Congressional.

In the SENATE, on the 7th, Mr. Dix presented a memorial from New York, praying that foreign wheat may be imported free of duty for the purpose of being ground into flour, and exported for the benefit of our wheat. [illegible] from the House to confirm the boundary between Missouri and Arkansas was read twice and referred. A bill to divide the District of Arkansas into two judicial districts was considered, and the question passed over informally. Mr. [illegible] Judiciary Committee, reported a bill to carry into effect a recommendation in the President's message, a bill to carry into effect certain provisions in the treaty with China, which was read a first time.

Mr. Davis, of Mass., introduced a memorial of the Friends of New England, [illegible] their yearly meeting at Providence, [illegible] against the further extension of the area of slavery, which was read on the table.

Mr. Baldwin submitted a resolution [illegible] Secretary of War be required to furnish the Senate with a copy of Taylor's letter of January 27, 1847, addressed to the Secretary of War. The letter was read, and the Senate adjourned.

In the HOUSE, the report of the Committee of the Whole on the following of the President's message was taken, and after a speech by Mr. Smith, of Indiana, Mr. Vinton spoke of the amendment of Mr. Wilmot, above, to direct [illegible] in the territories, for consideration [illegible] previous question. The question was then put and acted upon separately. [illegible] proposed the day previous to Mr. Wilmot, was adopted, and [illegible] amendment thus amended, was [illegible] 113.
