Yellow Fever	10

THE HEALTH of Franklin, says the Banner of the 14th, continues perfectly good. We regret to hear of a number of cases of Fever in different parts of the Parish. There is not, however, so much sickness in the Parish as in other sections of the State. Sickness prevails to an unusual extent in Lafourche, and in St. Martin and Lafayette. Indeed there are complaints of ill-health from all quarters. In Lafourche the prevailing disease is bilious fever, which in many cases takes the congestive form.

GREAT PEYTON STAKE.

The Great Peyton Stake for 4 year olds, thirty subscribers at $5,000. $1,000 forfeit, 4 mile heats came off at Nashville, Tenn. on the 10th inst. only four of the thirty nominations came to the post. The result was as unexpected, as it is gratifying to us, as the victor is the property of an estimable and worthy individual of this city. The value of the stake is estimated at about $35,000—viz: The 4 which contended for the stake $20,000 each, $20,000—15 forfeits, $1,000 each, $15,000. The other 11 nominations were made void either by the decease of the owners, or of the entries.

The following is the result:—

James Kirkman's of Lu., produce of Eliza by Rubens and Imp. Glencoe,	4 1 1 1.
Col. Wade Hampton's, produce of Imp. Delphine, by Whisker and Plenipotentiary,	[illegible] 2.
Alex. Barrow's produce of Lilac by Imp. Leviathan and Imp. Sky-Lark,	1 2 3 3.
Peyton and Chalmer's produce of Black Maria, by Eclipse and Imp. Luzborough,	2 3 4 0.

☞ It is mentioned in the National Intelligencer, that a private note from Mr. Cushing, dated at Gibraltar, the 31st of August, states that the loss of the Missouri would not delay the time of his arrival at Bombay, as he would proceed up the Mediterranean for Alexandria in the British steam packet of the 7th September.

FROM YUCATAN.—By the brig Empresario, Captain Collins, arrived yesterday from Campeachy, we have news up to the 10th inst.

The Commissioners sent to Mexico for the purpose of entering into a treaty of peace and amity with that government, had not yet returned.

It was thought that another war between the two countries would be inevitable, as quite a belligerent feeling had begun to manifest itself among the Yucatecos, in consequence of the tardy movements of the Mexican government in relation to the proposed treaty,—which had been increased by a late proclamation from the Mexican government, closing the port of Laguna against all vessels belonging to Yucatan.

The Empresario reports a vessel ashore on the Alleranas—supposed to be a brig.

IMPORTANT FROM MEXICO.

We alluded some days since to a misunderstanding which had arisen between the diplomatic agents of Great Britain and the Mexican Government; but had not deemed it a subject of serious consequence, until yesterday, when we were kindly allowed to copy an extract of a letter received in this city, dated Mexico, September 29th, and forwarded via Havana, by the British steam ship Seecrn. It communicates the following intelligence of startling import:

"MEXICO, Sept. 29th, 1843.

"P. S.—We regret to inform you that from some misunderstanding which has arisen between H. B. M. Mission and the Government, Mr. DOYLE, H. B. M's. Chargé, d'Affaires, has suspended all diplomatic intercourse with Mexico, until he receives instructions from his Government."

☞ We are indebted to the clerk of the new steamboat Talma for late Louisville papers.

TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE.—After a long debate, a law has passed both Houses fixing the seat of Government at NASHVILLE. It passed the House by a vote of 50 to 23; and the Senate by 18 to 5.

BREACH OF PROMISE.—At a late term of the Posey Circuit Court, Indiana, in the case of Rosella Fearing ex. Frederick Bishop, for a breach of promise of marriage, the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff of $1,000 damages.

AN UNLUCKY COMMANDER.—Captain NEWTON, the commander of the Missouri, a New York paper says, is familiarly known as "Jack Newton," and was always an unlucky fellow. He was in command of the old war steamer, the Fulton, that blew up at the Brooklyn Navy Yard some years ago; and afterwards a vessel under his charge was wrecked, or nearly so.

