The New-Orleans Bee.

No. 545. VOL. VIII.—NEW SERIES.
VOL. XXI.—WHOLE No. 3546.

LEGAL ADVERTISING PAPER.—NEW-ORLEANS, FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 3. 1847.

MAGNE & WEISSE, PROPRIETORS.
No. 91 Chartres, and 12 Camp street.

TERMS OF THE BEE.

[illegible]

The New-Orleans Daily Bee.

Friday Morning, Dec. 3, 1847.

THE PROSPECTS.

[illegible] the weather should prove propitious, the reception of GEN. TAYLOR and HARNEY, to-day, will be one of the most enthusiastic ever witnessed in this city. Barbecued the ox, [illegible] and [illegible] as they are [illegible] the cere[illegible] celebration we would wish the day to be the sternest set to take part in it. We [illegible] the Grand Ball the evening was intended to be a festival [illegible] the Navy, the Army and Navy of the United States, the fourth, Gen Zachary Taylor, the hero of Palo Alto, Resaca de la Palma, Monterey, and Buena Vista, the fifth Gen Winfield Scott, the sixth, Major Gen John A. Quitman, our brave and beloved fellow citizen. [illegible] Gen. Quitman, our brave and beloved fellow citizen.

This most called the General out again, and show to our [illegible] historical romance centre of the battles of Monterey and the taking of Mexico. He appeared, in many things quite reminiscent of the Marquis of Monterey, from the letters written to the authors of history, and declared that his report on that occasion had never been published. In that glorious event he conducted the Tennessians so closely with the brave Rifles of Mississippi, that they [illegible] the remains of Major General Hopkins, Major Martin Scott, Col. McIntosh and others.

[illegible] Monterey and the taking of Mexico. He appeared, in many things quite reminiscent of the Marquis of Monterey, from the letters written to the authors of history, and declared that his report on that occasion had never been published. In that glorious event he conducted the Tennessians so closely with the brave Rifles of Mississippi, that they [illegible] the remains of the same mother.

[illegible] chiefly went into the outlines of the campaign, giving that great and [illegible] his full need of praise.

[illegible] speaking and have not space to [illegible] details of this triumphant welcome home and farther.

[illegible] Gen. Quitman's voice, weakened and [illegible] and depressed by his arduous services, but [illegible] of hope for his country. The ceremony was witnessed by an immense multitude, and the applause was like the roar of many waters.

The Free Trader says

[illegible] the immense crowd that had [illegible] the [illegible] withdrawn, the [illegible] table, at which Gen Quitman, his aids, the committee of arrangement and other distinguished citizens were seated, to put on the appearance only of a "flow of soul;" but a least of review [illegible] of the occasion were introduced, the President of the United States, second, the Ministry of General Scott, third, the Army and Navy of the United States, fourth, Gen Zachary Taylor, the hero of Palo Alto, Resaca de la Palma, Monterey, and Buena Vista, the fifth Gen Winfield Scott, the sixth, Major Gen John A. Quitman, our brave and beloved fellow citizen.

[illegible] Gen. Quitman, our brave and beloved fellow citizen.

[illegible] Gen. Quitman, our brave and beloved fellow citizen.

[illegible] Gen