INSTITUTION.

ST. XAVIER COLLEGE.

THIS Institution, incorporated by the State of Ohio under the same style of St. Xavier College, offers all the advantages of a Metropolitan University. Its number of students usually exceeds those every part of the Union, and every pains has been taken to make it attractive to such as aspire to a finished education.

Belonging to the establishment is an extensive and well selected Library, among numerous valuable works of six thousand volumes, and a Museum containing many specimens in Conchology and Mineralogy, besides a suitable provision of philosophical and philosophical apparatus.

The college buildings are spacious, airy and commodious, dry, well-aerated and abundant; the discipline home, but unobtrusive and constituitory. (Besides this, in favorable weather, the students are allowed a week, to go on foot (when not too warm, otherwise by omnibus) to the Purcell mansion, a large country seat belonging to the institution, between 3 and 4 miles from the city.) And in case of contagious diseases, (and this is of the greatest importance) it may shortly would contract the disease, he would be immediately withdrawn from the college and sent to the country seat, and placed in separate apartments.

Corporal exercise, as well as mental, serves with due attention, to which end there is erected on the premises, a Gymnasium, to which, in hours of recreation, the students have continual access.

In the college are employed from fifteen to twenty teachers, all particularly devoted to the instruction of those under their care. The Professors, and a large majority of the students, are of the Roman Catholic Religion, but people of all denominations are admitted, with the exhaustion and restriction, being, or, of exterior conformity to all the exercises of public devotion.

Plan of Instruction.

The course of instruction comprises two departments, the one Classical, the other Mercantile; which latter, it is found, is sufficient to admit of the pupil following either, or both.

The Mercantile Department consists of a thorough course of English including Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Geography, Use of the Globes, History, Political Economy and Book-keeping.

The Classical Department includes the branches just specified, comprehends the Greek and Latin Languages, Poetry, Rhetoric, Chemistry, Physics, Mathematics, Mental and Moral Philosophy. The French, Spanish and German Languages are at the option of the student, and are taught without additional charge.

In the class of Philosophy, the language employed is exclusively Latin, in the French, German and Spanish classes, instruction is received in their respective languages, on all other occasions, the ordinary language of communication is English.

Regulations Pertaining to Boarders.

They are at all times under the superintendence of one of more preceds. Once a month they are permitted to visit their parents, guardians or relations, residing in the city or vicinity. Unless in particular case, or, without absence during session is allowed. At the end of each quarter, bulletins of health conduct and progress in studies, are transmitted to the parents and guardians.

LOUIS DUFAU, Principal.

THE Principal of this new establishment in hopes of having founded an institution, such may offer to the youth of Louisiana, the same resources and advantages at the colleges of the North and Europe. In order to achieve the object he has associated with himself the most distinguished Professors of New Orleans.

The Principal will spare no pains, and will endeavor to make the College to be popular, and will endeavor as well as to cultivate the faculties of the mind. The Principal will also be of the opinion that it is important to bring up children well in order to be fruitful and solid, must rest on a basis of morality and religion.

The course of study in the College of Louisiana will embrace Instruction in Dead and Living Languages (Greek, Latin, English, French and Spanish) Ancient Geography, Philosophy, Rhetoric, Mathematics and Natural Sciences, Political Economy, Belles Lettres, etc.

Each pupil will be required to have the best of instruction in the French, Spanish and Italian languages, also in drawing and dancing. The piano, harp and guitar, as well as vocal music, are taught by professors of the highest grade of qualification.

There are now eight instructors in the institution, and it is the aim of the principals to make it, in all respects such as parents may desire for their daughters. Every care is taken not only to instil proper morals, and to form the heart, but also to cultivate the understanding of the pupils, but to make them intelligent as well as accomplished, and, consequently, fit them for society and future usefulness.

Young ladies from the country living in the family as boarders, share in the expenses, privileges and protection of daughters, and are uniformly treated, not so much as members of a boarding school, as daughters of an affectionate family.

