Very Valuable Sugar Land.
Sale without reserve, to effect a partition.
BY N. VIGNIE, Auctioneer.
(Exchange Alley, North corner of Conti street.)
Nos. 29, 30 and 32.

SATURDAY, November 27th, 1847, at 12 o'clock, at the City Exchange, St Louis street, will be sold the following valuable Sugar Land, without reserve, to effect a partition:

Twenty-two arpents of land, situated in the parish of Plaquemines, on the left bank of the Mississippi, 37 miles below the city, and 9 miles above Pointe a la Hache. This tract is located in one of the best sugar growing regions of Louisiana; the cane being seldom or never injured by frost, and which yields much less than in other parts of the State. The fact of the mildness of the climate is evident from the quantity of oranges grown there. The soil is light and easily tilled, and is entirely free from cocos grass. The depth from the river bank varies from 20 to 25 arpents of wooded land; the balance is high prairie, affording an excellent grazing for cattle. There are about 30 arpents of [illegible] cultivated. This section of country is remarkable for healthy. Game and fish abound in considerable varieties. Communications with the city are frequent. Persons desirous of investing their capital in sugar lands, will find this an excellent opportunity. On the sale will be effected without [illegible] A plan of the property can be seen at Mr. N. Vignie.

Terms: one third cash; balance at 1 and 2 years, with notes endorsed to the satisfaction of the vendor, and bearing mortgage on the property.—The lot will be divided in conformity with the convenience of the vendors. [illegible]
