For copies of all acts, for each one hundred words, ten cents,
For all sales of real and personal estate, one per cent. on all sums not exceeding two thousand dollars; and one half of one per cent. on all sums exceeding two thousand dollars,

SECT. 7. Be it further enacted, &c., That the Probate Judge of the parish of Orleans shall not be authorized to make the inventory or the sales of any estate, but he may execute the other duties enumerated in the preceding section, assisted by the Register of Wills, and for the said duties shall be entitled to receive the same compensation as are allowed to the Parish Judges; which compensation shall be equally divided between the said Judge and the Register of Wills, provided however, that in any case the total amount of the fees allowed to the Parish Judges under this act shall not exceed three per centum of the amount of the inventory of sale.

SECT. 8. Be it further enacted, &c., That from and after the passage of this act, all the attorneys for absent heirs, or persons appointed by order of the Court, shall pay into the State Treasury, ten per cent. on the salary or fee allowed to them for representing said absent heirs or any persons whatever, that it shall be the duty of the judge allowing said salary or fee to transmit quarterly to the State Treasurer, a list of the attorneys appointed in his Court to represent absent heirs or persons, together with the amount of fee or fees allowed said attorneys in each case, with a short statement of the service rendered and of the nature of the case in which said services were required; provided that the fees allowed by the Judge shall not exceed five per cent. on the first thousand dollars recovered, and two and a half per cent. on any sum above one thousand dollars recovered.

SECT. 9. Be it further enacted, &c., That it shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to annex to his annual report a copy of the aforesaid statements made to him by the Judges of the several Courts in this State.

SECT. 10. Be it further enacted, &c.; That from and after the first day of April 1845, the Marshal of the City Court of the City of New Orleans shall be entitled to the same fees as those allowed to the Sheriffs by this act, for services rendered by him in the Appellate City Court in the City of New Orleans, and he shall be entitled to the following fees for services rendered in the Associate City Court of the City of New Orleans, to wit:

For serving a summons and warrant for debt, fifty cents,
For summoning each witness, twenty-five cents,
For serving execution for debt and return, fifty cents,
For selling property under execution, five per cent. provided that no per centage shall be allowed to the Marshal on any monies made on such executions or orders of seizure, over and above the amount for which the same issued,
For serving attachment and return, fifty cents,
For serving summons for contempt, and bringing party into Court, fifty cents.

SECT. 11. Be it further enacted, &c., That he shall be entitled to the same fees now allowed to the Sheriffs, for such other services in said Associate City Court as are not specified in the above items.

SECT. 12. Be it further enacted, &c.; That from and after the promulgation of this act, that the third section of an act entitled "An act allowing compensation to Jurors and for other purposes," approved March 24th, 1823, be and the same is hereby repealed, and that all other laws assessing tax fees on suits instituted in any of the Courts in this State be repealed; provided that the provisions of this section shall not extend to the City Courts of the City of New Orleans, and to the City Courts of the City of Lafayette.

SECT. 13. Be it further enacted, &c.; That if any officer mentioned in this act shall presume to charge, demand or receive any other, higher or greater fees than are particularly and specially set forth in this act, he shall be liable for every such offence to refund the amount so overcharged, and be fined in a sum of not over fifty dollars, nor under twenty dollars, to be recovered before any competent Court, or on motion, before the District or Parish Court for the use of the parish.

SECT. 14. Be it further enacted, &c., That the provisions of the fourth section of this act shall not apply to the recorder of mortgages in the city of New Orleans, to recorders of mortgages throughout the State, or to parish judges when acting as recorder of mortgages, or to the register of conveyances in the city of New Orleans or to parish judges when acting as register of conveyances.

SECT. 15. Be it further enacted, &c., That the expenses of the court of the first Judicial District and of the Commercial Court of New Orleans, and the salaries of the Judges of said Courts at the rate fixed by the law entitled "an act to provide for the payment of the expenses of the Judiciary in New Orleans and for other purposes," approved the twenty-ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, and any arrears thereby incurred since the month of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-four be paid out of any monies in the treasury not otherwise appropriated in the manner prescribed by law before the passage of this act.

SECT. 16. Be it further enacted, &c., That all laws and parts of laws contrary to the intent and meaning of this act, be and the same is hereby repealed.