DISTRESSING CASUALTY.—The St. Martinsville Gazette of the 11th instant, says: On Thursday last Mr. JULES G. FUSELIER, a planter of this parish, was thrown from his horse on a china tree, and so severely injured that he died in a couple of hours after the accident. Mr. F. has left a young wife and children to mourn his untimely loss. His funeral, says the Gazette, took place yesterday, and was attended by a numerous and respectable body of citizens, and the company of Light Infantry, of which he was a member.

OHIO ELECTION.—The Cincinnati Gazette of the 12th inst., has the following item of intelligence concerning the election in that State:

"The whole number of votes polled in the city yesterday was 6,793, being a decrease of 173 on the election of last fall.

"We learn, generally, that there has been a falling off in the aggregate vote in the country, from last year. In to-morrow's paper, we will probably be able to say whether the Independent Democrats or the Locofocos have beaten.

"P. S.—From returns in when we went to press, (10 o'clock,) there is no doubt of the election of the entire Duncan ticket by several hundred majority."

NASHVILLE, Oct. 4.

A SPECK OF REVOLUTION.—A debate sprung up on the Senate yesterday on a resolution to bring on the election of United States Senators in the usual mode. Mr. LAUGHLIN of Warren, the leader of the "Thirteen" in the last Senate, embraced the occasion to throw out a threat, (it can be viewed in no other light, notwithstanding his disclaimer,) that unless a law first be passed, the election of Senators might be attended with the same embarrassing circumstances as that attended the question two years ago.

Mr. NELSON of Knox and Mr. CULLOM of Smith, promptly threw back the menace—treating it as a "sorte to cover the retreat of the member from Warren," and reminding that member of his return, that the rule of the majority had been restored by the People, and would be firmly maintained by their Representatives.

The following from the Franklin Planters' Banner, is no doubt what it purports to be—a fish story:

AN ODD FISH.—Mr. Alphonse Carlin, a gentleman of this parish, who is fond of adventure, informs us that a few weeks since, when on a sea-shore excursion, towards the river Sabine, in company with two or three other persons, he captured a fish of a very extraordinary species. It was of a flat shape, about 11 feet long, with a tail something like that of an ox; about 15 feet in width, with large fins, which it used like wings, and a mouth of a curved shape, about three feet wide. It had two spiral trunks or horns, one on each corner of the mouth. He says that after he had put a bullet in it, the monster flew at his boat, and with its mouth wide open, its tail ly horns protruding in front, its tail slashing the air and water, and its fins playing on each side, it struck terror into his crew. By a mere miracle he escaped, by lending off with an oar, as a broadside he flew down its throat! After much difficulty it was captured, and an ineffectual attempt was made by five men to drag it ashore. He thinks it must have weighed upwards of 2,000 pounds.

"You will be gratified to hear that Judge Story has completely recovered his health, and will take his seat again on the bench in Massachusetts during the present month. Judge Story was absent from the last session of the Supreme Court at Washington—the first time, I believe, in thirty-one years—and it will be a welcome piece of intelligence to his brother Judges of that Court, as it is a matter of no small interest to the country at large, that at the coming session he will probably be restored to his important functions. During this late prostration of his health he had proposed a voyage to England, and it was so written to Mr. Everett, who, having reason to expect him by a certain packet, mentioned his gratifying anticipations to some of his friends. Cards of invitation 'to meet the eminent American jurist, Judge Story,' were immediately issued by Lord Brougham, Lord Denman, and Lord Lyndhurst, and a party of the haute volee made arrangements to give him a public dinner at Searjeant's Inn. The dinners took place, all but the last, and the disappointment was great at his not arriving—but his character and name were duly honored. With only my share of patriotic pride in Judge Story, (for I have not the honor of a personal acquaintance with him,) I may own that my cheeks tingled with pleasure at hearing, through an indirect channel, of these appreciative tributes to his renown in England; and the Government should remember, I think, that there is a very positive feeling, and not merely a cold and abstract approval, in the bosom of every thinking American—when he hears how his country is honored in the persons of such representatives as can be the intimate friends of men of STORY'S "lift"—EDWARD EVERETT, for example. Such exercise of the appointing power, rigorously adhered to, would be worth more to an Administration, I should suppose, than the favor of a clique gratified by a favorite's reward—pride in the tame of the country abroad quite left out, as a motive. But this is not information, and I say no more."