To the establishment is attached a large and well selected library; and to create a thirst for the acquisition of general knowledge as to the improvements and changes that are continually taking place in the literary, scientific and political worlds, leading Periodicals of a truly valuable character, and standard books of reference, are at the command of the young ladies of the school. Care is taken to select the important purposes of teaching them to acquire useful knowledge for themselves, by means of rare and standard institutes.

Moral Instruction.

A class for the study of the Latin language, will be found on the first of November, and one on the use of the Globes.

References are made to parents who have had their daughters at the institution for years, and whose testimonials and circulars can be obtained by applying, personally, or by letter either to Dr. or Mrs. Macaulay.

SCHOLA-TIC YEAR 1851-52.

THIS Institution which for the last twelve years, has followed a constant career of progress and prosperity, has resumed its usual course of studies since the 1st September.

Madame Deron, formerly a pupil and professor of the "Maison Royale de St. Denis," and a graduate of the University of France, has endeavored to profit by the experience which she has acquired in the United States, to place her Institution on the first rank of educational establishments America.

Madame Deron, exclusively devoted to her pupils, applies herself not only to the cultivation of the mind, but also to the formation of the heart. She strongly desires that the young Ladies confided to her care may be distinguished for all those valuable qualities which constitute a truly good education, such as the spirit of order and decorum, amiability of temper and solidity of judgment, moderation of manners and a sympathizing disposition. Healthy easy grace and reserved elegance of manners. In order to obtain these results, Madame Deron has always employed as assistants in her Institution, an assiduous and constant use of emulation, and especially rewards for application and regularity in study. She is assisted by her sister-in-law, Mademoiselle Deron, who, like herself has always followed the career of instruction; these two ladies watch with the greatest zeal over the daily progress of the pupils.

The location of the institution well known and appreciated in New Orleans, as one of the most suitable and salubrious in the city, is perfectly well adapted for a good and study rooms and dormitories are spacious and airy, looking over a vast and garden, and there are besides a handsome yard and a tremendous Gallery for the use of the pupils.

The general instruction is given both in French and English; it embraces all the branches which constitute a finished education for young ladies. The Professors, and all who are laboring under chronic diseases, general derangement, nervous debility, weakness, the effects of secrecy, or abuse of the blood, are invited to call. There are thousands throughout the land who stand in need of such a remedy, who are ignorant of the fact that they will not regret it.

MEDICAL.

BY JOSEPH WALKER,

Governor of the State of Louisiana.

TO THE SHERIFFS THROUGHOUT THE STATE.

WHEREAS, by an act of the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, entitled, "an act to take the sense of the people on the expediency of calling a Convention to change the Constitution, and to provide for the election of delegates, and the holding of the Convention," approved February 24d, 1852, it is enacted that on the 5th day of April next following, a poll shall be opened at all the election precincts in this State, now established by law, for the purpose of receiving the votes of the qualified voters of the State for or against the calling of a convention to change the Constitution; and whereas, it is further enacted by the 5th section of the aforesaid act, that on the 19th day of May, 1852, the Governor, Secretary of State and Attorney General, in the presence of all such persons who may desire to attend, shall proceed to open the votes so given in aforesaid, for and against a convention, which section reads as follows:

"If a majority of all the votes taken at the polls shall be for a convention, the Governor shall immediately issue his proclamation, making known the result of said vote, and shall at the same time issue his precepts, ordering the several Sheriffs of the several parishes of this State, to issue writs of election for the number of delegates to which the respective parishes may be entitled to serve as delegates in a State Convention, and delegates to possess the same qualifications now required by law for the members of the General Assembly, and shall be chosen at a special election, to be held on the fourth day of July (4th) of June, 1852, in the same manner and form now provided by law for the election of members to the General Assembly, and the several Sheriffs of the parishes shall elect the same number of delegates as they now elect Representatives to the General Assembly and where a Representative was by law entitled to be elected in conjunction with the 1st section of the above entitled act ordering an election throughout the State to be held on the 4th day of April, 1852, for the purpose therein mentioned.

Now, therefore, agreeably to the 5th section of the act above mentioned, I do hereby proceed to open the votes given in for and against a convention, making known the result of the vote of the good people of this State at the election held on the 12th day of April, 1852, for and against a Convention to change the Constitution, which vote is as follows, viz:
