HOMWARDS.

Ship Dalmatia, Pouland, 32 days from Boston, and Key West, Sept 13th. Left at latter place an English ship condemned, having been on shore on Carysfort reef, on her passage from New Orleans to Liverpool. Sailed the day before sloop Edmund B Funk, 10 days from New York for New Orleans.

August 22—Lat 34 40, long 71 25, passed brig New Castle, standing to the southward.

August 29—Above lights S W, five miles distant, commenced blowing a severe hurricane, with a heavy sea, and shortly after hauled to the S E hours. During the gale the ship springs a leak, making 2 feet 6 inches per hour. Put into Key West for assistance.

Ship Gordon, Leonard, 60 days from Boston, has had a continuation of hard squalls and calms.
