NOTICE.—The new steamer MATHILDA JANE, makes her trip every Sunday, from the Levee leaving at the foot of Jackson street, and returning on Wednesday, at the usual hour, and persons wishing to go to the Mobile Fashionable parade in her may do so at a season of hard weather, food and attendance. At each voyage she will visit the Rigolets, the Islands of the Cottages, and the Mouth of the Lake, on her return trip with passengers and on board of a half a mile.
The hands of the Company will not interfere in any way, nor will the transportation of article which may require them the use.
If the weather be favorably received by the public, there will also be a trip on Sunday, and her one on every Thursday.
The price of passage is 50 cents. Children and servants, half price.

THE CAPTAINS OF VESSELS.—Masters of vessels and others, are requested to use their vessels up or towards the Cocoa's lake, in order to prevent the spread of cholera, by sending at the First Municipality Police Station, or at the Public Square.
I am obliged to be expressly, but the one and has sufficient reason for the same, and I have offered the same with the Municipality, and I have offered the same to the Board of Health, and I have offered the same to the Board of Health, and I have offered the same to the Board of Health
