MEMORANDA.

Schr Wm. Penn (from Sisal) reports Commodore Moore with the Texian fleet to have arrived at that port on the 31 inst and waits only positively on the 7th for Galveston.—She also left at sisal schrs Endeavor and Glide, and pilot boat Argus, all for this port.

The brig Lime Rock sailed from Brazos Santiago on the 1st inst. Left schr Caroline, Collins, taking in hides for N York, and to sail in about 10 days; schrs C. C. Zabriskie and Hudson were buying off the mouth of the river waiting for water. The former had lost her anchor and chasing off the Rio del Norte, about the middle of June, and ran into the Brazos, where she got supplies and sailed for Matamoras on the 8th inst.

The brig Lime Rock brought to the city, the captain, officers and crew of the French brig Victor, wrecked one mile to the north of Brazos Santiago, on the night of the 19th ult. The American whaling schr Mercury, which was capsized by a water spout on 1st. 25, 30, drifted on shore near the Brazos, on the 30th ult, and broke in pieces. A new suit of sails, some salt provisions and from 3 to 10 casks oil were saved, and the American Consul at Matamoras intended to settle the matter by average.

Steamer West Wind left Cincinnati on the 8th instant, and reports a fine water in the Ohio and falling—passed the Douglass and Empress aground at Portland.