A TOO FOND WIFE.—Among the items of late foreign intelligence, our readers may remember the mention of the death of a Mr. Aymer, a circus vaulter. The North Adams (Massachusetts) Transcript gives the following melancholy account of the effect of the news upon his widow, who is a resident of that town:

"Mr. Aymer formerly resided in this village, and left here engaged in his profession, about a year since. He has here, residing with her mother, a beautiful and lovely wife of twenty, to whom the intelligence of his awful end was communicated by means of the newspapers on Friday last. She read it, shed a tear over it, and burst into the wild laugh of the maniac.

It was one of the most heart-rending scenes the eye ever beheld, to look upon the mental ruins of this beautiful female, to encounter that wild and frantic eye, and to listen to the wild and unmeaning conversation of one whose reason has stranded. On the Sabbath she arrayed herself in her bridal dress, and wandered over the fields plucking flowers, and dressing herself with fantastic ornaments, piercing the ear and the heart with her frantic cries for her lover. Mrs. Aymer buried her only child in New York the past summer, and is now verily alone on the bleak waste of life, without a star to guide her frail and shattered barque, and without a beacon-light to warn her of quicksands and shoals."

NORTH CAROLINA COTTON FACTORIES.—The Greensboro' Patriot gives an account of eight of these establishments, one, the Mt. Hecla, in that town, and the others in the neighborhood, viz:—The High Falls and Alamance Factories, in Orange; the Cedar Falls and Franklinsville Factories, in Randolph; the Lexington, in Davidson; the Salem, in Stokes; and the Leaksville, in Rockingham. That called Mt. Hecla, was among the first put in operation in the southern country. The Lexington and Salem Factories are worked by steam. The products of these mills, besides supplying an extensive country demand, are sent off in immense quantities to the northern and western markets.

In Fayetteville and immediate vicinity, the Observer enumerates six factories, viz: Mallet's Cross Creek, Phoenix, Rockfish, Beaver Creek and Little River.

Besides these, there are in the other parts of the state, one at Salisbury; one at Rockingham; one at Lincolnton; one at Rocky Mount, Edgecombe; one at Cane Creek, Chatham; one at Concord, Cabarrus; one at Milton; one at Mockeville; one at Milledgeville, Montgomery county; one in Surry county; and one other in Orange county—making 25 in all.

The capital invested in the twenty-five is estimated by the Observer at about a million and fifty thousand dollars; the number of spindles about 50,000; persons employed from 12 to 1,500; and number of bales of cotton consumed at not less than 15,000.
[Wilmington Chronicle.

REVIEW.—A review of the 15th Regiment of Militia of this State and of the Volunteer Companies, took place in this town on Tuesday last, 10th inst. About 600 men were on parade. They were reviewed by Col. A. Declouet, assisted by Major Dreuzin Broussard, and inspected by Brigadier General T. H. Lewis, Inspector General Armand not being present for causes unknown to us. The company of Attakapas Light Infantry, 30 strong, commanded by Capt. Briant, and the Breaux's Bridge Hussards, Captain Z. Broussard, deserve great credit for their soldier-like appearance and good discipline. The other troops are also entitled to much praise for the punctuality and alacrity with which they responded to the orders of their superior officers. A fuller muster we do not recollect to have seen here for many years, and the general appearance of the militia was highly satisfactory.—St. Martinsville Gaz.

☞ The river is now in fine boating order, having risen 5 or 6 feet since our last. The Export has gone down to the mouth, returned to this place, and passed up yesterday morning. A new steamer, called the Sarah, also arrived here yesterday.—Arkansas Gazette, 11th inst.

Hon. JOHN J. CRITTENDEN was on a visit to Nashville at the last accounts.

INTERESTING LETTERS—REVOLUTIONARY RELICS.

The subjoined letters of WASHINGTON and ALEXANDER HAMILTON, have been handed us by Dr. WM. A. CLENDENIN of this city, who says in a note—"they were rescued from destruction in an old warehouse in Fredericksburg, Va., long own by ANTHONY BUCK, Esq., and were presented to me by his son Mr. JOHN BUCK, who reserved one or two others equally as interesting, though time-worn and partly illegible."

WASHINGTON'S letters are addressed to General SMALLWOOD, of the Maryland line; and it is believed that HAMILTON'S is also addressed to him, though the direction is lost. The handwriting of the Father of his country, in the originals, is marked by its characteristic boldness and force. HAMILTON'S writing is legible enough, but wants ease, and the lines run somewhat irregularly.—(Baltimore American.)

HEAD-QUARTERS, Valley Forge,
1st June, 1778.

Dear Sir,—I received yours of the 30th May. A person, whom I sent down to Chester to observe the movements of the fleet, left that place yesterday at dusk. He informs me that upwards of one hundred sail had come down from Philadelphia, and that they did not stop near Wilmington, but proceeded towards the Capes. If this is so, it is a plain proof that they have no design to land any body of men to molest our stores.

Capt. McLean, who commands a scouting party upon the enemy's line, has been this morning as near Philadelphia as Kingston, where he has had a full view of the harbour. He says very few ships remained, and these chiefly armed vessels. I, therefore, upon sending an officer to Chester and another to Wilmington, you find that the vessels have gone down and have passed New-Castle, you are immediately to join me with your whole continental force. I am, dear Sir,
Yr. most ob't. serv't,
G. WASHINGTON.

P. S. Bring up your tents with you, and your lightest baggage, as you will probably march immediately northward.

HEAD QUARTERS, Valley Forge,
5th June, 1778.

Dear Sir,—In your last of the 2d instant, with which I was favoured, you advised me that the motions of the enemies' ships were closely watched. That 80 sail had passed Wilmington and anchored two miles below New Castle.

As it is of much consideration to note the number that have passed through the Cheveux de frize, and their present position, I would therefore wish to have the matter attended to with a good deal of care, and communicated as soon as possible.

Our information from Philadelphia still wears the same face. They have crossed their wagons and a quantity of pork and meat over Cooper's Ferry. A correspondent mentions that their rout will be directed, by different roads, to Elvinborough, about two miles below New Castle, on the Jersey side, where he learns they mean to embark—but this is mere conjecture.

I am, Sir,
Your very humble serv't.,
G. WASHINGTON.

Brig. Gen'l. SMALLWOOD, Pennsborough.

HEAD-QUARTERS, Oct. 1st, 1778.

Sir,—With the money you have drawn from the Paymaster General, you will use your best endeavors to enlist the draft from Maryland to serve for three years, or during the war, in the Army of the United States.

To facilitate the enlistments you will put the money into the hands of such officers as you may judge proper for the occasion.

Each draft or soldier, enlisting either for three years or during the war, is to be paid a bounty of twenty dollars. Besides he will receive the usual allowance of clothing and of land.

Where the enlistment is for three years it is to commence from the expiration of the time of service, for which each man enlisting stands now engaged.

You or the officers appointed by you are not to enlist the drafts or soldiers belonging to any but your own State.

The names of the men who enlist—the time when—and the terms for which they engage, whether for three years or during the war—are all to be particularly noted and set down, that there may not be any dispute or mistake respecting the same.

I am, Sir, your most ob'd't. serv't.,
G. WASHINGTON.

To Gen'l. SMALLWOOD.

P. S. You will make a weekly report of the number enlisted.

Dear General,—By His Excellency's commands, I am to inform you, that you are to take the command of four batts, one appointed to maneuvre in presence of the French Minister. I enclose you the manoeuvres which are to be performed. If there should be anything in them which requires explanation, though I imagine you will find them pretty clear, the Baron de Steuben will with pleasure give the explanation if you think proper to apply to him. The battalions must practice these manoeuvres to-morrow, and the next day, if we have time. Col. Henry Lee's any will be glad to assist the execution of your orders upon this occasion.
I am, dear General,
Your most obedient serv't,
ALEX. HAMILTON,
Aid-de-camp.

Commercial.

NEW-ORLEANS, THURSDAY NIGHT,
OCTOBER 19, 1843.

The Cotton market continues heavy, with a constantly accumulating stock, and although holders evince a ready disposition to sell, yet it is not met by a corresponding action on the part of buyers. The sales of the day amount to about 1500 bales.

DOMESTIC MARKETS.

MEMPHIS—OCTOBER 14.

BUSINESS OF THE WEEK.—The past week has been one of considerable activity in all departments of business. Our Dry-goods merchants, especially, have been kept very busy disposing of their new stocks.

COTTON.—The business transacted in the Cotton market has been very extensive. On Thursday the sales were very brisk at full prices. The following comprise a portion of the business of that day:—4 at 6, —33 at 7—18 at 7½—76 at 7¼—95 at 7¾—64 at 7½—21 at 7½; from which it will be seen that the ruling figures were 7½ @ 7¾. On yesterday, however, buyers receded nearly if not quite a full half cent, and sellers being unwilling to make this concession, the transactions were limited. We make no change in our figures, but would remark that none but a superior article would now command the prices of Thursday. The prices which rule in the New-Orleans market, together with the inactivity which prevails there, and in all to a considerable extent continue while the yellow fever exists as an epidemic, has been the cause of this decline in our own. Besides, the receipts within the last day or two have not been equal in quality to those put upon the market at its first opening, owing to the rust and the injury sustained by the recent rains.

HEADQUARTERS—SECOND REGIMENT L. M.
New Orleans, October 16th, 1843.

ORDER No. 9.—

1st. In obedience to orders from Brigade head quarters, this Regiment will parade on Saturday, the 21st instant, at 4 o'clock, p. m., on the public square known by the appellation of "Congo Square," between Rampart, St Peter, St Claude and St Ann streets; the line will be formed on the south side of the square, the right resting on Rampart st:—there will be Camp Colors posted to designate the position which each company is to occupy.

2d. Commanding officers of companies will issue their orders for their companies to assemble within the limits of their command, at half past 3 o'clock, p. m., so that they can call their rolls and march to the Regimental parade ground by the time appointed.

3d. Commanding officers of companies will be furnished with blank notices, to be posted up in six conspicuous places within their command, by application to the Colonel.

4th. Commanding officers of companies will immediately correct their rolls, so that they can make correct reports of the actual state of their command on their arrival at the Regimental parade ground.

5th. All officers are positively directed on the day of parade to preserve good order in the ranks, to enforce a rigid discipline according to law, and to take particular notice of any insubordination, and report the delinquents to the commanding officer, that the law may be enforced.

6th. The regular company parades are fixed for the 4th Saturday in October, the 4th Saturday in February, and the 4th Saturday of June in each year.

7th. At the company parade on the 4th saturday of this month, an election will take place, to fill all the vacancies that may be among the officers, to be presided by the commanding officer of the company present.

8th. This order will be read on the parade ground previous to their marching to the Regimental parade ground.

9th. The limits of this Regiment are from St Louis to St Philip, and from the Levee to Rampart street.

The 1st company is bounded by the Levee, the centre of St Louis, Bourbon and Toulouse streets.

The 2d company is bounded by the centre of Bourbon, St Louis, Rampart and Toulouse streets.
